

Preble County Democrat.

EATON, O., SEPT 8, 1857.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

- FOR GOVERNOR, HENRY B. PAYNE OF CUYAHOGA. FOR TREASURER OF STATE, JACOB REINHARD OF FRANKLIN. FOR BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS, ABNER L. BACKUS OF LUCAS.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

At a regular meeting of the Democratic Central Committee, of Preble County, Ohio, held at Eaton, on Saturday, August 29, 1857, it was Resolved, That a Convention be held at Eaton, on the 15th day of September, 1857, for the purpose of recommending a candidate for the offices of Senator, for the Senatorial District, composed of Preble and Montgomery Counties; and for the nomination of a candidate for Representative; for the election of a Central Committee, and for the transaction of such other business as may be deemed necessary.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Cincinnati Enquirer has changed hands, and is now owned by James J. Faxon and Washington McLean. Mr. McLean is one of those through-going, sound, National Democrats, in whom there can be no mistake, and we are glad to notice that he is prominently connected with this paper.

The tone of the Black Republican organs at present remind us very much of the boy who passed through the grave-yard and "whistled to keep up his courage." Throughout the whole State, the party is tumbling and crumbling to pieces from the effects of the corruption and villainy of its leading officers.

It is now certain that the Democrats will have a good working majority in both houses of Congress, over all opposition. What a result, compared with the predictions of Kansas scorchers, &c., a year ago!

Mr. W. J. Wilson, at the "Red Cottage," will receive from Cincinnati, in the course of a few days, a very extensive and choice selection of Dry Goods, and solicits the public to drop in and take a peep at them.

A GOOD SELECTION.—We notice that the Democracy of the Warren and Butler District have nominated LAUREN SMITH, Esq., of Lebanon, as their candidate for State Senator.

Who got the $3000,000 made by the Republican State officers, in selling the Bonds of the State of Ohio. Let Salmon P. Chase, the Attorney of the City Bank of Cincinnati, tell. Come on to the stand "model Governor"—honest (?) Mr. Chase!

The Hascally and Double-dealing of Black Republicanism. The Ohio Patriot says: Have the Black Republicans lost their senses? Are they candidates for the Lunatic Asylum? Would straight jackets be their appropriate garments? Any man who can read and has made himself acquainted with the robbery of the State Treasury by Black Republicans, and the efforts which are now making with their party to shield the robbers from the consequences of their guilt will answer these interrogatories in the affirmative.

The treasury has been robbed, that is a fixed fact—it was robbed by Black Republicans, that fact is equally fixed. Gibson swore that he received from Breslin, the whole amount due the State from Breslin, except two hundred and odd thousand dollars that had been deposited in Banks and stolen by them, for which he gave receipts that are now on record in the Treasurer's office. The wire-workers of the party called upon Gibson, say, "Why Gibson, this will never do—the loaves will take advantage of this and blow us higher than a kite, can't you make it appear that Breslin was the thief?"

The Cincinnati Commercial Republican. The Editor of the Commercial, whose evidence is competent as against the Democrats, speaks of follows: "There is nothing at issue in the campaign—the trumpery platforms to the contrary notwithstanding, and if we are not very much mistaken, party leaders, candidates, stump orators, vigilance committees and the like, will when they come to make the trial, find the manufacture of enthusiasm an uphill business."

The Philadelphia North American, a Republican paper, speaks as follows of the reported intention of the ultras of its party in Kansas to refuse to vote. The perverse and pernicious policy of the Abolitionists is the only thing that can delay its admission as a free State at an early day.

A New Badge. Last fall our Black Republican friends at their mass meetings, designated themselves by wearing a badge, with the portrait of the late Mr. Fremont thereon.

Robinson, the bogus Governor of Kansas, was lately tried in the Territory for treason, and acquitted. The judge instructed the jury that, if Robinson had ever assumed to play the Governor, they must find him guilty, and the defense admitted it.

