

Brings results, and that is the object. The Mahoning Dispatch carries message in advertising form to a large number of people in all parts of the county. You will be more than pleased with results if you advertise in The Dispatch.

The Mahoning Dispatch.

At The Mahoning Dispatch office, not while you wait, but promptly and in a manner that will please you. Prices are consistent with a high standard. A trial order is solicited. Please place it now.

Washingtonville

Mrs. John Felcht of Locust Grove called on friends here Tuesday. Mrs. Anna Davis returned Monday from the late home of her daughter, Mrs. Oliver Calvin. The four children recently left motherless will be taken care of by the Calvin relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Siro and son of Cleveland made a short visit to his grandmother, Mrs. Euphemia Maxwell, Friday.

Mrs. Charly Roller and son Eugene were at the home of her son, Roy Roller, in Youngstown a few days the past week.

Born, Tuesday, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis.

The health officer reports one case of diphtheria in town at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodard Boston, their son Robert being the victim. His condition is not serious.

Matthew Fieldhouse and Wm. Atkinson rode the Foresters' goat last Friday evening.

Rev. J. E. Russell died Monday of cancer at his home in Alliance. He was a former M. E. pastor here. He is survived by his wife and several children.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Weikart visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Weikart in Leetonia.

Mrs. David Weikart entertained Sunday Misses Alice and Sadie Barton and Miss Helen Woods at a dinner in honor of her son Morell's birthday anniversary. The day was very pleasantly spent.

Mr. and Mrs. James Paisley of Youngstown was here at the home of his father, J. N. Paisley, over Sunday. Mr. Paisley, who served in the U. S. Navy, making several trips to France, has been honorably discharged and will again take up his work in Youngstown.

The homestead and household goods of the late George Gilbert will be offered for sale at public auction Saturday afternoon, March 8.

Miss Rhoda Bennett of Alliance spent Saturday here with her parents, Sidney Huffmangle and family of Leetonia spent Sunday at the home of Earl Chamberlain and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. James Babb were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Faloon, Mrs. Hugh Dalrymple and children attended a 6 o'clock dinner Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Green in Salem in honor of the double wedding of their son and daughter, Roy Crook to Miss Dorothy Stevenson and Caroline Crook to Walter Standmeier. The couples were the recipients of many pretty gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Davis, who have been seriously ill with influenza, are slowly recovering.

Mrs. Noble Neff is recovering from her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chappell and daughter Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tolerton of Salem were Sunday afternoon guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Weikart.

Mr. and Mrs. James King and daughter Dorothy spent Sunday here with their parents.

John O'Dell and family of Steubenville were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. King.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hoebler and Mrs. Mary Leonard and daughter Jane were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Davis.

Miss Helen Pillar and lady friend of Youngstown were here at the home of her mother.

Thieves again visited this town last Saturday night, breaking into the wholesale and retail store of M. Higgins. Several bottles of bonded goods were taken. The amount of the theft can't be determined. No clue to the robbers.

A number of interested persons were in attendance at the farmers' institute held in Greenford grange hall Monday and Tuesday.

The auction in the Allen building held by E. W. Leland of Salem Saturday afternoon and evening was well attended and a good lot of jewelry was disposed of.

C. W. Campbell, district inspector of the weight and measures bureau of the railroads, was here Monday.

The Erie road has discontinued the pumping station at Greenford, their new supply near Canfield proving satisfactory.

Mrs. A. L. Taylor was a Leetonia caller Tuesday.

Since last week's jingle, jingle which we all read, old Jerry died. The tribe of Bear Cats held another dance in town hall Saturday evening which was well attended.

The Delmore mine is working full time. The Cherry Valley mine was idle two days the past week on account of water. The Hillville mine worked full time the past week. There will be two idle days this week while repairs are being made.

The shops in Salem and Leetonia where a number of our men are employed are working full time.

The roadways between here and Leetonia are nearly impassable and frequent stallings are reported. Why not appropriate a fund for fixing this necessary highway.

Grover Hoffer of Canton was here over Sunday at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Senheller. She is confined to her home by sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Miller and Mr. Shillinger of Columbiana were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Getz.

Mrs. Earl Carnes of Salem was a caller at the home of her sister, Mrs. O. P. Moore, Monday. Mrs. Moore, who has been ill the past week, is reported better.

