

THE EVENING NEWS.

THE SCANDINAVIAN MILL COMPANY.—This Company are now busily engaged in grading a lot which they lately purchased in America City, as a site for their new mill.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.—This beautiful Gothic pile is rapidly approaching completion, and is even now so nearly finished, externally, as to give an idea of its final appearance.

INDIAN TROUBLES.—We learn from Mr. Gridley, the famous "Sanitary flour sack man," just arrived from Austin, en route for the Bay, that a telegraph operator from Salt Lake had reached Austin, who stated that the Indians were rising and consolidating their forces on the plains.

NEW MILITARY COMPANY.—We are informed that the members of Engine Company No. 2 have in contemplation the organization of a military company, which is known as the Young America.

THE PIONEER STAGES.—These splendid coaches, the finest stage line ever established on the coast, continue to arrive regularly every evening, with passengers from San Francisco.

POST MORTEM EXAMINATION.—Day before yesterday, a post mortem examination was held on the body of Sam Wells, by Doctors Tucker and Briarly.

CHEAP CLOTHING.—Now is certainly the time to buy clothing cheap. Look at the list of prices in Harris' new advertisement to-day.

BULLION SHIPPED.—Wells, Fargo & Co. shipped, yesterday, 17 bars of bullion, weighing 1,211 pounds, worth, according to assay, $33,171.91.

GUERRILLAS CAPTURED.—The Denver News of the 18th ult. says: Wilber F. Stone arrived here yesterday with that rascally guerrilla, Thomas Holman, who smashed McClellan's safe and cut the wheels of his coach at McLaughlin's ranch.

MINERS' Attention!—The undersigned, having been in the Genesee Mining District, and in the vicinity of the Enterprise of this date, wish to publish in the Enterprise of this date, what is published in the Enterprise of this date, which contains a man by the name of Howard, who will perform as much or more work than any other person interested therein.

MINERS' Attention!—My card in this morning's Enterprise states that I hired out to Messrs Brown, Patton and Toner, and that O. W. M. Toner was in charge of the mine, having been paid a fee of $100.00.

BRITISH TROOPS IN CANADA.

Pending the Mason and Slidell negotiations, England sent a large military force to Canada, the bulk of which, it is believed, will be sent to the westward.

TAYLOR'S GIFT ENTERTAINMENT

THE DRAWING. How the Drawing is to be Done as TAYLOR'S GRAND GIFT ENTERTAINMENT.

THE CHECKS REPRESENTING THE SUMS drawn upon the tickets are to be held each holding a number corresponding with the number on the Ticket. The tickets will be placed within a wheel and revolved until the number once fully satisfied that the numbers are thoroughly mixed together.

THE DRAWING will be done by a little girl, who will draw the Marble from the wheel, pass it to the Committee appointed for the occasion, who will announce the number to the audience. The Marble will then be placed in a second wheel, which will contain twelve thousand tickets, the numbers on which will be drawn by the same girl.
