WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Materials within the collections of The Ohio Historical Society may be subject to the Federal Copyright Law. The Society permits use and copying of such materials only to the extent authorized by Sections 107 and 108 of the Federal Copyright Law. Any person or organization making, ordering or using a copy of such materials from the collections of The Ohio Historical Society warrants to The Society that his, her or its use of such copy is authorized by the Federal Copyright Law.