Charles Barnes of Salem and Miss Stella Matsonbaugh of East Palestine were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Matsonbaugh.

Earl Chamberlain has purchased the Michael Higgins homestead in Leetonia and expects to take possession soon.

Dr. Miles of Salem was called here Monday to counsel with Dr. Conrad in the serious illness of Mrs. Thos. Bailey.

Willie Dalrymple returned from Pittsburgh last week. His condition is a little improved. He is now under the care of Dr. Herman.

Regular services at the M. E. Church next Sunday morning and evening. All are welcome.

Miss Janet Maxwell's condition is much improved. Mrs. Elizabeth Faloon entertained company from East Palestine Sunday.

A souvenir of the great Plave drive on the Italian and Austro-Hungarian battle was received by W. H. Mullins of Salem from Mr. Lynn Davis of the 10th regiment. The souvenir was a paper cutter made from a fragment of an exploded shell.

Carpenter Ed. Frankfort is making repairs to the Delmore garage to house the new truck.

There was an appointment for movie fans Saturday night at the American in Leetonia. The films miscarried in transit.

Rev. Lockhart of Columbus spoke in the Lutheran church Sunday evening on "Preparation for the season league is fortifying against what may happen."

The real and personal property of the late George Gilbert in Washingtonville will be sold at public auction on premises Saturday, March 8, commencing at 1 p. m.—adv.

MILLVILLE

March 5—Miss Lucy Howells of this place and Charles Berger of near W. 26 in Youngstown. The bride and groom with a few intimate friends, enjoyed a 6 o'clock dinner in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Howells, Wednesday evening.

Later, friends and neighbors to the number of 60 gathered at the Howells' home and gave them a rousing serenade. Both young people are favorably known and have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

Clyde Thompson of Salem spent the week-end here with Clyde and Oscar Grimm.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zimmerman called Sunday afternoon on Mr. and Mrs. James Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Orr spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Shepherd.

The young people of this village attended the musical in Salem Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Strawn of Damascus spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sheen.

Mrs. Charles Sneden and daughter Grace and Miss Fern Akkinson of Washingtonville spent Saturday evening with friends here.

Miss Leona Bell spent Sunday afternoon with Misses Elsie and Edith Howells.

Mrs. Homer Dunn, who has been critically ill the past week, was removed to the Salem hospital Saturday.

Mrs. David Fogg of Salem spent Thursday in the village.

Mrs. C. D. Arner spent Thursday with friends in Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Volney Stone of Orrville were Sunday visitors in the village.

Miss Lucy Arner of Homeworth spent Sunday here with her parents, Raymond Greenamyre, who has been among the sick in the Salem hospital Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Taylor were Sunday guests of friends in Leetonia.

The real and personal property of the late George Gilbert in Washingtonville will be sold at public auction on the premises Saturday, March 8, commencing at 1 p. m.—adv.

BOARDMAN

March 5—Holmes Moody of Youngstown was an over Sunday visitor with his sisters Elizabeth and Olive.

Mr. Chas. Beam has improved somewhat in health. Volney Stone of Orrville was Sunday visitors in the village.

James M. McKay's fine country residence caught fire last Thursday afternoon and burned to the ground, there being no one at home at the time. Loss, $20,000 with $3,000 insurance on contents.

Howard Kyle has the flu. His mother, Ada Fry, is here caring for him. Mrs. Homer Hill is not improving very fast.

C. M. L. Alderfer is suffering with influenza.

Catherine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Detrow, is recovering from flu.

Boardman basketball team accompanied by their coach, Prof. G. M. Barton, were in Delaware, Ohio, last week at the tournament. The first game they played was with Upper Sandusky. Score 32 to 13 in favor of Boardman. The second game was with Cleveland West Tech. Score 28 to 15 in favor of West Tech. The following are boys that went: Willis Barger, Frank Dushman, John Heintzelman, Ralph Agnew, Robert Williams, Leo Bare and Howard Smith. They spent Sunday in Columbus.

South high girls and Boardman girls played basketball here Friday night. Score 30 to 6 in favor of Boardman.

The second team of Boardman boys played South High Middlets but the lights went out before the game was finished, on account of the storm, when the score stood 19 to 11 in favor of South High.

