

WASHINGTON MATTERS.

A rather lengthy "special" referring to our Spanish relations seems to throw no new light on that subject. The Cabinet has under consideration certain proposals made by Spain, five in number, but no decision is yet reached as to what to do with them. The whole Spanish question, in fact seems to be little changed from that which the President's message shows it to be.

The Eureka Sentinel does not altogether enjoy being diagnosed into training under the discipline and orders of the New York World, and talks right plainly and sensibly as follows upon the subject of the next Presidency:

The New York World says "the election of Kerr as Speaker will add five hundred thousand votes to the Democratic ballot-boxes next November." That is a good many votes, and we can't for the life of us see where the political significance of the thing comes in, unless the World means to convey the idea that by the giving of the Speakership to the West the Democratic party will be compelled to take up Governor Tilden as its standard-bearer in the Presidential contest next year.

CRAZY TALK.—About the recent explosion of dynamite at Bremenhaven we have the following crazy statement by way of London, December 13:

A report came from Bremen to-day that the passenger who attempted to commit suicide and whose name is Thomas had confessed that there was another case of explosive material on board the Mosel; that it was provided with a clock-work apparatus which was timed to explode in eight days, when the Mosel would be in mid-ocean, and that he intended to land at Southampton. His object was to destroy the steamer so that he could claim a large insurance which he had effected; but a later dispatch pronounces the horrible story untrue. The case spoken of has been opened by the police and found to contain nothing explosive or dangerous.

George H. Pendleton has received the nomination for President of the United States from General Gattrell of Georgia. Now Pendleton ought to nominate the patient General for the same position and it would be even Stephen.

There is a sort of Associated Press Influence at work upon the dispatches which reach us from Spain. They are made up at Madrid, where there are telegraph lines and not in the Basque Pyrenees, where old General Elio and the rest of the Legitimists who rallied to the standard of Don Carlos first took the field against the Madrid Government—for the Carlists are fighting more for power than against Alfonso or any other recognized element or thing at the Spanish Capital. In other words, Don Carlos is religiously fighting for his own—as he reckons the throne of Spain. The latest telegrams from the seat of war are as follows:

Henaye, December 12.—General Mongrovejo has been appointed commander-in-chief of the Carlist forces, in place of General Perals. Dissensions among the Carlists continue. The report that General Saballs had been convicted by a court-martial and sentenced to imprisonment is denied.

Madrid, December 12.—General Moriones, with 25,000 men, will conduct operations in Guipuzcoa against the Carlists.

London, December 13.—A dispatch from Santander reports that 8,000 infantry, with cavalry and artillery, were expected there en route to San Sebastian, and that all the steamers in the harbor had been embargoed for transport service.

Spanish laziness cuts both ways. It not only protracts all wars in which that bilious people engage, but it is as much an element of strength as it is of weakness among the insurgents. Being able to fight at his leisure, Don Carlos has been enabled to pick up an army little by little and to arm and equip it piece by piece. He started with a few hundred men and all sorts of odds and ends of arms, uniforms, accoutrements and ammunition and a pair of cannons that a mule could pack. Now he has more than 50,000 men and a hundred guns. His men are the undisciplined and undisciplinable mountaineers of Navarre, and contiguous Pyrenean provinces; and his armament and all munitions of war have reached him by bridle trails and at the precarious hands of smugglers. The fact that his army and its equipment have reached these proportions refutes the much-repeated Spanish statement that he has been driven into close quarters and cannot possibly hold out much longer. As well attempt to make the public believe that the Spanish power is showing itself able to deal effectively in its efforts to suppress the Cuban rebellion. The truth is, Spain is always ready to fight but never able to accomplish any decisive victories. Spain's querulousness and ungovernable temper have outlasted her prowess, until she stands howling and gesticulating in the face of the nations of modern life like a passion-crazed, seared and superannuated virago.

John Jacob, the Misses Firman & Co, were at Eureka on the 12th instant, and the Sentinel of that date talks as follows upon one part of the subject:

Prof. Jacobson, the world-renowned violinist, and in the eyes of susceptible ladies one of the handsomest men extant, is also of the company. They promise to give the most satisfactory and pleasing entertainments ever witnessed in Eureka.

It is evident from the foregoing that the Eureka ladies have their own sweet notions of beauty.

