

WEEK OF THE STAGE WORLD.

Frank Carlisle Succeeds Barrymore in Palmer's Stock Co.

De Koven's New Opera to Be Staged by Capt. Thompson.

There has been considerable curiosity to learn who would succeed Maurice Barrymore in Mr. A. M. Palmer's stock company. Various names have been mentioned, but all the guesses were wrong. Frank Carlisle is the man, and Mr. Palmer himself is the authority for the announcement.

Capt. Alfred Thompson has signed a contract with M. Hill to stage the Koven's new opera, "The Taming Master," which Manager Hill will perform at the Standard Theatre, with Marie Tempest in the leading role, and he will appear in "Alabama" in August.

It is proposed to put on "As You Like It" at a matinee at the Madison Square Theatre May 20, in which Miss Alberta Gallatin, who is said to have met with some favor in the West, shall make her New York debut. The arrangements are perfected. Charles H. Harned is to play Jacques.

Charles H. Hoyt has attained his heart's desire, having been elected a delegate to the New Hampshire Republican State Convention.

Digby Bell wandered more or less aimlessly into a downtown pool-room the other day, it is said, and noticed on the blackboard the name of Jupiter. The odds quoted were 8 to 1 to win, $10 for the place, and even money to show.

John L. Sullivan is back on his own stamping-grounds again after a two years absence, and spent the day yesterday in greeting old friends and in making arrangements for his fight with Tom Sayers, which will take place on Saturday night at the Casino.

SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES.

Lannon and Godfrey in Good Form for Their "Go" To-Night.

Giants and Quakers Play Two Games at Polo Grounds To-Day.

The sports are enthusiastic over the Godfrey-Lannon battle, to be fought at Coney Island to-night, and it is the chief topic of conversation among the followers of the prize-ring. The fact that Lannon and Godfrey have both located within easy walking distance of the club has given all those who are in the habit of visiting the club a chance to see them up.

Lannon is in better form than his friends anticipated. Godfrey is in good condition, too, and wears an air of "do or die" about him. The club officials have been busy getting things into shape, and several objectionable appointments at the club-house that were noticed at the Philadelphia-Kelly fight have been put in condition. It is claimed that the club is in better condition now to handle the crowd that is expected than it would have been last Monday night. Godfrey and Lannon have met twice before, and each fight has been unsatisfactory to them. But the fight to-night is not stopped by the authorities. The club officials claim that a draw will not be permitted under any circumstances. Harry Wagoner has been engaged to referee. The sports are pleased at the selection of "Al" Smith as referee. At the last fight Smith did not have a great deal to do, but the wise ones say that he will run up against a hard game to-night.

The Giants and Quakers played two games at Polo Grounds to-day. The first game was a draw, and the second game was won by the Giants. The Quakers are in poor form, and the Giants are in good form. The game was a close one, and the Giants were victorious in the end.

The Philadelphia-Kelly fight was a close one, and the Philadelphia team was victorious in the end. The fight was a hard one, and the Philadelphia team was in good form. The Philadelphia team was victorious in the end.
