

SLAVERY IN CUBA.

Our readers will be interested in the article on our first page, in relation to slavery in the island of Cuba...

The treatment of the free blacks in Cuba ought to cause the cheek of every American to tingle with shame...

NOT A TRUE BILL.

Frederick Douglass' Paper of the 13th inst., has a somewhat elaborate sketch of Disunion Abolitionists...

Every practical step of progress made in resisting the encroachments of slavery, has been made under the Constitution...

The evident design of this is to convey the impression that Garrisonian abolitionists are opposed to the use of ballots or bulletins...

Another course of lectures. Mr. Marks will next week give a course of lectures before the Young Men's Christian Association...

Annual Meeting of the American Anti-Slavery Society. The Twenty-Seventh Annual Meeting of the American Anti-Slavery Society will be held in the city of New York...

The Republican—as well as all other political parties—was organized not only for a specific purpose, but is pledged expressly or implicitly to confine itself to certain measures for the furtherance of its object.

The great mass of the Disunion abolitionists with whom we are acquainted are in favor of voting, and desire to do so—but not when principle must be sacrificed to gain access to the ballot-box...

The new "Reign of Terror in the Slaveholding States," is the title of a tract—or a pamphlet rather—of 144 pages, consisting of a record of the outrages which have been perpetrated by the South within the last six months...

We have also on hand Redpath's life of John Brown, and we trust that those of our readers who have not already obtained this work, will forward us $1, and receive in return a copy of the same.

Our attention was directed to a load of five bags of cotton in Broad Street, this morning, and we were informed that it was the crop of the 'house-gang'—that is, the cook and negro children about the house too young for regular work...

THE BOSOM FRIEND OF DANIEL O'CONNELL. Rev. Dr. Cahill, of Ireland, at a recent lecture in Philadelphia was introduced to the audience as 'the bosom friend of Daniel O'Connell.'

St. James of the "Practical Christian." This paper which has been published for twenty years, has been discontinued. Its editor, Adin Ballou, has faithfully endeavored to enforce his views of theological and moral reform...

Cosmopolitan Art Journal.—The June number of this periodical, commencing the IV volume, is out on its table.

LECTURES. Our town has been highly favored this week, with a course of Lectures on Oriental Land and Life, by the Rev. Mr. Marks of Pittsburgh.

ALL THE YEAR ROUND. CONDUCTED BY CHARLES DICKENS, IN WHICH IS INCORPORATED HOUSEHOLD WORDS.

This brilliant and beautiful periodical is issued monthly by us from advance plates made in London, thus securing its publication on the same day in both hemispheres.

From the Lawrence Sentinel, Mass. We hope that this new periodical will find a large circulation in Lawrence. Parents could not put a work into the hands of their boys and girls that would give them so much instruction in so pleasant a way.

From the People's Press, Philadelphia. It is gratifying to see the great novelty voluntarily enrolling himself as one of the fraternity, whose influence awakes the world to and fro like the pendulum of Galileo.

From the Western New-Yorker. A large hearted man, even then with frosted beard and thin locks, once spoke of the works of Charles Dickens as a long drawn Sermon on the Mount.

From the Bridgeport Farmer. Among the most eminent of the contributors are Mrs. Gaskell, Wilkie Collins, George Augustus Sala, and Miss Ida Craig—a constellation of writers such as no other periodical in the world can claim, and which could only have been gathered together by that personal magnetism which Mr. Dickens possesses in so unusual a degree.

From the Lanoster, Pa., Republican. Those who have enjoyed the best staffs, the flashing wit of the deep paths distinguishing the works of the illustrious author of "Box," will hail in this publication the advent of a new star of the first magnitude and brilliancy upon the literary horizon.

From the Batavia, N. Y., Republican. It contains a mass of choice and interesting matter far exceeding that of any similar publications.

From the San Francisco Farmer. The name of Charles Dickens is enough to secure a world of patrons.

It bids fair to rival, nay to exceed, every work of the sort hitherto commenced, in the extent of its circulation and in its popularity.

During the issue of the first volume of the work now completed, it has received over two thousand testimonials of favor like the above from the press, a flood of commendations perhaps never before equaled in the history of periodical literature.

The American edition of ALL THE YEAR ROUND issued in monthly parts put up in neat tinted covers, and furnished on the following TERMS:

Single Copies, $0 25 One Copy, One Year, 3 00 " Six Months, 1 50 Five Copies, One Year, 10 00 Eleven " " 20 00

And at the same rate for all over. Back numbers always furnished when desired.

We will send the work to new subscribers from the commencement, thus giving the whole of Charles Dickens' great story "A Tale of Two Cities."

J. M. EMERSON & Co., 87 PARK ROW, NEW-YORK.
