

The Wanamaker Store.

Twice-Told Tales

And A New One—Dress Goods

THIS is Chapter II. of the French Wool Twills. Chapter I. was printed there before yesterday. There were a little more than 5,000 yards then; there are a little more than 1,000 yards now.

You call the goods "Whipcords," and so does almost everybody. We do not, because we try to be accurate about such things. They are heavy, firm, all-wool fabrics, resembling, but not so heavy as, a real whipcord. No matter, you have always been glad to pay a dollar a yard for them. Take these at FIFTY CENTS A YARD. In black and 10 colors.

Then here are some very popular goods with a very unfortunate name,—they are called "Potato Sacking." It is a rough, but not a coarse weave in black. It has a fine chevot finish, and quite rich and handsome enough to live down its name. Forty-seven inches wide.

The $1 grade for 45c. a yard.
The $1.50 grade for 50c. a yard.

And, lastly, these all-worsted black Serges, with a satin bayadere stripe,—a quietly effective material, and one stylish and not too common. The same that have retailed all the season at $1.25 a yard—

For Fifty Cents a Yard.
They are 50 inches wide.

Golf and Steamer Capes

Made in Paris from Scotch goods, for the most part,—some are from London, some from Berlin. All the French made ones are in our own styles,—none of them are shown elsewhere.

This is the second shipment. The first met with a reception that astonished us. A cablegram, and these new ones came quickly.

In the materials used, the heaviest and softest sort of Montagnacs is chief. The colors are black, navy blue, steel gray, tan, brown and green.

Then, the plaids,—either inside or outside, or both, as you choose. You can find nothing so handsome as these in New York, and they are not expensive. One of the handsomest for $18. Others, richer and heavier, at $21.50 to $25.

We have the domestic capes, also, and quite worthy of companionship with their foreign cousins. $9 and upward.

Made in Paris from Scotch goods

There's an excellent assortment of prettily made night gowns here of solid colored and striped flannel. You're not asked to pay much for these. One kind at 65c., a neat garment of good quality, too. Others are 75c., 85c., and up to $1.75. At the last mentioned price a gown of very heavy goods, attractive, and a very good value.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

Men's Overcoats

An overcoat graph that means much, and may be accepted literally.

"The best garments for the money in New York."

Test by these:

At $15.—Of black and Oxford frites; wool lined; satin shoulders; raw edge seams; very serviceable and good-looking.

At $20.—Of black and Oxford frites; whole back; wool and satin lined; raw edges; lap seams. Very stylish.

At $20.—Of black and Oxford frites; lap lined; satin shoulders; raw edge seams; very serviceable and good-looking.

At $25.—Of Oxford and black Vicunas; decidedly stylish; lined throughout with heavy silk; velvet collars. Some clothers ask $35 for same goods.

At $30.—Of Oxford Melton; silk lined; raw edge seams. Best custom tailors would charge at least $45 for its equal.

In better grades, up to $50.

The "Wanamaker" Boys' Suits

Many of these suits since their first mention, and have reason to be glad that we put our own name to them. We don't do that to every-day articles.

Made from all-wool chevots, and made as you seldom see suits for boys made,—as you never see low-priced suits made. The buttons are double-stayed; the seams are double-stitched with silk; seat and knees are double; lining is double-warp; everything is doubled and strengthened—except the price—

Five Dollars Candy Store

That's ours. It's also a pure-dandy store. So you can't make a mistake in purchasing here. As an example of purity and low-price, take our assorted chocolates, selling now at 20c. They're our regular 30c. goods, but even at the latter price they're 10c. to 30c. a pound cheaper than at other stores.

Basement.

High Grade Tooth Brushes

Two lots are offered here—both of them good kinds.

Four-row French tooth brushes, at only 15c. And the well known Kent English tooth brush, at 25c.
