PRICES ADVANCE
IN CURB MARKET

Buying Orders Come in on Larger Scale as Outside Session Progresses.

Further improvement was noted in the curb market yesterday, and as the session progressed buying orders came into the market on a larger scale and prices moved forward easily. Traders started where they left off on Monday, and at the opening substantial bids were made for most leading issues. Although around midday buying quieted for a time, there was little pressure in evidence during the full period, and later in the afternoon there was considerable covering of the oil stocks.

Standard Oil of New York stood out prominently with an advance of more than 40 points, closing at 400. General Asphalt advanced almost 5 points and there was good demand early for Mid-west Refining, which could not maintain its improvement. A firm tone was shown in National Oil of New Jersey.

Total sales and range of prices follow:
