

THE ANTI-SLAVERY BUGLE.

CONGRESSIONAL LEGISLATION FOR SLAVERY.—The slaveholders are determined to compel every Democratic aspirant to the next Presidency, to pledge himself to congressional legislation in behalf of slavery in the Territories.

The Illinois elections have resulted as every good Democrat must have desired. The return of Judge Douglas to the theater of his usefulness was expected and wished for by the Democracy in every quarter of the country.

But, while counselling unity and harmony, Virginia is not unmindful of the great questions that are yet unsettled with regard to slavery in the Territories.

Virginia sees, that though the constitution recognises, and the Supreme Court sustains her right to carry slaves into a territory, yet she also remembers what Judge Douglas so pointedly brought to light in Illinois, that this right may be rendered null and void by the non-action of the Territorial Legislature.

FRANCE AND PORTUGAL.—Some months since the Portuguese authorities seized upon a French vessel on the African coast, called the "Charles et Georges," while really engaged in the Slave Trade under pretence of transporting voluntary laborers to the French Colonies.

A telegram, dated Lisbon, October 25, says:—"This morning, at seven o'clock, the ship Charles et Georges was restored, and the captain, Rousel, set at liberty. The exact amount of indemnity that Portugal has engaged to pay on the requisition of the French Government is not yet fixed."

The Times, in a leader on the subject, says:—"Never was the voice of truth and justice more arrogantly overpowered by a mere superiority of physical force; never were the rights of a brave and independent nation more recklessly trampled upon; never was the understanding upon which the affairs of Europe since the peace of 1815 have been conducted more entirely cast to the winds; for Portugal is left but to fold her arms and record her protest against the violence to which she has been forced to submit."

The latest arrival from Europe states that the French government has resolved to abolish this method of obtaining laborers. For the sake of humanity it is to be hoped this report is correct.

BURY ME IN A FREE LAND.

You may make my grave wherever you will, In a lowly vale or a lofty hill; You may make it among earth's humblest graves, But not in a land where men are slaves.

MEETING IN MARLBORO.

MARLBORO, NOV. 15, 1858. FRIEND ROBINSON: Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, the friends of the slave in this vicinity, assembled at the Town Hall, to listen to the ministrations of that Gospel which will "break every yoke and let the oppressed go free."

The Illinois Republicans are not well pleased with the favour shown by the New York Tribune to Douglas. The Chicago Tribune says:—"The New York Tribune contributed more, by its constant puffery of Douglas, to cause the defeat of Lincoln than any other one agency."

ANTI-SLAVERY LABORERS IN EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA.—We learn from the Standard that Miss Mary Gray, Robert Purvis, J. Miller McKim, William Wells Brown and Robert Colyer are holding Anti-Slavery meetings in various places in Eastern Pennsylvania.

FIRE IN GOSHEN.—We regret to learn that the residence of Joshua Shin, an old and much respected citizen of Goshen township, Mahoning county, was consumed by fire with all its contents, on Tuesday last, while the family was absent from home.

CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY.—Great preparations are making in Pittsburgh to celebrate the centennial anniversary of the evacuation by the French of Fort Duquesne. Thursday of next week is the day of celebration.

language used, would implicate our citizens in bad behavior. She says, "we had two meetings in Columbus: * * * On Wednesday, we held another meeting, which was interrupted by a mob of rowdies, but passed off without much serious injury." &c.

The meeting which was interrupted was held at Cool Spring; the rowdies are found over to Court, to answer for their conduct. Miss Watkins, no doubt, used this language inadvertently, and would desire its correction. I am happy to have the privilege of saying for our citizens, that there has never, to my recollection, been any disposition manifested here to interrupt meetings in this way.

Miscellaneous Summary. AFTER A SLICE OF MEXICO.—The President is casting an "eye of thankfulness" (as Cushing has it) towards Mexico. One of the Democratic letter writers at Washington says:—"The next great question will be the Mexican question. General Cushing has sounded the cry in his Richmond speech and South Carolina letter."

THE DRED SCOTT DECISION IN MINNESOTA.—In the following we have a practical illustration of the fact that slavery exists North as well as South. The colored man's right to the soil is no longer protected in Minnesota than in Alabama.

