

DU PONT HOTEL COMPANY BUYS THE WOODSTOCK

Will Connect Building With the Claridge and Other Properties.

PLANS NEW STRUCTURES Purchase Completes Largest Holding of Kind in Longacre District.

The Hotel Woodstock, in West Forty-third street near Broadway, is the last property owned by T. Coleman du Pont and Lucius M. Boomer to complete the largest hotel holding in the Longacre district, has just been acquired by them through purchase, it became known last night.

PRIORITY LIST FOR PHONE INSTALLATION

Bartered Contracts Not Recognized by Company. Contracts for the installation of telephone service which are bought and sold in the open market are not recognized by the New York Telephone Company.

NEW LABOR PARTY REPUDIATED BY C.F.U. Victory for Gompers—Brady Is Exonerated of Charges.

The Central Federated Union repudiated last night the American Labor Party and its leader, James P. Hanley.

MAYO TO BE TRIED ON BIGAMY CHARGE

Supreme Court Refuses to Set Warrant Aside. Virginia St. J. Mayo, manufacturer of this city and New Haven, Conn., must stand trial on a charge of bigamy.

MILANO REFUSES TO ADMIT CONFESSING

Reprieved Murderer Now Dodges Responsibility. Death row guards at Sing Sing reported yesterday to prison officials that Joseph Milano, one of the four slayers saved from death on April 29 by a last minute reprieve from Gov. Smith, is planning to repudiate a confession that had much to do with postponing the executions.

FREED IN MALENA'S DEATH

Driver of Wrecked Motor Not Blamed for Accident. Joseph Daw, chauffeur of the taxicab that was wrecked against an elevated pillar in Long Island City May 11, throwing out Arthur Malena, a champion swimmer, and causing injuries from which he died, was freed in the Long Island City police court yesterday.

3,000 BOYS TO STRIP AT ONCE

Then Scouts Will Be Clipped. They Don't Wear Clothes. The Spring Boy Scout rally at the Parents' Beach on the Long Beach Jamaica road, at 2:30 this afternoon, will be attended by 3,000 scouts.

TWO NICKS' PICTURES WASHED IN MAILS

Police in Three Cities Never Received Circulars. Although the police were supposed early in March to have strewn the country with circulars asking for the arrest of Nicky Arstein and Big Nick Cohen, it was reported yesterday that there had been a mysterious slip up somewhere.

COMPOTROLLER DEFIANT Declines to Submit List of Settled Claims Asked For in Resolution.

A large audience was disappointed yesterday when the usual wordy battle in the Board of Estimate did not go to a decision. The principals in yesterday's affair were E. H. La Guardia, President of the Board of Aldermen, and Comptroller Charles L. Craig.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

MAYO TO BE TRIED ON BIGAMY CHARGE

Supreme Court Refuses to Set Warrant Aside. Virginia St. J. Mayo, manufacturer of this city and New Haven, Conn., must stand trial on a charge of bigamy.

MILANO REFUSES TO ADMIT CONFESSING

Reprieved Murderer Now Dodges Responsibility. Death row guards at Sing Sing reported yesterday to prison officials that Joseph Milano, one of the four slayers saved from death on April 29 by a last minute reprieve from Gov. Smith, is planning to repudiate a confession that had much to do with postponing the executions.

FREED IN MALENA'S DEATH

Driver of Wrecked Motor Not Blamed for Accident. Joseph Daw, chauffeur of the taxicab that was wrecked against an elevated pillar in Long Island City May 11, throwing out Arthur Malena, a champion swimmer, and causing injuries from which he died, was freed in the Long Island City police court yesterday.

3,000 BOYS TO STRIP AT ONCE

Then Scouts Will Be Clipped. They Don't Wear Clothes. The Spring Boy Scout rally at the Parents' Beach on the Long Beach Jamaica road, at 2:30 this afternoon, will be attended by 3,000 scouts.

AGED BLIND MAN BATTLES WITH ACCUSED THIEF

Deaf Prowler Is Found by Sightless Victim, Who Gropes in Room—Prisoner's Actions Are Laid to Spiritualism.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

MAYO TO BE TRIED ON BIGAMY CHARGE

Supreme Court Refuses to Set Warrant Aside. Virginia St. J. Mayo, manufacturer of this city and New Haven, Conn., must stand trial on a charge of bigamy.

