BY SYLVESTER RAWLING.

FRIEDA HEMPEL, the celebrated German coloratura soprano, made her American debut at the Metropolitan Opera House last night in a revival of Meyerbeer's "The Huguenots," sung in Italian.

Opera revived after eight years of neglect. "The Huguenots" has been absent from the Metropolitan's repertoire for nearly eight years.

KITTY CHEATHAM CHARM AT HER HOLIDAY MATINEE.

Can one conceive of a Christmas in New York without Kitty Cheatham's annual matinee? Hundreds of us, at least, would miss it sorely, as was demonstrated again at the Lyceum Theatre yesterday.

MAN WHO CALLED KING A BIGAMIST TO BE DEPORTED

Ellis Island Board of Inquiry Declares Mylius Must Leave Country.

The board of special inquiry sitting at Ellis Island today decided that when Edouard F. Mylius "libelled a King" it was an act of moral turpitude, and they ordered him deported.

One of the questions asked Mylius was: "Do you believe in assassination?" "Certainly not," he said, sharply.
