

Free County Democrat. L. G. GOULD, Editor. THE DEMOCRAT. EATON, O., JULY 9, 1857. FOR GOVERNOR. HENRY B. PAYNE, of Cleveland. Campaign Democrat.

An important political campaign will soon commence, and being desirous of circulating our paper in every corner in the county, and placing it within the reach of all who wish to understand the true issues involved in the coming gubernatorial contest, we offer it at the following rates, commencing any time after the 6th of August, and continuing until the first of November, or until we get the official returns of the State election.

Single copy, $0.40. Ten copies, 3.50. Fifteen copies, 5.00. And an extra copy to the getter up of the club of fifteen. All orders must be accompanied by the cash.

Bad Arrangement. The change of receiving the mail at Eaton, from 7 1/2 A. M. to 1:15 P. M. in this matter we are now just where we were in the days when stage-coaches transported our mails.

What Whiggery was in 1850. The Albany Argus has unearthed the following resolution, which, according to the Albany Evening Journal, was adopted by the State convention of its political friends in 1850 "by acclamation."

No Doubt of it. A late number of the Stark county, Ohio, Democrat, says: "John Harris, Esq., an old and highly respected citizen of this city, and a bitter opponent of the Democracy, returned from Kansas a few days ago, and says the Republicans there are making every effort to have Kansas a slave state while the southern men generally are in favor of it being free."

The object of this is apparent, remarks the Pittsburg Post. If Kansas should be made a slave state, the Republicans would continue their "shrieking," but, if she becomes a free state, then the last plank is knocked out of the Republican platform.

Rail Road Excursion to Logansport, Ind. For some time past it was understood that the formal opening of the Cincinnati and Chicago Rail Road to Logansport, Cass county, Ind., would take place on the 4th inst.

A Live President. Away out in Minnesota, as well as in every section of the Union, the recent protraction of Mr. Buchanan in the matters of the Washington City Riot and the Ohio Fugitive slave case seems to have met with the most unqualified approval.

Walker and Kansas. The extremists of both the North and the South, says the Pittsburg Union, censure and condemn the course proposed by Gov. Walker, as indicated in his inaugural address, and his Topeka speech.

Ohio in a Mass-Republicanism Resuscitant. Ohio has been eighteen months under Republican rule, says the Dayton Empire, and she is now the ridiculous laughing stock of the whole Republic.

Treasurer Gibson. The Summit Beacon (republican) has the following sensible remarks in regard to the default of Treasurer Gibson: "Wm. H. Gibson, Treasurer of State, has resigned the office, and A. P. Stone, Esq., of Columbus, has been appointed by the Governor in his place."

The Convention in Kansas. The well-informed Lecompton correspondent of the New York Times, writing from Kansas under the date of June 19th, says: "We have already heard, therefore, of the election of twenty-five delegates to the Convention, all pledged to submit the Constitution to a popular vote."

Public Works. Calvin T. Chamberlain and others, Forrer, Burt and others, Samuel Doyle and Thomas Miller, and Daniel McCarthy and Samuel Doyle, contractors on the several divisions of the canals of the State, have entered suits against the State of Ohio, for the fulfillment of the contracts made by them with the agents of the State.

The Central American Treaty. The London Post, the organ of Lord Palmerston, has a rather significant article on Central American affairs, in which it doubts "whether the Clayton-Bulwer convention can be reckoned among existing things any more than the recently repudiated Dallas-Clarendon treaty."

The Late Defalcation. The Columbus Statesman of Friday last says: "If, instead of complimenting Atwood & Co., the Auditor had explained how their claims had been paid, and explained why the bonds were not sent on to be exchanged for others, but were held as collateral security for 'bona fide advances of money to the Treasurer of State,' he would have better satisfied public expectation."

Death of Hon. Wm. L. Marey. ALBANY, Monday, July 6. Hon. Wm. L. Marey, Ex-Secretary of State, was found dead in his room at this place yesterday at noon.

Deserting the Black Banner. The editor of the Juniata Sentinel, Millintown, Pennsylvania, who has been serving as a black-Republican up to this time, finds his burden greater than he can bear, and thus relieves his conscience by a free confession.

The Resurrection must be near at hand. The Whigs of New Orleans have during the past month held several informal meetings on the subject of re-organizing the party, and have now issued an address signed by several hundred of their most prominent citizens, and appointed an executive committee.

FRANKLIN BANK OF ZANESVILLE. The stockholders of this institution having, on the 1st inst., determined to relinquish business, resolved to file a declaration to that effect in the office of Secretary of State, countersigned by the President and Cashier, who have advertised the same. The Franklin Bank of Zanesville may therefore be considered defunct.

Every other guard necessary for fair and honest election by a majority vote of the bona fide citizens of Kansas should be provided. When this has been, and a decision pronounced, which everybody sees and feels has been fairly and honestly reached, the whole country will acquiesce in it, whether that decision makes Kansas a slave or free State.

EXPENSES. 1848-49 $53,160 21. 1849-50 51,878 12. 1850-51 55,373 52. 1851-52 60,748 07. 1852-53 89,507 76. 1853-54 78,232 08. 1856-57 141,843 45.

The Black Republican journals, in denouncing the Dred Scott decision, have laid special stress upon the charge that the majority of the Court were slaveholders. But the charge is false; a majority of the nine are non-slaveholders.

Four of the Justices reside in free States, where no one owns slaves. The Chief Justice is not a slaveholder, nor has he been for upward of thirty years. He never bought or sold a slave.

THE SUPREME COURT. The Black Republican journals, in denouncing the Dred Scott decision, have laid special stress upon the charge that the majority of the Court were slaveholders.

KEM'S WORM PASTILLES. Are the most unobjectionable of all vermifuges. They are "good to eat," infallible in their operation, pleasant to look at as confectionery, purely vegetable, act on the bowels without any mineral spur, such as calomel or blue pill, and effect a rapid cure without pain.

A woman lately eloped from Ohio to Wheeling, Va., with a corked-leg paramour. Her husband overtook her, secured the child, and told her then that she might follow her cork-leg paramour to the end of the earth.

THE RESURRECTION MUST BE NEAR AT HAND. The Whigs of New Orleans have during the past month held several informal meetings on the subject of re-organizing the party, and have now issued an address signed by several hundred of their most prominent citizens, and appointed an executive committee.

THE SELINA (ALABAMA) SENTINEL says the grain crops in that State were never more abundant, nor of a better quality, and predicts that flour in less than three months, will be sold at $3 per hundred, and corn at 50 cents per bushel.

PRESIDENT BUCHANAN will leave the capital for Bedford Springs, about the middle of July, and on his return will remove to his summer residence, the Soldiers Home, about four miles from Washington.
