COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Auditor's Vote - Various Matters of Interest - The Indigent Question - Forging Signatures to Applications for Aid - Other Friends.

Commissioners Fraser, Sheridan and Chairman Canavan constituted the Board of County Commissioners this morning.

After the approval of the minutes of the previous meeting, Mrs. J. Curtin appeared before the Board and stated that her house, at 530 O street, had been burned on the 7th of October, and asked that the assessment on the property be stricken from the roll.

Chairman Canavan stated that the Board had no power in the premises. Treasurer Oty asked for two deputies while collecting delinquent taxes.

Mary Kelly wanted $30 to send her children to Grass Valley. Frasier said he thought the woman had received aid, and wanted the matter referred till the return of Commissioner Gallagher.

A communication was received from Auditor Brennan, vetoing the bill of F. D. Plunkett for salary as City Jailor. Communication filed.

F. J. McCarthy, Constable of Township No. 1, reported his civil fees for past month to be $22 50; criminal, $146; under Sheriff in office, $165 50.

The bills of Charles Colburn for services in the Recorder's office and John Brady for services in the County Clerk's office were again referred to the Commissioners.

Dr. Harris presented bill for attending Jack Weiss (the prisoner who revolted and was mastered by Jailer Farnum) in the jail, and Dr. Conn asked for remuneration for like attendance on Goyette.

Dr. Newland was allowed $4 for drawing several teeth of a suffering prisoner. Constable McCarthy was also allowed his salary, $250.

Kane, the man who sued the Commissioners to recover possession of Bonanza avenue, presented a bill for costs of certain orders of suit, as allowed by the District Court. Bill referred.

Fraser suggested, as they were about to take up applications for aid, that none be allowed that were not in proper form, stating that he believed applicants should be made to conform with the strict letter of the law.

Canavan said he had always understood that applicants were so required; that if he had voted to grant aid in cases where the application was not in proper form, it was because he had never seen it. He afterwards added that if an application was not dated, it would not be considered out of form, as the Clerk could affix the day of the month.

Sheridan said he had some applications for aid he desired the reporters present to inspect, simply to show how careless taxpayers were in signing them; that citizens were in the habit of signing blank applications, when any applicant's name could be inserted.

There was one shown, inserted by William Garhart the son of Beck as taxpayers, and Mrs. Hoffman's name as applicant inserted between the signatures, and the proper space for the name of the petitioner left blank. Another application was exhibited signed by Maurice Foley and E. Duncan Dandries as taxpayers and no name of applicant in given. Still another was presented by Thos. Jackson which did not have any signatures.

Canavan thought it best to reject all applications not in form, when petitioners would take some pains hereafter to cause as little trouble as possible. He further stated applications must contain place of residence to be in form as there were so many parties of the same name applying for aid.

An application for aid by Miss Lizzie Bowers, who resides south of St. Mary's Hospital, Virginia, contained the names of her sisters, "J. C. Hampton" as taxpayers. The blank was filled in with the same handwriting, signatures and all. What purported to be Hampton's signature was declared by the Clerk to be a forgery, and the application was rejected.

A somewhat similar case was that of an application for Miss Hill, 308 South Howard street (Divide), purporting to be signed by "Mr. Jerry O'Neil" and "Mr. James Neal." The handwriting was the same throughout.

Commissioner Fraser said he was satisfied Miss Hill was in need and the reason why the writing was the same was because one of the parties could not write and the other had signed his name for him.

The District Attorney being appealed to said a mark or something else should be on the application to show that one party had signed for the other.

The matter was referred to Fraser and he was requested to see both parties whose names were signed and see if they had authorized the use of their names.

The rule of the Board which stated aid would not be granted where there was an able bodied man in the family was suspended and aid granted to Peter Magsam, a German out of work, who has a wife and seven children. Aid was also given Mrs. J. Harrington, whose husband died about ten days ago from overeating in the Sierra Nevada. She has six small children.

Lizzie Brown, living east of the Catholic Church, sent in an application signed by A. Parker and George Dirke. Commissioner Sheridan said he believed the woman had several aliases, and was granted aid under them. He wanted the application referred. His request was granted.

In all, there were about thirty applications for aid granted and two refused, besides those above mentioned. The Board went into session to consider the town and city affairs, and the News reporter, owing to the lateness of the hour, withdrew.

Sympathetic.

