"UNQUALIFIED APPROVAL"

While you are swelling with pride at your friend's remark about your generous impulses you are apt to be brought back to earth in the same breath by an admonition to guard against them. Unqualified approval is rare. An interesting example of it, however, is told in the following letter:

THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD, August 11, 1920. Herold Square, New York. Since the publication of my advertisement I have been successful in procuring most desirable guests.

The unconditional indorsement in the above letter of The Sun and New York Herald's Furnished Room columns represents scores of other letters recommending the various classifications running in this publication. Try it.

STENOGRAPHER AND LINGUIST (Christian). Must be able to write and read French, German, Spanish and Italian fluently.

SALES MANAGER AND SALESMAN. In Greater New York there is a man we want who is tired of the ordinary selling or managing job.

SALES ORGANIZATION. Having just completed the sale of stock in a $10,000,000 oil company, we are looking for a man who can handle the sale of an oil stock.
