

THE TURF. Spectators Hiss the Horses Contending for the Brooklyn Cup. JOCKEY BENDER SUSPENDED. Decision of the Allan Bane-Banquet Race Saves the Bookies.

The racing public could not contain its lack of sobriety in its excitement yesterday. It was one day in a million. Everything seemed turned upside down, and spectators became so disgusted that during the farcical race for the Brooklyn Cup they hissed vigorously while the quarter was being run, once again, from them. Only two horses started in this historic event—Longhorn and his jockey, and the other, a horse named Bane-Banquet. The latter was a double winner of the race, and his jockey, having been a double winner of the race, was suspended for a second year. It is to be hoped that the repetition of this race will never occur again.

In the second race, a double winner of the race, was suspended for a second year. It is to be hoped that the repetition of this race will never occur again.