The entertainment and pie social at the Beard schoolhouse Saturday night was well attended. They took in $24.

Dr. Detchon of Canfield called at Clark Bar's Sunday.

The real and personal property of the late George Gilbert in Washingtonville will be sold at public auction on the premises Saturday, March 8, commencing at 1 p. m.—adv.

It pays to advertise, but don't squander all your appropriation advertising for trouble.

The dignity of labor gets a severe jolt from the "No Beer, No Work" slogan.

ELLSWORTH

March 5—Mr. Gibbons of Salem called here one day last week.

Mrs. Frank Reiser of Berlin spent a few days here recently with friends and relatives.

Ladies sewed for the Belgian relief Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ed. Barger.

Walter Miller was in Canfield recently.

The Boy Scouts of Ellsworth will collect and deliver through the conductor Mr. Perry, any package of eatables, etc., to the Red Cross canteen at Alliance, for the countless soldier boys returning to their homes and camps, who pass through Alliance and stop at that division point. Mrs. G. L. King is efficient manager of the canteen and requests gifts of any kind, apples, sandwiches, meats, cookies, doughnuts, jellies, etc., any and all of which is appreciated by the homeless boys. Reading matter is valued for passing away the time en route, say to San Francisco or far west.

All grangers are requested to be present Tuesday evening, March 11, when a large number will be given the first and second degrees. Dublin grange putting on the work. Every granger is requested to be present.

Ford Anderson's sale Friday afternoon was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold of Rosemont were Friday callers here.

Mrs. Alfred Schafer was in Youngstown Friday afternoon.

Miss Maggie Miller has returned after spending some time in Minerva with her sister, Mrs. Harsh.

Wm. Keen was in Canfield Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenzior of Rosemont called here one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schafer of Lowellville were callers here Saturday.

Rev. Case purchased a new Ford touring car of R. D. Fowler, the Canfield agent.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reiser and daughter Elizabeth were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burgoyne.

Sidney Brooke returned to his home here.

Frances Baringer is much improved after an attack of appendicitis.

Eether Gosser was home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Kirk and children of Steubenville called here Sunday.

Harold and Frasey Slough of Berlin called here Sunday.

Mrs. Emory Mathews and son Glen, who has the flu, are much improved.

Dr. Leimbach of Greenford called here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stroup and children of Jackson spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Beeman Young.

There will be preaching in the M. E. Church Sunday morning.

Mary Crook spent Sunday with Merle Bardo.

Conway Calvin of Columbiana spent Sunday here.

Red Cross Auxiliary met Saturday. A farewell reception was tendered surprise fashion to Dr. and Mrs. LaViere Saturday evening. A fine time was had by all. Lunch was served at a late hour. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Dickson and sons, Walton and Emmet, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Joe McDermott, Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Dickson and Mrs. Allen Dickson and family. Mr. and Mrs. Elias Wise have returned after spending several days in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Wilson have moved to the farm owned by Frank Howard.

Leslie Siegel of Rosemont spent Saturday and Sunday here with his sister, Mrs. Elmer Crum.

Quite a number from here attended the milk meeting Saturday evening held in North Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schafer and sons Harry and Wilbur were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Fenstermaker.

Several from here attended the funeral of Ward Dean in Rosemont Monday afternoon.

Mr. Bloom of Youngstown spent Sunday here with his sister, Mrs. J. W. McDermott.

Mrs. Emory Cutting is on the sick list.

NEW BUFFALO

March 5—The Social Sisters' Club will meet March 12 at the home of Mrs. Ed. Moff. The request of Mrs. Mof is for all the members to come in the morning and bring thimble and needle for quilting. Program at 2 p. m. Song by the club; roll call song; roll call; reading of minutes; reading by Bertha Bare; song, My Old Ohio Home; reading by Mrs. Estella Heintzelman; topic, Conservation of Fertilizers; first Mrs. Ruth Beard, second, Mrs. Ed. Mof, third, Mrs. S. J. Heintzelman; music by Miss Nora Mof.

Mrs. Hosea Kriner of Canfield is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Bertha Bare.

Will McCormick and wife of Struthers spent Sunday at Henry Hees's.