A News reporter was shown today by William H. Protheroe, of this town, a half-sheet poster just received by him from Swansea, Wales. It is surrounded by a heavy black border, and is headed in large letters: "Funeral of General Garfield." It is a proclamation from the Mayor of Swansea, as follows:

To the Inhabitants of the Borough of Swansea: The funeral of the late lamented President of the United States of America having been fixed to take place on Monday next, the 26th instant, I do hereby invite and recommend that all shops within the borough be closed between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock of that day, and, as far as possible, all business suspended during that time.

Considering that Swansea is merely a borough town of about 90,000 inhabitants, this mark of sympathetic observance of the mournful occasion of that day by our English friends will be appreciated as the feeling of the people throughout Great Britain on that sad occasion.

Very Badly Hurt.

P. Ballinger was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by a fall received while repairing the floor of a house. The gentleman recently purchased a residence on Main street and was engaged in removing the floor. He had taken up several boards in one part of the room and turned to work elsewhere when he forgot himself and stepped back into the side against the flooring, fracturing two of his ribs and loosening the pleura.

Mr. Ballinger was taken to his home, and not moved to his new house, and a medical aid summoned. His injuries are severe but not considered necessarily fatal.

Gally of Petty Larceny.

Annie Daley of Virginia was yesterday adjudged guilty of petty larceny by Justice Hires. It appears she had been rooming at the house of a Mrs. Collins, and on leaving for other quarters took along a gold bracelet belonging to her landlady. To establish her right to the article she caused some marks to be placed on the inside, and stated on trial that she had it so marked a year ago. Jewelers testified that it was marked not more than a month ago. The rightful owner proving her claim to the property, it was awarded her and Mrs. Daley ordered to appear for sentence today at 3 P. M.

Sunday-School Census.

The first official Sunday-school census in the United States is now being taken by the government. Circulars containing questions are being sent to every Superintendent. These questions cover the number of teachers and children, the ages of scholars, the number, value and character of books in libraries; the property owned, the money collected, and the increase in attendance since 1870. Provided some of Gold Hill's young men do not again fall into the hands of the Philistines, the number of Bible students here will be increased by several next Sunday.

Good Shooting.

John Stanley won the Sarsfield Guard weekly medal last Sunday—score, forty-five points out of a possible fifty. The members of this company are doing excellent shooting and when the day for their annual contest rolls round the record of that day's sport will show scores to be proud of.

The Fell Destroyer.

Consumption, for years almost unknown on the Comstock, has within the past year carried off a number of our citizens, and most of all of them were steady, hard-working miners.

The produce brought in by ranchers is eagerly sought after by families. However, those having articles to dispose of grow because they cannot get the same price for their wares and sell as much as they did in the "bonanza" period.

Richard Kirman of Virginia has begun suit before Judge Rising against J. R. Wittington and John Williams of White Pine county for the foreclosure of a mortgage on real estate in that county, given to secure a promissory note for $3000.

The caps of the Sierra Nevada and Como mountains are covered with snow—a dressing received during the late stormy weather.

General News Items.

Chief Justice Leonard, who has been very ill, is recovering. The City of Tokio brought 400 Chinese into San Francisco on Sunday last. According to recent advices from Japan and China the cholera is raging there.

King Kalakaua will leave San Francisco for his island kingdom on the 27th instant. Shipments of unsalted beef from Australia to England have not proved successful. Over $80,000 have been collected in San Francisco for the Garfield Monument Fund.

Boston gave two dollars to the Michigan sufferers for every one it gave to the Garfield fund. The whistles of the locomotives on the Carson and Colorado Railroad will soon be heard at Belleville and Candelaria.

A disastrous hurricane recently swept over England, wrecking many vessels on the coast and causing the loss of many lives. The Massachusetts Judge who decided that the ringing of a church bell at 5 o'clock in the morning was a public nuisance decided well.

Senator Sharon, who has been confined to his room at the Palace Hotel, in San Francisco, for the past two weeks, is now better, and will soon go to his country residence at Belmont.

The "boy preacher" Harrison is making it warm for the cohorts of the devil in San Francisco. One run-shop near the church where he holds forth has gone into the Sheriff's hands. The San Francisco Chronicle says that a Nevada bullwhacker on a "drunk" dropped in, and was converted almost before he had time to sober up, and he has turned over all his superfluous savings to assist in the good work. But more loyal than all, a sergeant of police has aided salvation, and will organize a Band of Hope at the next gathering for the good step. Bravely the good work goes booming on.
