JUDGE HAPPALE'S FAVORABLE TURN. Judge Happa's physician stated this morning that his patient, last night, was better than he had been at any time in several days.

LET THE TOBACCO TAX GO. The native weed is one of the few luxuries of the poor.

THE WEST END LAND OCTOPUS. The West End Land octopus was without doubt obtained by putting money or stock "where it would do most good."

MINNOWS AND SHARKS. In indicting a batch of bucket-shop keepers in Chicago the Grand Jury has unconsciously indicted a member of the Board of Trade in regular standing.

THE MUSICAL FRODIGERS. Now that the ten-year-old pianoforte prodigy, JOSEF HOFMANN, has scored such a success, the public may as well prepare itself against an invasion of the concert and operatic stage from the nursery.

THE DISCONSOLATE. GREENMYER is perhaps inclined to think that he should have applied for a warrant for petit larceny.

THE "LABORER" OF A WIFE. Farmer GREENMYER, of Milford, Pa., applied to Court the other day for the arrest of a neighbor on the charge of grand larceny.

MISS MRS. SHARP AND NOT JACOB SHARP. It is Mrs. SHARP and not JACOB SHARP who is most deserving of sympathy.

THE HUBBUB OCCASIONED BY PRESIDENT GREYV'S DISPOSITION TO STICK TO HIS OFFICE. The hubbub occasioned by President Greyv's disposition to stick to his office convinced that statesman of the wisdom of THE WORLD'S admonition.

HARD WORK FOR POOR GIRLS. SMALL PAY AND LONG HOURS FOR UMBRELLA-COVER MAKERS.

His search for facts relative to the work and wages and the manner of living and social condition of the female toilers of this crowded city a World reporter sought out the girls workers who cover the umbrellas.

There about two hundred girls, as near as I can tell, who work in twenty shops sewing covers for umbrellas.

There was a joyful reunion of the family of Jacob Sharp last evening at their residence, 354 West Twenty-third street.

One can well imagine that the good wife of Sharp is happier to-day than she has been for many months.

It is said that Boss Platt has agreed upon his legislative slate. The general opinion of Republican statesmen is that Senator Low will be chosen President pro tempore of the Senate.

Gen. James W. Husted is still boastful and insists that he will be re-elected Speaker.

It is claimed that they can trace the vein a mile," said Mr. Jones in a tone of sarcasm.