THE VILLAGE of Avon, New York, was on fire on Monday, and the telegrams of Tuesday complacently inform us that the engines will be sent from Rochester.

GOVERNOR IRWIN has appointed P. F. Walsh of San Francisco Adjutant General of the State of California, vice Foote, whose term has expired.

OHIO EDUCATIONISTS want to have the State appropriate $7,500 to enable them to make a showing of Buckeye scholarship at the Centennial.

BAUER, the Roman Wrestler, has been successful in a match with Christie for $1,000. This style of athletics is becoming a great fad.

THE PRINCE OF WALES is at Madras. The Madrasicals seemed to rather like him.

JOHN BULL rubs his belly and says he likes the tone of Grant's message.

THE SPANISH SITUATION.

There is a sort of Associated Press Influence at work upon the dispatches which reach us from Spain. They are made up at Madrid, where there are telegraph lines and not in the Basque Pyrenees, where old General Elio and the rest of the Legitimists who rallied to the standard of Don Carlos first took the field against the Madrid Government—for the Carlists are fighting more for power than against Alfonso or any other recognized element or thing at the Spanish Capital. In other words, Don Carlos is religiously fighting for his own—as he reckons the throne of Spain. The latest telegrams from the seat of war are as follows:

Henaye, December 12.—General Mongrovejo has been appointed commander-in-chief of the Carlist forces, in place of General Perals. Dissensions among the Carlists continue. The report that General Saballs had been convicted by a court-martial and sentenced to imprisonment is denied.

Madrid, December 12.—General Moriones, with 25,000 men, will conduct operations in Guipuzcoa against the Carlists.

London, December 13.—A dispatch from Santander reports that 8,000 infantry, with cavalry and artillery, were expected there en route to San Sebastian, and that all the steamers in the harbor had been embargoed for transport service.

Spanish laziness cuts both ways. It not only protracts all wars in which that bilious people engage, but it is as much an element of strength as it is of weakness among the insurgents. Being able to fight at his leisure, Don Carlos has been enabled to pick up an army little by little and to arm and equip it piece by piece. He started with a few hundred men and all sorts of odds and ends of arms, uniforms, accoutrements and ammunition and a pair of cannons that a mule could pack. Now he has more than 50,000 men and a hundred guns. His men are the undisciplined and undisciplinable mountaineers of Navarre, and contiguous Pyrenean provinces; and his armament and all munitions of war have reached him by bridle trails and at the precarious hands of smugglers. The fact that his army and its equipment have reached these proportions refutes the much-repeated Spanish statement that he has been driven into close quarters and cannot possibly hold out much longer. As well attempt to make the public believe that the Spanish power is showing itself able to deal effectively in its efforts to suppress the Cuban rebellion. The truth is, Spain is always ready to fight but never able to accomplish any decisive victories. Spain's querulousness and ungovernable temper have outlasted her prowess, until she stands howling and gesticulating in the face of the nations of modern life like a passion-crazed, seared and superannuated virago.

NEW TO-DAY.

RICE & PETERS, STOCK BROKERS

Two Doors North of Wells, Fargo's Carson, Nevada.

WILL PURCHASE AND SELL STRICTLY ON COMMISSION.

Mining Stocks and Bonds

Of all descriptions, and all other securities dealt in the San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board.

PREPARED TO MAKE ADVANCES ON APPROVED STOCKS.

San Francisco Correspondents, Messrs. Carr, Ulmer & Co.

dec15-tf RICE & PETERS.

HOUSE AND LOT AND FURNITURE AT AUCTION.

I WILL SELL AT AUCTION, ON THE premises, my house and lot and household furniture, on Friday, Dec. 17, at 3 o'clock p m.

The property is situate on Nevada Street, between Second and Third Streets. The house contains five hard finished rooms.

TERMS CASH.

CHARLES S. ALLEN. Carson City, Dec. 15, 1876.

CAPITOL STORE

CORNER KING AND ORMSBY STREETS, CARSON CITY. Choice Family Groceries, Flour, Feed, Hams, Bacon, Butter, Lard, Sugar, Teas and Coffee, Choice Liquors, Old Valley Whiskey, Pure Brand & Wines.

