The Wanamaker Store.

Silk Waists from Paris

WE have taken new and larger quarters in Paris—are bound to have a resident organization that shall miss nothing you ought to have—and we needed more room. It is big enough and cheery enough—this Paris office—for us, and for you when you go abroad. And you are welcome.

We are in Paris every day, in this expert organization; in London almost every day—besides the close study of the foreign capitals by the twenty-two managers who go abroad once, some twice a year.

This preface instead of descriptions of the Paris silk waists. If you feel that our people who choose them, knew good style and your requirements, you can safely depend on the beauty and charm of the waists.

Up to $65; starting at $15.

By the way, forgot to write our new card. It shall read—John Wanamaker, 44 Rue des Petites Ecuries, Paris.

Spangled Robes and Capes from Paris Imported Robes. Brilliant, flashing, yet aristocratic in dignity—not gaudy. Graceful, falling in long slopes that accentuate the serpentine, iridescent glimmer. One of fancy net, heavy with chenille and spangles; — overskirt effect with floral applique below it. Another tasteful fancy in sequins dashed with steel. And these:

Lace Robes, Cluny stripped with cloth, Renaissance in heavy mesh.

Domestic Robe of net, silk appliqued; guipure effect.

These to be made up over some foundation material.

And these French capes:

Black chiffon, lace and taffeta, with high ruche and ends. Colored chiffon trimmed with lace and fur; long fur ends. Black taffeta ruff; long ends; dainty muslin ruffles, finished with chenille. White chiffon trimmed in green beading, ruche; ends of white and green tulle; narrow velvet. All short and quaint and novel.

Broadway.

Babies' Long Cloaks All new styles, and quite as much style as in the garments of children of larger growth. The present showing comprises many more elegant and more costly sorts than these mentioned below. But it will be hard to find prettier, more comfortable garments anywhere than are these, at the prices:

$3.25—Bedford cord; round collar; deep embroidered ruffle to form cape.

$4.75—Bedford cord; two embroidered ruffles; collar trimmed with two satin folds.

$5.25—Bedford cord; large round cape and collar, trimmed with ruffle of wide satin ribbon.

$5.75—Bedford cord; three ruffles of embroidery; collar trimmed with silk braid.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.

The Perfumes of Guerlain The intense concentration of spiciness — one drop enough for a garment—is the Guerlain characteristic. Can you think of intense perfumes as dainty?—"discreet" the French call it, and how Paris loves the Guerlain sweets. American headquarters here.

Gazaki, the Guerlain "special," 2-oz. bottle, $1.57.

Extracts, all flavors, 2-oz. bottle, $1.57.

Imperial Cologne, $1.08, $1.96, $2.94.

Sachet in glass jars, heliotrope, violet, Ires de Florence, $1.45; white rose, $3.10; musk, $14.50.

Sachet in envelopes, all odors, 50c.

Toilet Water, violet, $1.39; full flavor, $1.86.

Hegemonienne Eue de Cologne, $1.86, $3.71, $5.56.

Lotions, $2.35	Cold Cream, 57c., $1.30
Lip Salve, 75c	Shaving Soaps, 30c
Hair Tonic, $1.16	Shaving Cream, 60c

Tenth street.

The Transvaal and "The Century" You are reading about the Transvaal every day, of course,—everybody is. How much, for instance, of this morning's news was thoroughly understandable to you? What sort of a mental picture of the country could you call up when you read that an attack was meditated on Ladysmith, that Kimberley was being surrounded, and that Mafeking had already been laid siege to? There is one best way to follow the doings in the Transvaal, to obtain a clear and accurate understanding of all that goes on in what is now the world's center of interest. Turn to your set of The Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia and Atlas. Open the Atlas volume to the map of the Transvaal and surrounding regions, and there at a glance you can follow not only today's war news but have before you a complete record of every former revolt, uprising, skirmish, battle, etc.; all marked clearly; all dated; so plain to get at that one can follow the Jameson raid, for instance, from beginning to end without trouble. (The maps in the Century Atlas are far superior in every way to those of any other cyclopedia and gazetteer).

Then as to pronunciation and definition of the mass of words that are now filling the columns of our daily papers, which a month ago were all strange to us. What, for instance, does "lying in laager" mean? It is used with an abandon which argues perfect familiarity on the part of the public. There may be one or two still who are willing to admit that they do not know just what it means.

It is "an enclosure for temporary defense formed of the wagons of a traveling party." It is a term entirely local to South Africa—but "it's in the Century," of course. Such matters are given ad infinitum, and instantly findable without undue searching.

A postal will bring you sample map and specimen pages and details of the half-price offer, with descriptions of the bindings, etc.—, or call at the store.

Hair and Cloth Brushes An aisle counterful of Brushes you'll thank us for—especially at the price—

Hair Brushes, ebonized back; fair bristles; sterling silver plate on back. Two sizes—50c and 75c.

Military Brushes, same style, 50c and 75c.

Cloth Brushes, same style. One size only—75c.

Broadway and Tenth street.

Good Clothes for Boys

The Wanamaker business was just clothing—for years. It might have been planted on Broadway or Fifth Avenue—it was planted in Philadelphia. Best there—which means that it won its position through satisfactory service. It would have done that same here. It is doing it now.

We do not sell "sewed-up" clothes—or "dry-goods store clothes," as they are contemptuously called. They are tailored clothes—

For instance, these Sirtouts—miniature men's overcoats with tails; double-breasted; extra length (you know reefers are out of style—the little fellows want overcoats, or you do, for them). These of Oxford cheviot, brown Vicuna and navy blue cheviot. For ages 4 to 14. Some $12; some $14.

Short overcoats are correct, too. The Raglan—box cut, quite swell. For boys of 3 to 8—$7.50. Other good styles at $4.50 (for ages 4 to 10); $5 (5 to 16 years); $6.50 (4 to 16 years).

Wish we had space to tell you of the Sailor Suits. Come see them. $7.50, $10 and $11 for the sweetest sorts. For boys of 3 to 12.