MILANO REFUSES TO ADMIT CONFESSING

Reprieved Murderer Now Dodges Responsibility. Death row guards at Sing Sing reported yesterday to prison officials that Joseph Milano, one of the four slayers saved from death on April 29 by a last minute reprieve from Gov. Smith, is planning to repudiate a confession that had much to do with postponing the executions.

FREED IN MALENA'S DEATH

Driver of Wrecked Motor Not Blamed for Accident. Joseph Daw, chauffeur of the taxicab that was wrecked against an elevated pillar in Long Island City May 11, throwing out Arthur Malena, a champion swimmer, and causing injuries from which he died, was freed in the Long Island City police court yesterday.

3,000 BOYS TO STRIP AT ONCE

Then Scouts Will Be Clipped. They Don't Wear Clothes. The Spring Boy Scout rally at the Parents' Beach on the Long Beach Jamaica road, at 2:30 this afternoon, will be attended by 3,000 scouts.

AGED BLIND MAN BATTLES WITH ACCUSED THIEF

Deaf Prowler Is Found by Sightless Victim, Who Gropes in Room—Prisoner's Actions Are Laid to Spiritualism.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

MAYO TO BE TRIED ON BIGAMY CHARGE

Supreme Court Refuses to Set Warrant Aside. Virginia St. J. Mayo, manufacturer of this city and New Haven, Conn., must stand trial on a charge of bigamy.

MILANO REFUSES TO ADMIT CONFESSING

Reprieved Murderer Now Dodges Responsibility. Death row guards at Sing Sing reported yesterday to prison officials that Joseph Milano, one of the four slayers saved from death on April 29 by a last minute reprieve from Gov. Smith, is planning to repudiate a confession that had much to do with postponing the executions.

FREED IN MALENA'S DEATH

Driver of Wrecked Motor Not Blamed for Accident. Joseph Daw, chauffeur of the taxicab that was wrecked against an elevated pillar in Long Island City May 11, throwing out Arthur Malena, a champion swimmer, and causing injuries from which he died, was freed in the Long Island City police court yesterday.

3,000 BOYS TO STRIP AT ONCE

Then Scouts Will Be Clipped. They Don't Wear Clothes. The Spring Boy Scout rally at the Parents' Beach on the Long Beach Jamaica road, at 2:30 this afternoon, will be attended by 3,000 scouts.

AGED BLIND MAN BATTLES WITH ACCUSED THIEF

Deaf Prowler Is Found by Sightless Victim, Who Gropes in Room—Prisoner's Actions Are Laid to Spiritualism.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

MAYO TO BE TRIED ON BIGAMY CHARGE

Supreme Court Refuses to Set Warrant Aside. Virginia St. J. Mayo, manufacturer of this city and New Haven, Conn., must stand trial on a charge of bigamy.

MILANO REFUSES TO ADMIT CONFESSING

Reprieved Murderer Now Dodges Responsibility. Death row guards at Sing Sing reported yesterday to prison officials that Joseph Milano, one of the four slayers saved from death on April 29 by a last minute reprieve from Gov. Smith, is planning to repudiate a confession that had much to do with postponing the executions.

FREED IN MALENA'S DEATH

Driver of Wrecked Motor Not Blamed for Accident. Joseph Daw, chauffeur of the taxicab that was wrecked against an elevated pillar in Long Island City May 11, throwing out Arthur Malena, a champion swimmer, and causing injuries from which he died, was freed in the Long Island City police court yesterday.

3,000 BOYS TO STRIP AT ONCE

Then Scouts Will Be Clipped. They Don't Wear Clothes. The Spring Boy Scout rally at the Parents' Beach on the Long Beach Jamaica road, at 2:30 this afternoon, will be attended by 3,000 scouts.

AUDITORE'S DEATH PEOPLES LEWIS

District Attorneys of Two Counties Consider Exhumation of the Body.

HUGE ESTATE INVOLVED

Doubt Prevails That Physician Was in Apartment When Man Died. Considerable doubt prevailed yesterday as to whether a physician was present as the moment when Joseph Auditore died May 3 in the apartment of Jennie Lebofsky at 124 West Seventy-second street.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

MAYO TO BE TRIED ON BIGAMY CHARGE

Supreme Court Refuses to Set Warrant Aside. Virginia St. J. Mayo, manufacturer of this city and New Haven, Conn., must stand trial on a charge of bigamy.