Cigars & Tobacco,

Hardware, Crockery, Paints and Oils, A Full Line of Housekeeping Goods, always on hand and delivered free of charge.

REINSTEIN & GIBSON

nov17

AT HARRY'S CORNER

CARSON AND SQUARE STREETS. NEW ARRANGEMENTS, NEW PROPRIETOR, NEW EVERYTHING.

OLD FATHER HYACINTHE BEHIND THE BAR.

HOT LUNCH EVERY DAY FROM 11 TO 2 O'CLOCK.

nov17 J. T. CREWS, Proprietor.

Wells, Fargo & Co., BANKERS,

WILL ALLOW INTEREST ON ALL Certificates of Deposit issued by this bank from Jan. 1st, 1876, at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, provided they shall have been standing for at least two months.

CUSTOMERS

CURRENCY BOUGHT AND SOLD.

GRAND BALL

The Carson Guards

WILL GIVE A FINE BALL ON CHRISTMAS EVE

FRIDAY, DEC. 24, 1876.

Facilities to go towards purchasing uniforms.

TICKETS - - - - $2.00

(To be had of any member of the company.)

NOVELTIES!

NOVELTIES!!

NOVELTIES!!!

OLCOVICH BROTHERS

Who have just received the latest styles of

TRIMMED HATS AND CLOAKS,

The Hats complete with the

Davenport

Lingard

Bonanza

Amazon, and

Other New Shapes

We sell them at such low rates to suit these hard times. Come quick, if you want

FIRST CHOICE

They are going off like hot cakes.

All are invited to call at

OLCOVICH BROS.

Premium Trunks

Which Received the Prize;

AT THE

Mechanics Fair, San Francisco

FOR SALE AT

Joe Rosenstock's Furnishing Store,

Court House Block, Carson.

nov17

Kaiser's FAMILY RESTAURANT

Carson Street, first door south of the Adams House.

CHANGE OF BASE

P. A. WAGNER & CO.

At their New Store, opposite Feysers & Elrod's Hay Yard,

CARSON STREET, CARSON CITY, NEVADA.

HAVE ON HAND A FULL ASSORTMENT of all kinds of

Hardware

IRON, STEEL,

STOVES, TINWARE,

CROCKERY,

PAINTS, OILS,

Windows & Doors.

PRACTICAL FITNERS

CALL AND SEE OUR NEW STOCK.

P. A. WAGNER & CO.

A GRAND BALL

Will be given AT BOWDEN'S HALL, EMPIRE,

OR WEDNESDAY EVENING, DEC. 15

Music by the Genoa Band.

JOHN MURPHY, PROPRIETOR.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS

L. Morris & Co's

HAVING RECEIVED A LARGE ASSORTMENT of

KEATING'S COUGH LOZENGES.

These are undoubtedly the best remedy known in the world for CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS AND ALL THE AFFECTIONS OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS. They are the highest quality of medicine ever prepared, and their medicinal properties are such that they relieve the most distressing coughs in less than half a century's use.

FASHIONABLE DRESS MAKING

MILLINERY TO ORDER

MRS. A. REYNOLDS

THE WHITE HOUSE

Rubber Goods

OF THE LATEST PATTERNS

AND IN

GREAT VARIETY AND THE BEST MAKE

At Joe Rosenstock's

County Block, Carson.

FURNISHED HOUSE TO LET.

Enquire of Mrs. Richards.

SELLING AT COST UNTIL JANUARY 1st, 1876.

FASHIONABLE DRESS MAKING

LATEST STYLES OF MILLINERY

Mrs. Anna S. Brooks' Bazaar

MRS. BROOKS has secured the services of Mrs. Hoffman, a French dressmaker just from Paris, she will combine the most fashionable dress making with the latest novelties in millinery.

AGENT FOR BUTTRICK PATTERNS Mrs. Anna S. Brooks, Carson Street, opposite Rice & Peters' Brokers Office.

FINE BOOTS AND SHOES

For Rough Weather and for Dress Parade.

FOR SALE AT.....

JOE ROSENSTOCK'S STORE

.....IN THE.....

County Building, Carson.

V. & T. R. R. CO. SPECIAL NOTICE

COMMENCING JANUARY 1, 1876, no orders from R. R. employees will be accepted for collection, excepting orders for board.

E. NILES, Paymaster.