THE MODERN STORY OF "OLD MOTHER MOREY."

A NURSERY TALE WITH A MORAL.

I'll tell you a story of "Old Mother Morey,"
And now my story's begun,
I'll tell you another about her brother,
Or rather her husband's son.

This stepson Sam Morey, he told a huge story.
A whopper of marvellous size
Of an uncle who'd never been heard of forever,
And swore to the lie "by his eyes!"

For Philo forged a letter on Garfield, his better,
About the poor heathen Chinee,
To one "H. L. Morey," and Sammy, he swore he
Had just such an uncle—had he!

Honest Garfield denied what that letter implied,
But Barnum with knavish intent,
Kept the base letter going, till, spite of his blowing
Honest Garfield was made President.

Then Truth, a sad liar! bribed Morey for hire,
And Hart in a heartless way,
Stuffed Jimmy O'Brien to do some tall lyin',
And swear "down a coal mine" for pay.

'Twas then Mother Morey rose up in her glory,
And told the truth straight as a gun;
And Sammy, who'd fattened on uncles, lay flattened,
And Jimmy fell "cold as a stun!"

With "Lindsay" and "Barry" she played the Old Harry,
And Sam oil'm fits—more's the pity;
Up rose the Grand Jury and vowed in their fury,
"We'll bag this Dem. Nation. Committee!"

And Walton and Warner both wanted a corner,
And Philo was worse off than before;
And Sanborn and Clark wished themselves on a lark,
Where Moreys were heard of no more!

And Harbaugh and Price, those two Maryland mice,
Have heard from the cat before this!
And Murphy and Mann will be scarce, if they can,
Nor banker for Davis or Bliss!

Hart, Byrne, Howe and Post better give up the ghost,
Or steer clear of Stoughton and Bell,
And Smalley and "Box" will get behind locks
Unless a straight story they tell.

Now Barnum is shaking and Kelly is quaking,
And Hewitt would fain "cut stick!"
And Fowler, the howler, is dealer than Bowler,
His "fraud" boomerang struck him quick!

Brave Hancock's disgraced by "affection misplaced,"
But Kinglish his mortgage gripes fast;
And sly Tilden chuckles, his pocket-book buckles,
And winks, "I've condoned it—at last!

All honor and glory to brave Mother Morey,
Who told the truth straight as a gun!
The Nation's her debtor, we'll never forget her,
And now my story is done.

Just as Well as Not.

Detroit Free Press.

One day last week a collector who had spent six months in trying to effect a settlement with a debtor who was owing $50 accomplished his object by taking a note of hand running thirty days. Three or four days afterward he met the maker of the note and said:

"Well, I got rid of that note of yours yesterday."

"Did you?" was the pleased reply.

"Yes, but I had to give an awful discount. In fact, I sold it for $5.

"Is that possible? Well, now, I'm real sorry about that. If I had only known how my paper stood on the market I could have fixed it better for you. Let's see. If a fifty-dollar note sells for $5, one for $500 would have sold for enough to make up your fifty. I wonder we didn't think of it and make one for $500 while we were about it."

The Pope's latest public address contains this passage: "Ever mindful of our duties, aware of what is requisite for the good of the Church and the dignity of the Roman Pontificate, we shall never rest in the present state of things, nor shall we cease, as we have not ceased hitherto, to deplore what by fraud and deceit has been stripped from the Holy See."

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE SUN FOR 1880.

THE SUN will deal with the events of the year 1880 in its own fashion, now pretty well understood by everybody. From January 1 until December 31 it will be conducted as a newspaper, written in the English language, and printed for the people.

As a newspaper, THE SUN believes in getting all the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the most intelligible shape—the shape that will enable its readers to keep well abreast of the age with the least unproductive expenditure of time. The greatest interest to the greatest number—that is the law controlling its daily make up. It has now a circulation very much larger than that of any other American newspaper, and enjoys an income which it is at all times prepared to spend liberally for the benefit of its readers. People of all conditions of life and all ways of thinking buy and read THE SUN; and they all derive satisfaction of some sort from its columns, for they keep on buying and reading it.

In its comments on men and affairs, THE SUN believes that the only guide of policy should be common sense, inspired by genuine American principles and backed by honesty of purpose. For this reason it is, and will continue to be, absolutely independent of party, class, clique, organization or interest. It is for all, but of none. It will continue to praise what is good and reprobate what is evil, taking care that its language is to the point and plain, beyond the possibility of being misunderstood. It is uninfluenced by motives that do not appear on the surface; it has no opinions to sell, save those which may be had by any purchaser with two cents. It hates injustice and rascality even more than it hates unnecessary words. It abhors frauds, pities fools and deplores nincompoops of every species. It will continue throughout the year 1880 to chastise the first class, instruct the second, and discountenance the third. All honest men, with honest convictions, whether sound or mistaken, are its friends. And THE SUN makes no bones of telling the truth to its friends and about its friends whenever occasion arises for plain speaking.

These are the principles upon which THE SUN will be conducted during the year to come.

The year 1880 will be one in which no patriotic American can afford to close his eyes to public affairs. It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the political events which it has in store, or the necessity of resolute vigilance on the part of every citizen who desires to preserve the Government that the founders gave us. The debates and acts of Congress, the utterances of the press, the exciting contests of the Republican and Democratic parties, now nearly equal in strength throughout the country, the varying drift of public sentiment, will all bear directly and effectively upon the twenty-fourth Presidential election, to be held in November. Four years ago in November the will of the nation, as expressed at the polls was thwarted by an abominable conspiracy, the promoters and beneficiaries of which still hold the offices they stole. Will the crime of 1876 be repeated in 1880? The past decade of years opened with a corrupt, extravagant, and inefficient Administration ingrenched at Washington. THE SUN did something toward unloading the gang and breaking its power. The same men are now intriguing to restore their leader and themselves to places from which they were driven by the indignation of the people. Will they succeed? The coming year will bring the answers to these momentous questions. THE SUN will be on hand to chronicle the facts as they are developed, and to exhibit them clearly and fearlessly in their relations to expediency and right.

Thus, with a habit of philosophical good humor in looking at the minor affairs of life, and in great things a steadfast purpose to maintain the rights of the people and the principles of the Constitution against all aggressors, THE SUN is prepared to write a truthful, instructive, and at the same time entertaining history of 1880.

Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the Daily SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post-paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6 50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7 70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1 20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE First Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Storey.—CARRIE ELLIOTT, Plaintiff, vs. WILLIAM ELLIOTT, Defendant.—Action brought in the District Court of the First Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Storey, and the complaint filed in said county, in the office of the Clerk of said District Court, on the 11th day of September, A. D. 1880.

The State of Nevada sends greeting to William Elliott, Defendant: You are hereby required to appear in a action brought against you, by the above-named Plaintiff, in the District Court of the First Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Storey, and answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served in said county, or, if served out of said county, within twenty days, and in all other cases forty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to obtain a decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between you and Plaintiff, and awarding the custody of said Elliott, minor child of yourself and Plaintiff, to Plaintiff. And for cause of action Plaintiff alleges that you and Plaintiff were married to each other on the 26th day of December, A. D. 1870, and still are husband and wife; that you have neglected for more than three years last past to provide for Plaintiff or her child on the common necessaries of life, and such neglect was not the result of poverty which you could not have avoided by ordinary industry; that there is one minor child, living issue of said marriage, named Edith Elliott; that there is no community property; all of which will more fully appear by reference to Plaintiff's complaint herein on file with a certified copy of which you are herewith served.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to answer the complaint the said Plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief therein demanded.

Given under my hand and the seal of the District Court of the First Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Storey, this 11th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty.