John Johnston of Canfield spent several days here with his sister, Mrs. Charley Jordan.

Mr. Irvin Rupert called on Emma Beard, Thursday.

Mrs. Allen Kline and daughter and Lena Gressel called on Mrs. Ed. Mof Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Ed. Mof and daughter Nora spent Sunday at Harvey Bare's in East Lewisstown on Monday.

Callers at Emma Beard's Sunday afternoon were R. A. Beard and son, H. L. Beard and son, Chester and Mrs. Monroe Beard and grandson, James Smith, of Youngstown.

The entertainment and pie social at the Beard schoolhouse Saturday night was well attended. They took in $24.

Dr. Detchon of Canfield called at Clark Bar's Sunday.

The real and personal property of the late George Gilbert in Washingtonville will be sold at public auction on the premises Saturday, March 8, commencing at 1 p. m.—adv.

It pays to advertise, but don't squander all your appropriation advertising for trouble.

The dignity of labor gets a severe jolt from the "No Beer, No Work" slogan.

GREENFORD

One day recently while J. B. Schroy of this place and Wm. Snyder of Salem were doing carpenter work for Mrs. Gledhill a board in the scaffold broke and both men fell to the ground, badly spraining one of Mr. Schroy's feet. He will not be able to work for some time.

Greenford grange held its regular meeting Tuesday evening. The program was a song by the grange, recitation by Miss Ruth Hoover, essay by Rena Getz, song by Mrs. A. G. Coburn, story by L. E. Coy, the greatest need of the farmer by M. G. Huffman, recitation by Leroy Bush, song by the grange.

Last Thursday while Myron Roller was running from east to west through the public square a stranger in another machine coming from the north ran into the rear wheels of Mr. Roller's machine, badly damaging both machines.

Wayne Weikart returned home from Appollo, Pa., last Tuesday.

Fred Gibbons of Salem was a Greenford caller last Thursday.

Parent-teachers' day was observed in grange hall last Thursday. The meeting was opened by a song of praise by the audience and prayer by Rev. Naftziger; 220 partook of a dinner which consisted of noodles, scalloped potatoes, beef sandwiches, peaches and cake. After dinner the children were given permission to play on the school grounds and short talks were given by the school board and others. An able address was given by Jerome Hull, after which Carl Clay took a group picture. All enjoyed the occasion.

William Feicht recently purchased a new touring car.

Frank Clay of Salem was in Greenford Sunday.

Mrs. Leimbach of Elyria is here visiting her son, Dr. Leimbach and family.

F. E. Callor and family of Youngstown, C. M. Sonnedecker of Pittsburgh, and Emmet Mentzer and family of Columbiana were Sunday guests of W. E. Mentzer and family.

Mrs. George Keyser and daughter Mary of Columbiana were Sunday guests of Mr. Roney Haanes several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hively and son spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook of Canfield.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clay spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Wilhelm.

The wind storm last Friday night blew down the smoke stack at the grist mill.

James and Silas Huffman of Youngstown and John Basinger of Canfield spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. David Huffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Toot of Salem spent Monday in Greenford attending the farmers' institute.

The high school will give a chorus and a play and a pie social in grange hall Friday evening, March 14. Admission, 10c.

The high school will hold a literary contest in grange hall Friday evening, March 28.

The real and personal property of the late George Gilbert in Washingtonville will be sold at public auction on the premises Saturday, March 8, commencing at 1 p. m.—adv.

NORTH CANFIELD STREET

March 5—Misses Josephine and Lulu Yeager of Geesburg spent Sunday with Beatrice Clay.

Homey Kirk called at Ursas and J. M. Yeager's, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crum spent Monday at John Bartholomew's in Geesburg. Mr. Bartholomew, who suffered a relapse, is recovering slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Brant moved to Pennsylvania where they will make their home.

Mrs. Rebecca Yeager spent a few days last week with friends on the street.

Mrs. J. B. Cox of Canfield recently called on her daughter, Mrs. Foster Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gardner and daughter called on Mrs. Margaret Peck Tuesday afternoon.