Chase says his public addresses show his public opinions. Then his speech in Cincinnati in favor of Negro Suffrage and Negro Equality must be taken as part of his creed!

The Campaign Opeas

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says that our candidate for Governor has taken off his coat and plunged into the first fights of the campaign with his characteristic vigor and spirit. He opened at Old Monroe and his speech was greeted with the most cheering reception. At every point, he makes the same impression as he did at Columbus.

The Democratic party proposes something for the protection of the Public Funds, something tried, practicable and efficient. The Independent Treasury system must and will be adopted if the Democratic party succeed. The Black Republicans, as heretofore, propose nothing—oppose everything, and have but one idea which if realized, would make Ohio the poor house of the Union.

DEEDS THAT ARE DEATH-LESS.

Time tests the value of all human action and deeds that were thought glorious at the period of their enactment wear a different hue when looked back upon, apart from the false surroundings of immediate victory. It is but a few years, comparatively, since we were assured that the Battle of Waterloo had settled the condition of Europe upon a permanent and impregnable basis.

There is nothing, absolutely nothing new in the report. Gibson has sworn that all his former testimony under oath was false. Who will believe a word of such a perjurer? His case merits the pity and contempt of all honest men. The committee without any testimony of greater weight than that furnished by Gibson have declared their opinion that Breslin was the defaulter and Gibson the concealor of it.

The signs of the times indicate that the Democratic State Ticket will certainly be elected, says the Hancock Courier. Without a Democratic Legislature, the force and effect in bringing Ohio back to the proud position she occupied a few years ago, would be materially crippled.

The New York Express, in noticing the suggestion of the New York Tribune and the New York Times that the Fugitive-Slave Law should be upheld because in some sections of the North it is difficult to execute, says: "Suppose the South says, now, the common language regulations of the Constitution are inoperative South."

Among the many false accusations brought against President Buchanan, in the late struggle for the Presidency, there was none more industriously circulated and more prominently emphasized, on the banners of our political enemy, than the one charging him with being in favor of the reduction of laborer's wages.

The Iowa Constitution.—The Chicago Times gives the majorities upon the adoption of the new Constitution in all but ten counties. They foot up against the Constitution, 9,556; for it, 9,478.

Mr. Buchanan was elected six months ago, notwithstanding this very grave and serious charge, has entered upon the duties of his office, published his Inaugural Address to the world, and the rest of mankind, but has never yet, in all that time, uttered a single syllable in favor of the reduction of a laborer's wages.

The result of the Goodwood Race has excited the turf-men in Savannah, Georgia, and they propose getting up a match race between the United States and England, to be run in this country, under such terms of agreement as shall fully test the superiority of the horses of the two countries.

The Warrington Why says: It is really gratifying for us to state that the venerable distinguished Chief Justice Taney is at this time in the enjoyment of most excellent health and spirits. Six weeks since he came to the Fauguer White Sulphur in a feeble and debilitated condition.

MURRAY & LAMMAN'S FLORIDA WATER.—Besides its superiority as a perfume over its costlier foreign competitors, this delicious floral essence forms a delightful tooth-wash and a soothing application after shaving, when mixed with it and applied to the brow will relieve the severest nervous headache, and ladies, who value a clear complexion and a velvet skin, will find it extremely useful in removing blotches, pimples, cold sores, chaps, sunburns, and all those external eruptions and discolorations which militate against the purity, transparency and flexibility of the skin.

Senator Rusk, whose melancholy death was recently recorded, was the son of a poor Irish emigrant, who, when he came to this country, settled in South Carolina on land belonging to John C. Calhoun. He was a stone-cutter by trade.

There is no doubt that the Black Republicans have adopted, as a banner for this campaign, a small cotton rag (made of the wool from a negro's head) with the RED PATCH on it; the patch to represent the one that their candidate for Treasurer—A. P. Stone—wished placed on the back of every laboring man.