MILANO REFUSES TO ADMIT CONFESSING

Reprieved Murderer Now Dodges Responsibility. Death row guards at Sing Sing reported yesterday to prison officials that Joseph Milano, one of the four slayers saved from death on April 29 by a last minute reprieve from Gov. Smith, is planning to repudiate a confession that had much to do with postponing the executions.

FREED IN MALENA'S DEATH

Driver of Wrecked Motor Not Blamed for Accident. Joseph Daw, chauffeur of the taxicab that was wrecked against an elevated pillar in Long Island City May 11, throwing out Arthur Malena, a champion swimmer, and causing injuries from which he died, was freed in the Long Island City police court yesterday.

3,000 BOYS TO STRIP AT ONCE

Then Scouts Will Be Clipped. They Don't Wear Clothes. The Spring Boy Scout rally at the Parents' Beach on the Long Beach Jamaica road, at 2:30 this afternoon, will be attended by 3,000 scouts.

MOVIE RESTRICTION ORDINANCE STANDS

Aldermanic Committee Opposed to Amendment. It was indicated that a meeting of the General Welfare Committee of the Board of Aldermen yesterday afternoon that the committee will decline to accept the amendment of Alderman William F. Quinn to his ordinance which would cut from the three-year term the time in which no license would be issued for a theatre or motion picture house whose construction eliminated a dwelling.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

MAYO TO BE TRIED ON BIGAMY CHARGE

Supreme Court Refuses to Set Warrant Aside. Virginia St. J. Mayo, manufacturer of this city and New Haven, Conn., must stand trial on a charge of bigamy.

MILANO REFUSES TO ADMIT CONFESSING

Reprieved Murderer Now Dodges Responsibility. Death row guards at Sing Sing reported yesterday to prison officials that Joseph Milano, one of the four slayers saved from death on April 29 by a last minute reprieve from Gov. Smith, is planning to repudiate a confession that had much to do with postponing the executions.

FREED IN MALENA'S DEATH

Driver of Wrecked Motor Not Blamed for Accident. Joseph Daw, chauffeur of the taxicab that was wrecked against an elevated pillar in Long Island City May 11, throwing out Arthur Malena, a champion swimmer, and causing injuries from which he died, was freed in the Long Island City police court yesterday.

3,000 BOYS TO STRIP AT ONCE

Then Scouts Will Be Clipped. They Don't Wear Clothes. The Spring Boy Scout rally at the Parents' Beach on the Long Beach Jamaica road, at 2:30 this afternoon, will be attended by 3,000 scouts.

$800 WAS HIS PART OF $1,000,000 LOOT

Barclough Says He Was Beaten and Robbed by Safe Robbing Gang.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

MAYO TO BE TRIED ON BIGAMY CHARGE

Supreme Court Refuses to Set Warrant Aside. Virginia St. J. Mayo, manufacturer of this city and New Haven, Conn., must stand trial on a charge of bigamy.

MILANO REFUSES TO ADMIT CONFESSING

Reprieved Murderer Now Dodges Responsibility. Death row guards at Sing Sing reported yesterday to prison officials that Joseph Milano, one of the four slayers saved from death on April 29 by a last minute reprieve from Gov. Smith, is planning to repudiate a confession that had much to do with postponing the executions.

FREED IN MALENA'S DEATH

Driver of Wrecked Motor Not Blamed for Accident. Joseph Daw, chauffeur of the taxicab that was wrecked against an elevated pillar in Long Island City May 11, throwing out Arthur Malena, a champion swimmer, and causing injuries from which he died, was freed in the Long Island City police court yesterday.

3,000 BOYS TO STRIP AT ONCE

Then Scouts Will Be Clipped. They Don't Wear Clothes. The Spring Boy Scout rally at the Parents' Beach on the Long Beach Jamaica road, at 2:30 this afternoon, will be attended by 3,000 scouts.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.

DECLINES TO SUBMIT LIST OF SETTLED CLAIMS ASKED FOR IN RESOLUTION.

Comptroller Craig vehemently denied that charge, nevertheless declining to agree to submit the requested list. On the contrary, he asserted that the Board of Estimate had no authority to tell the Comptroller what he should do in such a case, and demanded that President La Guardia withdraw his resolution, which, he said, was introduced only for the purpose of stirring up trouble.