WOMEN WIN NEW POINT. National Committee Votes to Hear All Convention Contests Openly.

By a Staff Correspondent of THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—The Democratic National Committee at its first meeting this afternoon squandered so much time over perjury and procedure that none was left for the consideration of the important contests in Missouri and Georgia.

By a Staff Correspondent of THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. WASHINGTON, June 25.—President Wilson sent telegrams to Gov. Bickett of North Carolina, and to Senators Overman and Simmons of that State calling their attention to the "critical importance" of action by the North Carolina Legislature on the suffrage amendment.

By a Staff Correspondent of THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Spiritless, initiative, blunted, divided at heart, leaderless, the mass of Democrats here to adopt a set of principles and to select a candidate present to-night a spectacle of indecision and apprehension that is not comparable to any pre-convention gathering within ordinary recollection.

A virtual embargo upon the shipment of coal to Europe or any other part of the United States went into effect yesterday in order that New England's threatened industries and utilities might receive priority in the matter of fuel shipments. The order, which was determined upon by the Interstate Commerce Commission at a meeting in Washington on June 19, was made public yesterday at the office of J. W. Howe, Commissioner, at the Tidewater Coal Exchange.

Chicago, June 25.—A decision on the demands of railroad employees for wage increases will be made on or before July 20 by the Railway Labor Board, Judge R. M. Barton, chairman, said in a statement late to-day, adding that the award would be retroactive to May 1.

It would appear from statements made in the Chamber that Premier Millerand was induced much against his will to sanction Premier Lloyd George's approval of Venizelos's campaign. Plainly preferred by the Nationalists and newspapers such as the 'Intransigent' say that a serious war can easily be the consequence of what is now going on in the Near East.

Miss Beresford goes into a scene of resentment, finally appealing to Miss Gordon. The latter holds the girl in her arms and registers outraged indignity toward Griffith. She grows angrier, and at length she draws a revolver from her corset and fires one shot.

Instructions to this effect, it became known to-night, have gone from Washington to San Francisco, called for by the intimations that within the last few days a movement has been on foot to make the nomination first and then adopt the platform. Such a course obviously would be of disadvantage to Administration control of the convention.

Without the shadow of a doubt the majority of delegates are privately in favor of mitigating the severity of the Volstead act, but they do not yet act up to their real sentiments. They run hither and yon begging for opinions, and the general burden of their fear is that if a popular vote could be taken the country would see prohibition. It would not do, therefore, to tie up the party, they say.

While it was being decided to prevent the export of many badly needed cars for transportation of coal destined for Europe, a big get-together meeting was held here between representatives of railroads, the shipper and the public utilities and the Public Service Commission. The result was an agreement by the railroads to do everything possible to get coal to the public utilities to the extent of their production.

Washington, June 25.—Announcement by the Railway Labor Board in Chicago that its award in the pending wage controversy would be made known on or before July 20 is expected both by Government officials and railroad unions to head to office a powerful influence in the settlement of the dispute.

It is not in doubt that the initial Greek successes will relieve the pressure on the British forces and the menace to Constantinople and the Dardanelles which Lloyd George desired, but the French fear subsequent reverses which would have serious consequences throughout the Near East.

On the suggestion of I. B. Dockweller, National Committeeman, California, the convention will be asked that when it adjourns on Monday it be until 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in order to permit the visiting delegations to take a steamship excursion Tuesday morning.
