

THE WEATHER

Tonight and Thursday, Cloudy

TONOPAH DAILY BONANZA

METAL QUOTATIONS table with columns for Silver, Copper, Lead, and Quicksilver.

VOL. XVIII No. 184

TONOPAH, NEVADA, WEDNESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 22, 1919

PRICE 10 CENTS

RUSSIA MUST BE SUBDUED

No League of Nations Until Backbone of Bolshevism Broken

SHIPYARDS SHUT TIGHT BY STRIKE

SEATTLE, Jan. 22.—The gates of all Washington's steel shipyards and many wooden yards did not open today, having been closed yesterday by the strike of 35,000 metal workers...

PACKERS AGENT PROVES HIMSELF SOCIAL LEADER

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Examination of Thomas Logan, representative at Washington of Swift & Co., regarding his social relations with congressmen and executive officials was continued today before the senate agriculture committee...

AMERICAN RIGHTS MUST BE GUARDED

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A decision to send a committee to Paris to place before the peace conference information showing what steps are needed to protect American interests in Mexico was reached at a meeting here yesterday of the National Association for the protection of American rights in Mexico.

WOMEN ASK TO BE REMEMBERED

PARIS (Tuesday), Jan. 21.—The claim that women be given a place in whatever bodies that may be created in putting into effect the idea of a league of nations was made in a resolution presented to the peace conference by an organization of French women under the presidency of Juliette Adam.

Table titled 'TODAY AND A YEAR AGO' showing weather statistics for 1919 and 1918.

Peru and Chili Still at Outs

LIMA, Peru (Tuesday), Jan. 21.—Persecution against Peruvians is continuing in Chile, according to refugees 700 of whom arrived at Mollendo yesterday.

DULL YEAR IN FREIGHT PREDICTED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Director General Hines said today that present indications pointed to a reduction in freight traffic this year, consequently he did not expect any great reduction in the general level of freight rates during the year.

AMERICANS DIRECT TRANS-SIBERIAN LINE

VLADIVOSTOK (Tuesday), Jan. 21.—Agreement for control of the Transsiberian railroad has given Americans control of the line from Porranichana to Omsk, a distance of 2000 miles.

BERLIN PASSES BUCK ON POLISH OUTBREAK

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 22.—A reply to the British note requesting the German government to refrain from further provocation of the Polish population in east and west Prussia, Posen and Silesia, the German government, according to a dispatch from Berlin, expressed in agreement with Britain that the future of the German eastern frontier depends upon the peace conference.

RESCIND ACTION ON ASSESSMENT TAX

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Taxes on amusement admissions will not be increased by the war revenue bill. The conferees agreed today to rescind their previous decision to increase the rate from 10 to 20 per cent.

TOWN TURNS OVER TO KING MANUEL

PARIS (Tuesday), Jan. 21.—Valencia, a small town on the Minho river in northern Portugal surrendered to the monarchists this morning.

SOME GOOD CAME FROM OWNERSHIP

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The use of water routes to relieve crowded railroad lines, consolidation of ticket offices, unification of terminals and the pooling of repair shops were among the reforms instituted by the railroad administration and endorsed as worthy of continuation by Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the Southern Pacific, in his testimony today before the senate interstate commerce committee.

FARMERS BORROW MONEY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Under the farm loan system $157,000,000 was lent to 68,000 farmers to January 1st, the farm loan board reported today.

AMERICANS WILL GUARD LINE

of 2000 miles. John Stevens, head of the railway commission to Russia, is chief administrator with the Russian general, Horvatch, co-director. Americans will guard the line.

ARMY OBJECTORS ARE TURNED LOOSE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Secretary Baker today ordered the release of 110 conscientious objectors held at Fort Leavenworth with remission of the unexecuted portions of their sentences, "honorable restoration to duty" and immediate discharge from the army.

TAKES ACTION TO HELP SOLDIERS

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 22.—Governor Stephens announced today that a bill creating a state committee of nine "on soldiers' employment and readjustment" would be introduced during the afternoon session of the senate today as an emergency measure. The bill carries an appropriation of $50,000 to defray the expenses of the committee, which will be a volunteer organization if the bill passed.

BULLION TAX WIPED OUT BY PAYING PENALTIES

The county commissioners have accepted a settlement in full of the bullion tax claims of the county against the Tonopah Mining and Belmont Mining companies by acknowledging the payment of penalties and entering into an instrument agreeing to cancel all other demands.

Nevada Needs Similar Measure

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 22.—A bill aimed to speed the counting of ballots at election will be introduced probably tomorrow by Senator Carr.

MERCHANT MARINE IS NOW DYING

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Disaster was predicted as certain to follow continued government operation of the merchant marine by Charles E. Page, member of the shipping board, at the opening session of the merchant marine conference here to discuss how to further American shipping. Page asked advice of the conference on problems which, he said, the shipping board must face immediately.

BREMEN IN HANDS OF REVOLUTIONARIES

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 22.—Bremen is virtually in the hands of the workingmen, according to a dispatch to the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger from the German seaport. Workingmen occupied the barracks, town hall, telephone office and banks and posted machine guns in the market place and public buildings.

SOCIALISTS FAIL TO GAIN CONTROL

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 22.—Although the majority Socialists have obtained an absolute majority in Berlin, according to a dispatch to the Handelsblad, they cannot consider the results satisfactory as the bourgeoisie parties found more support than had been expected. The Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin estimates the Bourgeoisie parties up to Tuesday afternoon had gained as many seats as the two Socialist parties combined.

ULTIMATUM FROM PARIS SENT WITH APPROVAL OF PRESIDENT WILSON

PARIS, Jan. 22.—The supreme council of the peace conference this morning considered the Polish question and decided to send a mission to Poland. This announcement was made in an official statement of the proceedings of the conference. When the council met there were present, in addition to all members of the council, Marshal Foch, General Weygand, his chief staff and Rear Admiral Hope, deputy first sea lord of the British admiralty. A proposal from President Wilson regarding the Russian question will be discussed this afternoon, the statement added.

BOLSHEVIST POISON IN THE ALLIED ARMIES

STOCKHOLM (Tuesday), Jan. 21.—Max Litvinoff, former Bolshevik ambassador to London, in a statement to the Associated Press today admitted that a Bolshevik propaganda had been carried on in Germany but denied any such activity in any neutral or entente country. "Now when the entente nations are waging war on Russia in Russian territory," he said however, "we feel justified in engaging in propaganda work among the allied troops."

AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES HOTBEDS OF SEDITION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Archibald Stevenson, representative of the military intelligence service, testifying today before the senate in the propaganda investigating committee, declared that a large number of professors in American universities had subscribed to radical and pacifist views. This, he said, was particularly true of several professors in sociology, economics and history.

IMMENSE TONNAGE OF COLORADO MINES

DURANGO, Colo., Jan. 22.—Four hundred and two thousand, five hundred and six dry tons of Colorado ore were treated in the plants of the American Smelting and Refining company during the last year, according to a statement from Manager R. P. Reynolds of the local plant. This brought 126,927 ounces of gold, 5,239,318 ounces of silver, 54,131,007 pounds of lead and 5,258,094 pounds of copper. This brought a total of $13,955,581 to Colorado mining men.

In spite of possibility of decreased prices for ores, the outlook for mining in the future is considered bright by mining men. Manufacturers of mining tools are returning to this business instead of war work and the release of many mine experts from army service is expected to bring new mining activities.

regarding the Russian question will be discussed this afternoon, the statement added.

PARIS, Jan. 22.—President Wilson and Lloyd George have reached a complete agreement on the Russian situation, according to the Paris edition of the London Daily Mail. They regard a settlement of the Russian question absolutely necessary as preliminary to the formation of a league of nations and are anxious to secure the evidence of accredited Bolshevik representatives as to the status of Russian affairs.

PARIS, Jan. 22.—President Wilson and Lloyd George have reached a complete agreement on the Russian situation, according to the Paris edition of the London Daily Mail. They regard a settlement of the Russian question absolutely necessary as preliminary to the formation of a league of nations and are anxious to secure the evidence of accredited Bolshevik representatives as to the status of Russian affairs.

ARCHANGEL, Jan. 22.—Bolshevik forces on the northern Russian front attacked American and Russian positions Sunday last. Defensive outposts were withdrawn but the Bolshevik attack on the main position was repulsed.

NEVADA LAW MAKERS BEGIN ROUTINE LABORS OF SESSION

CARSON CITY, Jan. 22.—The introduction of the governor's message in both houses yesterday did not bring forth the ovation expected. Instead of being a snappy paper filled with suggestions and recommendations urging radical changes in methods of government as forecast in interviews the paper was a dreary recital of the happenings of the past two years to the extent of nine columns of solid newspaper type. Three thousand words were used in describing war activities and urging an appropriation that the historical society might maintain complete records of these happenings. War conditions in Nevada industries were described as highly prosperous. Nothing is said about taking action for securing employment for the returning soldiers and sailors although the address referred to the "problems of the next year" or two will be difficult of solution.

It is set forth that the expenses of the state have only increased 10 per cent in the last two years compared with an average increase of 41 per cent in county government. "In the minds of most students of the readjustment problem there exists the belief that the inauguration status of Russian affairs, "French opinion," continues the newspaper, "does not at present favor even the admission of the Bolshevik regime."

THREE CHOSEN DELEGATES FROM IRISH REPUBLIC

DUBLIN, Jan. 22.—According to the provisional constitution of the Irish republic now before the "Dail Eireann" legislative bodies will be vested in deputies elected from the existing offices secretaries of state, some affairs foreign affairs and national defense. All revenues will be raised on a scale of the "Dail Eireann." Count Plunkett, Professor Edward De Valera and Arthur Griffiths probably will be appointed Irish delegates to the peace congress today.

YANKS IN RUSSIA WITHSTAND ATTACK

ARCHANGEL, Jan. 22.—Bolshevik forces on the northern Russian front attacked American and Russian positions Sunday last. Defensive outposts were withdrawn but the Bolshevik attack on the main position was repulsed.

NEVADA LAW MAKERS BEGIN ROUTINE LABORS OF SESSION

CARSON CITY, Jan. 22.—The introduction of the governor's message in both houses yesterday did not bring forth the ovation expected. Instead of being a snappy paper filled with suggestions and recommendations urging radical changes in methods of government as forecast in interviews the paper was a dreary recital of the happenings of the past two years to the extent of nine columns of solid newspaper type. Three thousand words were used in describing war activities and urging an appropriation that the historical society might maintain complete records of these happenings. War conditions in Nevada industries were described as highly prosperous. Nothing is said about taking action for securing employment for the returning soldiers and sailors although the address referred to the "problems of the next year" or two will be difficult of solution.

Advertisement for BUTLER THEATRE featuring a portrait of Charles Day and listing today's performance 'PLAYING THE GAME' and tomorrow's 'REX BEACH 12,000 MILE MOTOR BOAT TRIP'.