The counterfeit of Hires Rootbeer is again at his nefarious work. The new dodge is to take some Hires Rootbeer Extract, and by adding a great quantity of worthless matter and artificial coloring prepare a wishy-washy mixture, which is sold in second-hand quart bottles as Hires Rootbeer, Carbonated.

The genuine is scrupulously prepared by The Charles E. Hires Company, and is sold only in pint bottles, with the name blown in the glass.

A Package of HIRE'S Rootbeer extract makes 5 gallons. Sold as formerly by all dealers.
