OPEN CAMP VISITORS' HOUSE.

Built by National Catholic War Council for Merritt Soldiers.

The Visitors' House of the National Catholic War Council at Camp Merritt was formally opened Sunday afternoon by the Rt. Rev. Patrick J. Hayes, of New York. The House, built by the National Catholic War Council, in whose name it was turned over for the use of soldiers' relatives by John G. Agar, of New York, Treasurer of the Council, was equipped and is managed by the Ladies of the a-Kompis Society of New Jersey.

The house cost about $16,000. A similar, but larger, Visitors' House at Camp Mills, now nearly completed, is to cost $50,000.

ONLY INDUSTRIES ON GARFIELD LIST CAN OBTAIN COAL

'Essential' Plants to Be Named and 'Non-Essential' Denied Fuel.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Publication of a list of industrial plants showing which are considered essential or non-essential, is imminent, it was learned at the Fuel Administration to-day. Plants on the "white list" will be cited by name, it was understood.

Fuel Administrator Garfield has determined openly to announce who shall get fuel and who shall be left out. Coal shortage next winter is almost inevitable. The only course is to distribute the shock of enforced curtailment as early as possible. By giving early warning it is hoped to put at rest doubts in the minds of business men as to just where they stand on the nation's sufferance list.

Officials of the War Industries Board are believed to oppose announcement of such a list. They have been working secretly to effect saving in the fuel industry.

Sale of 119 Women's

Taffeta Dresses

$16.74

These dresses were copied from higher priced models of smart and recent fashion.

The taffeta is a fine, firm quality not usually found in dresses near that low price.

Unusual care has been exercised in the workmanship and good taste in the finishing touches.

There are three models, each of them simple, tasteful, well made, all of them pictured. One has a long tucked tunic and organdie collar and cuffs, another a short tunic with pockets, and collar and cuffs of embroidered batiste, the third has a long flaring tunic, and hand embroidery in silk on the blouse.

To Choose One of these Is to Have a Dress in One's Wardrobe That Will Prove a Stand-by for Satisfaction.

SLACKERS IN SERVICE CALL, TAKEN IN RAIDS, DESERTERS

Police Round-Up on the East Side Results in 101 of Draft Age Being Arrested.

One hundred and one men seized as slackers in a police round-up on the east side yesterday and last night were taken before their local draft boards to-day. Those who had been classified and called for service will be sent to Fort Jay as deserters. The men who failed to appear for physical examinations and classification will be examined, and the eligible ones will be sent to army cantonments for service. Many east side boards were busy to-day with this weeding out process.

The round-up included all the precincts south of 14th Street. Policemen stopped all men suspected of failing to file their questionnaires or who could not show their registration cards.

The prisoners were locked up over night. Seventy-one were taken to the East Fifth Street Police Station, and as all these could not be accommodated there, some were sent to other nearby precincts. Twenty men were locked up at the Elizabeth Street Station, eight at Clinton Street and two at Mercer.

Twenty-One Years a Court Interpreter

Mark Moustaki to-day completed his twenty-first year as an interpreter in the Court of General Sessions. He was congratulated by Judges and court officials. Moustaki, who is a native of Greece, came to the United States in 1888, came to the United States in 1888, and settled here in 1896. He became an agent for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and a year later he was appointed an official interpreter.

SHE WAS ONLY TWENTY

Yet Suffered with Functional Disorder and Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"For many months I suffered from periodic pains—I doctored with our family physician, but received no relief—then I explained my trouble to another doctor and he advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Soon after taking it I began to notice a change for the better, and after taking six bottles I am in perfect health, and I cannot thank you enough for the relief it has given me."—Miss Kate Lawrence, Box 725, Spring Valley, Ill.

School girls and girls who are employed at home or in some occupation should not continue to suffer tortures at such times, but profit by the experience of Miss Lawrence and thousands of others who have tried this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and found relief from such suffering.

If complications exist write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years' experience in advising girls on this subject is at your service.—Advt.

OUR SOLDIERS ABROAD ARE ASKING FOR NEWS FROM HOME

We Should, Each of Us, Do What We Can to Make Them More Cheerful and Contented.

The American soldier in France is clamoring for news from home, according to Hon. Eliot Wadsworth of the Red Cross Council, who has just returned to Washington after a three months' inspection tour abroad.

"How did Mayor Thompson make out in Chicago?" and "Who's Police Commissioner in New York City?" were some of the questions asked him over there, in addition to constant queries about baseball.

"So long as you've come from America within a month you're a welcome subject for questioning by any member of Pershing's forces," says Mr. Wadsworth. "A crowd of news-hungry boys will light on you and compel you to ransack your mind for news items concerning every part of the country, and if it happens that a soldier discovers in the course of conversation that you know of something that transpired in his home town—well his joy simply can't be described."

The simplest and easiest way to keep our soldiers and sailor boys who are overseas informed regarding current events at home is for their friends or relatives to send them a bright, cheerful, HOME newspaper filled with entertaining news—a paper that always looks on the bright side of life and has a heartening, cheerful influence on its readers. Such is the THRICE-A-WEEK edition of THE WORLD, published every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday. It contains all the latest reliable news of the habitable globe received by cable and wireless from its correspondents everywhere. It only costs $1.00 per year, and for that small sum will be sent by mail regularly for twelve months to any soldier or sailor overseas. Every subscriber will receive 156 issues of the paper during the year. That should be a sure cure for loneliness.

You may forget to write to your soldier or sailor at home or abroad, or you may miss the mails, but the Thrice-a-Week World gets there on time with every issue and, even if you do write regularly and punctually, why not ALSO send the paper?

When ordering give the full name of the soldier, his company and regiment. Mention the name of the ship if in the United States Navy. Use this coupon.