ANOTHER "DRED" CASE.—From the Lake City Tribune, published in Wabasha County, Minnesota, and alluded to by Rev. D. C. Steery and A. A. Kyrwood, Esq., it appears that there lives a man, but a few miles from Lake City, known as Dred Nelson—a black man outside, but white inside than many who sneer at a black skin and wink at black hearts and deeds, who went there two years ago and made a claim on the ill-fated tract, and has made several hundred dollars worth of improvements on the place, and in doing so expended nearly his all. Months ago, somebody, with a heart a good deal blacker than Dred's skin, "scrippled" the poor, defenceless black man, and "entered" his land at the U. S. Land Office.

HOW THE DRED SCOTT DECISION WORKS IN ALABAMA.—A gentleman who resided a long time in Mobile, Alabama, and who there, a year or two afterwards moved to New Orleans, and finally went to France with his family and there died. Before his death he conveyed to his children his property in Alabama by deed. He did this to avoid any of the difficulties attendant upon the war, and supposed he had secured his property to his children beyond a peradventure, but the Courts at Mobile have decided that the deeds are void because the children are within three degrees of African descent, and because they were not born in Alabama, but in New Orleans, while the father was residing there.

THE GENERAL IMPRESSION IS THAT THE EMIGRATION to the Kansas gold region will be immense next year. Let us look at the list: There were Mr. Trimmer, Mr. Skinner, Mr. Hatch, Mr. Jenks and Mr. Frost. Who could have expected to succeed with such unlucky nomenclatures? Whether Mr. Trimmer made anything of a run, we have not yet learned. Hatch is not well, and Mr. Jenks and Mr. Frost have been literally flayed alive by the enemy; Trimmer could not trim all well enough to get through the breakers. All lost! Don't ask "what's in a name."

STATISTICS OF THE SLAVE TRADE.—Not far from 200,000,000—two hundred million—of Africans were carried to the British West Indies, before emancipation. After 178 years not more than 780,993 remained, round numbers, eight hundred thousand, 800,000 negroes were brought to St. Domingo from 1680 to 1776; only 290,000 were to be found there in that latter year. The annual decrease in Cuba is from five to ten per cent. On the other hand it is stated that the number imported into the United States, de facto, was about four hundred thousand, and the number at the present day, is about four millions.

THE WHISKEY MARKET AT SALT LAKE CITY IS flourishing. The article is retailed at twenty-five cents per drink. A purveyor purchased $75 worth of whiskey in the State, and sold it at Salt Lake for $750. The only drawback upon trade is the fact that the customers at the bar fill their glasses full when they drink.

CAPTURE OF SLAVES.—Another slave has been captured on the coast of Cuba. The barque Yana formerly sailing under the Mexican flag, was taken by a Spanish war steamer a few days since, off Moro Castle, with nearly six hundred negroes on board. The barque Ketch Brothers, captured on the coast of Africa, arrived at Charleston on Wednesday morning. She was formerly owned in Charleston, but was sold to parties in Havana. Madame Pfeiffer, the traveler, is dead.

THE MEXICAN FLOT.—The Administration journals are taking great pains to impress on the popular mind a vivid picture of the sick and desperate condition of Mexico. Spain is making war upon her. France and England are taking up that power by an allied fleet, which is converging towards the Gulf of Mexico.

A candidate for Congress, out West, sums up his "edification" as follows: "I never went to school but three times in my life, and that was to a night school. Two nights the teacher didn't come, and 'tother night I had no candle!'"

THE COOLIE TRADE.—The Rev. W. C. Briggs, in a letter dated from Swatow, gives an account of the Coolie Trade as carried on even by English vessels, which, if the fact be as he considers, demands immediate attention and inquiry. It is unjust to attack the French for their emigration scheme on the African coast if we ourselves in similar adventures in China: "I have nothing of special interest to say, if I except what I may state about the coolie trade, that it is becoming more and more assimilated to slavery. The natives are not only decoyed away under false pretences, but are even kidnapped and sold, as on the coast of Africa. A man was put to death a week or two ago, by crucifixion, for deceiving persons away as coolies, and at present there are proclamations on the walls, both from the magistrates and from the people, offering rewards for the apprehension of all who are engaged in a similar way."

WESTERN ANTI-SLAVERY FAIR.

The undersigned members of the Salem Sewing Circle, hereby inform their co-laborers abroad that arrangements have been made for holding their annual Fair on the 24th and 25th of December next.

Those acquainted with this enterprise need not be told of the necessity of unusual effort on that occasion. The commercial embarrassments of the past year, the clamor of politicians contending for office, or aiming at selfish ends, the shouts of revolutionists who ignore the claims of the slave, and allure many from their course, all contribute, in their several ways, to lessen our resources, and hence the urgent need of renewed zeal in address, urging ourselves to this work.
