TAMMANY'S LEADERS--ART SUPPLEMENT--SUNDAY WORLD.

LAST EDITION.
A BIG REGISTRATION.
"First Day" Records Likely to Be Broken in This City.

Judge Andrews Nominated for Chief of Court of Appeals.

Mr. Cleveland to Speak in Madison Square Garden Oct. 29.

Reports received up to noon at Tammany Hall, Republican and Democratic State and National headquarters show a fairly heavy registration in this city, particularly in the downtown and outside districts, where the labor vote is large. This is accounted for because today is a sort of a holiday, when many voters have a day off and they took early opportunity to register.

The fine weather, too, has brought out many who would otherwise have postponed or neglected this political duty altogether.

The polling places where the Boards of Registrars are in session opened at 9 o'clock this morning and will remain open until 6 o'clock to-night.

The next day of registration will be Wednesday, Oct. 19. In the meantime the Tammany and Republican district leaders will go over the registry lists, and all those known to be voters and who did not register to-day will be urged to do so then.

Under the new law there are 1,137 election districts where registration is going on. Last year there were only 887. The first day of registration last year there were 70,147 names enrolled. In 1888, the last Presidential year, there were 99,813. The total registry of 1892 was 279,000. Indications are that to-day will break the "first-day" record.

Whiteley, ex-Senator Platt and Miller and Chairman Brookfield and Hackett were in conference all the morning at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Mr. Platt, with his usual forethought, had selected a candidate for Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals to-be-nominate. This would, it was said, be a return for the Republican endorsement of Judge Earl when he was a candidate.

Should this course be followed, Judge Andrews' election would be practically unopposed. The vacancy caused by his elevation would be filled by appointment by a Democratic Governor, leaving the political complexion of the Court of Appeals to the Senator Hill in the city and will remain until after the nomination, in which he takes a deep interest, is made.

The Campaign Committee, acting under the auspices of the Business Men's Business Association, met last evening at the Hoffman House. Forest H. Parker, L. J. Callahan, James T. Franklin, Alexander Meakin, Julius D. May, William Young, M. Tolson, John J. Rooney, M. W. Carr, W. E. Corwin, Oscar S. Straus, George P. Ganx and others were among the members present.

They announced that they had secured the Madison Square Garden for the mass-meeting to be held the night of Oct. 29, when it is expected that Mr. Cleveland will make an address.

Many mysterious conferences of Republicans were in progress all day at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

Nearly all the State Committeemen and Chairmen of County Committees found their way to "Dave" Martin's room.

Whiteley and ex-Senator Platt and Miller had their heads close together trying to fix up a slate for the nomination of Chief Justice, and the State Committeemen had a session in another room with Chairman Hackett and Brookfield.

The Executive Committee of the State League of Republican Clubs also had a meeting behind closed doors in A. 1. There were present President R. A. McAlpin, of this city; John F. Henry, D. P. Watkins and T. T. Fenton, of Brooklyn; H. C. Brewster and J. W. Hannon, of Monroe; Theodore Broadhead, of Rockland; Daniel Freedman, Dr. T. L. Marshall and J. L. De Feyster, of this city, and Dr. N. S. Grey, of Queens.

BARTLETT FOR CONGRESS.
Probably to be Nominated in the Seventeenth District.

Tammany Hall will make its first nomination for Congress late this afternoon in the old Sixth (present Seventh) District, now represented by Col. John H. Fellows. The Colonel, however, will not be returned from that district, but will be sent from the new Fifthteenth. New York will have one more Congressman this year, and he will take two new places.

The seventh District Convention will meet at a Beach street at 4 o'clock. Franklin Bartlett's name, it is said, will be the only one placed before the delegates, and he will be nominated on the first ballot by acclamation.

Mr. Bartlett is a well-known lawyer. He was the attorney for Assembly Charles Condit, who investigated the Republican profession and mismanagement in 1901.

Two months ago the Evening World printed the information that the Veridia Democratic Club would have one candidate of its own in the field this year, and would hold the rest of the Tammany ticket. Last night the organization appointed a committee to confer with Tammany Hall with that purpose in view. The one candidate of the Veridians will probably be for City Judge.

Belts on Account of Paines.
NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Gov. Peck has issued the call for a special session of the Legislature, to begin Monday evening, to enact another new legislative apportionment law to take the place of that recently overthrown by the Supreme Court.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 11.—Gov. Peck has issued the call for a special session of the Legislature, to begin Monday evening, to enact another new legislative apportionment law to take the place of that recently overthrown by the Supreme Court.

Magie's Mission in Alabama.
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 11.—Chris Magie, of Pittsburg, who has charge of the Republican campaign in Alabama, arrived yesterday on his third visit. It seems probable that he will succeed in restoring harmony in some of the districts as to Congressmen. The chances being that in two of them the fusion candidates will give way to the straight-out.

Muller Wins on Western Island.
The Democratic vote of Western Island has much to thank ex-Congressman Nicholas Muller for, and they showed their appreciation of that fact last night at the primaries held to select delegates to the county convention, which meets at Stapleton Saturday afternoon. In only one town, Middletown, was there any opposition to Mr. Muller's ticket, and in that town the Muller ticket was successful in every district.

SIDELIGHTS OF THE CAMPAIGN.
There will be five local tickets in the field in this city, and the candidates make some time. The People's party made nominations last night for Henry H. Hall, Mayor; H. J. Adams, President of the Board of Aldermen; Edwin S. Ryan, County Clerk; Joseph H. Stuyvesant, for Registrar. Nominations for the judge will be given to-night.

Senator Sherman had a small audience to hear his speech last night at Cooper Union.
Washington, Oct. 11.—Senator Sherman's first night speech was held at Cooper Union last night. The speaker was introduced by Tammany Hall last night for a second time, and he was well received. The hall was well filled, and the speech was well received.