J. C. Allspaugh and Lenore Hanley helped H. C. Clay open his sugar camp last week.

H. C. Clay, Paul Mathews, Donald and Joseph Yeager enjoyed an egg dinner at the sugar camp Saturday.

Estella and Clyde Van Fossan of Shady Hollow, Van Gruber and Randall Albert of Austintown and Mabel Measner of Lynn Street recently called on E. W. and Wm. Shaffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gardner and daughters, Mrs. Mary Shaffer, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. B. K. DeSamp of Youngstown, called on Wilson Mathews and Alice Neff of Orlowton, Sunday.

Era Yeager has quit making butter and is now selling cream.

Joseph Barger and Vernon Scott spent Tuesday night with Leroy Yeager.

Gay DeCamp is employed by Frank DeCamp.

Nathan Blot, a lifelong resident of the street, will have a sale Saturday and soon move to Canfield. All are sorry to have them move.

BERLIN CENTER

March 5—Olin Hartzell and sisters Clara and Alice spent Sunday at Isaac Hull's.

Homer Kille of Alliance visited Mrs. A. W. Leyman last Sunday.

Joshua Barringer purchased the property of the late Hannah Florence. Consideration $1,470.

The flu patients are all recovering nicely and school began Monday morning.

J. Smith and A. S. Fellnogle were in Youngstown Monday.

Mrs. Vernon Booth and son Wayne spent several days last week in Youngstown visiting her sister.

Mrs. Smith and her two children will occupy the apartment on North Street recently vacated by Andrew Russell.

Shellday and Haek are moving their saw mill this week to the Cook farm, on the Salem-Ellsworth road.

It begins to look as if spring had come. Robins and blue jays are hopping about. Old Mr. Groundhog made his appearance on the farm on North Street.

NORTH LIMA

March 5—A meeting of North Lima Ward will be held this evening.

Samuel W. Grathwell will lecture here Thursday evening under the auspices of the schools.

The reading contest to be held here Friday evening promises to be an event of much interest to patrons of the school and pupils. All the rural high schools of the county will have contestants here. Miss Helen Sutton will represent the home school. Admission 20c and 10c.

Rev. L. J. Rohnbaugh is in Altoona, Pa., attending a special meeting of the General Synod of the Reformed church.

Religious services will continue in the Evangelical church throughout this week.

L. A. Coy and family and Arthur Heindel and wife will sell their household goods and move to California this spring. The change is being made on account of the ill health of several members of the family.

Lenten services will be held in the Lutheran Church Thursday evening.

Mrs. A. T. Heim and Mrs. Schontz of Leetonia were Friday callers at the home of Mrs. H. Greer guests of El Pfau sold his farm to George Painter. He retains the home for the present as a residence.

Misses Mary and Elmyra Bomgartner and Miss Sarah Wynkoop of Alliance were Saturday and Sunday visitors in the home of Seth Basinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis of the West Precinct have rented the Teicher property and will move here this spring.

Walter Rupert and family are moving this month to their home in New Springfield. The farm vacated by them, which was purchased by O. E. Diser, will be farmed by Edward Peters.

Edward Peter and family of Youngstown, C. M. Sonnedecker of Pittsburgh, and Emmet Mentzer and family of Columbiana were Sunday guests of W. E. Mentzer and family.

Mrs. George Keyser and daughter Mary of Columbiana were Sunday guests of Mr. Roney Haanes several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hively and son spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook of Canfield.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clay spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Wilhelm.

The wind storm last Friday night blew down the smoke stack at the grist mill.

James and Silas Huffman of Youngstown and John Basinger of Canfield spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. David Huffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Toot of Salem spent Monday in Greenford attending the farmers' institute.

The high school will give a chorus and a play and a pie social in grange hall Friday evening, March 14. Admission, 10c.

The high school will hold a literary contest in grange hall Friday evening, March 28.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

March 5—in my last letter I stated that Elmer Schiesler of the 11th Inf. had not been heard from since the latter part of October and that he had been slightly wounded. Since then his wife has been informed by the war department of the death of her husband. His wife, who was Miss Grace James before marriage, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schiesler of Fair View, Mrs. Charles Lee, Miss Pearl, Charles and Roy of Canfield township, Mrs. Dan James of Fair View and Mrs. David James of Warren survive.

The family has the sincerest sympathy of the people of this community. There will be preaching here by Rev. Reiff Sunday evening providing the revival meeting is closed at Smith's Corners.