☞ Hon. ALBERT G. BROWN, of Mississippi, delivered in the U. S. Senate, on the 3rd and 4th inst., a powerful speech on the President's Kansas Message. It was an effort worthy the distinguished gentleman and the South, abounding in argument and eloquence, and evincing a dispositio n in the highest degree commendatory for its kind language, but hard argument. We have given it a perusal, and would like to place it before our readers, but its great length compels us to forego that pleasure. We cannot however, refrain from giving the concluding paragraphs:

"We have heard a great deal said in the course of this debate about apprehension of cival war, and bloodshed, and dissolving the Union, and all that. Sir, there is a sovereign remedy for all such apprehended evils. Obey the law, respect the Constitution, fulfill your contracts, and there will be no civil war; there will be no bloodshed; there will be no dissolution of the Union.—Fufil all your obligations to the laws and the Constitution and the contracts between the sections of the Union on the subject of slavery, and all other subjects, and I guaranty that your Union will stand forever. Trample upon these obligations, and soon your Union will pass away as "the baseless fabric of a vision." In the future I see the Union standing upon pillars as firm as the eternal rock of ages; but I see it only through those paths which lead to the law, the Constitution, and the fulfillment of obligations. In a diffe ent direction I see it a dissolving Union; I see the stars of our galaxy being blotted out, and the sun of our glory running away as it were in rivulets of blood; and all this is seen over the traces of violated laws, prostrate constitutions, violated compacts.

Let me say, Mr. President, to the Senator from Illinois, that on him rests a fearful responsibility. He is the author of this measure. He has stood by it until he has brought it to its present condition. He sees a whole United South arrayed on the one side, and he has thrown himself into the northern scale. Does he mean to array a whole united North against the whole united South? If this result shall ever be accomplished, it will be done, in my opinion, over laws violated, constitutions trampled under foot, and compacts flagrantly outraged. It will not be responsible for the consequences when this state of things shall be brought about. Let not the Senator from Illinois suppose that I have meant to assail him; that I have meant to join in any cry against him. Let him not suppose that I am pursuing him with any of the instincts of a bloodhound, Heaven knows I would to-day much rather embrace him as a friend than regard him for a solitary instant as an enemy. He knows how much I have loved him in the past. He knows with what fidelity I have followed his flag, and with what joy I have witnessed the rising star of his glory. But it is not in the name of these that I would appeal to the honorable Senator. We have a country, a common country, a country dear to him and to me; to you, sir; to one and all of us. That country is in peril. The hearts of stout men begin to quail. Thousands and hundreds of thousands of our people believe that the Union is now rocking beneath our feet. The Senator has it in his power to put a stop to all this agitation. If he will but say to the angry waves, "Peace, be still," calmness will settle on the great deep of public sentiment. Whether he thinks so or not, he is the very life and soul of this agitation. If he stood now where he stood at the passage of this bill, with his Democratic friends, supporting the strong arm of the President who dares to do his duty in the face of every danger, there would not have been a ripple on the surface, or if there had been, it would have subsided and died away in the great ocean of oblivion where other ripples have gone, and we should almost without an effort introduce Kansas into the Union. Sir, the Senator from Illinois gives life, he gives vitality, he gives energy, he lends the aid of his mighty genius and his powerful will to the opposit ion on this question. If ruin come upon the country, he more than any other and all other men, will be to blame for it. If freedom shall be lost—if the Union shall fail—if the rights of man shall perish on earth—if desolation shall spread her mantle over this our glorious country—let not the Senator ask who is the auther of all this, lest expiring Liberty, with a death-rattle, in her throat, shall answer to him as Nathan answered David, "thou art the man!

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Monday, March 1.

SENATE.—J. P. Henderson, Senator elect from Texas, appeared and took his seat.

A communication was presented from the Legislature of Kentucky, offering a regiment of volunteers for service in Utah.

Several memorials were also read from the Legislature of Iowa, asking grants of land for railroad purposes.

Mr. Green called up the Kansas Bill.

Mr. Broderick objected, as the Pacific Railroad Bill had the priority.

The Kansas Bill was taken up.

Mr. Green gave notice of a substitute for the admission of the States of Minnesota and Kansas together, hoping thereby to expedite business. He then proceeded to advocate the report of the committee, remarking that the leading and controlling facts in that document could not be successfully controverted. An attempt had been made in the minority reports to evade some of them, but they stood unassailed. He then passed to a personal explanation, touching the statement in regard to the action of the committee, published by the New York Tribune, which he asserted that a majority of the committee had made a positive promise to Messrs Douglas and Collamer not to report until the succeeding Monday, and subsequently violated that agreement. He proceeded to show the falsity of this statement by a detail of facts in the case.

A discussion of some length took place between Messrs. Green and Douglas, when the former proceeded.

He said that he had a substitute for the bill reported by the majority committee, which he would offer at the proper time. This substitute provided for the admission of Kansas and Minnesota together, the object being to expedite the business before the Senate, so that other important questions might come up for consideration. He then argued the legality of the Kansas Constitution, contending that it was republican in form, and was a legal choice of the people. The population of Kansas is sufficient to entitle her to one Representative, and the Constitution of the United States prescribes no specific number of inhabitants. He referred to the unsettled state of the Territory as a powerful and overwhelming reason for its admission, for it would give peace and quietness to the Territory. He had received information to-day of a murder, comitted by parties opposed to the Lecompton Constitution, and that General Whitfield had been driven from the Territory under threats of assassination.—This, he said, was the reason of the absence of Federal officers from Kansas. It is useless to cry peace, when there will be none until Kansas comes into the Union.

Mr. Collamer followed. He referred to the Missouri Compromise as having settled the slavery agitation. It being a fair bargain, he thought it unjust in the South, after receiving her portion of the advantage, to repudiate the compact. Who believed, he asked, in 1854, that slavery would exist in Kansas? It was a well-settled principle that the power to regulate implied the power to prohibit, and quoted instances to show where this power had been exercised, and referred to a case in Mississippi, in 1796, in point. He defended the Emigrant Societies, denying that the emigrants from the North went to Kansas merely to vote, without designing to stay there. He referred to fraudulent elections, carried by interlopers from Missouri, and to other gross outrages, into which the Government had never examined.

Without concluding, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The Speaker has appointed Seward, (Ga.,) Harris, (Ill.,) Grow, (Penn.,) Curtis, (Iowa.,) and Bishop, (Conn.,) as committee upon the Matteson case. Mr. Harris was executed on his own request.

Resolutions adopted by the Legislature of Washington Territory were read, declaring that the proclamation of martial law by Governor Stevens was a patriotic act, and required to maintain peace in the Territory.

Mr. Sherman, (Ohio) submitted a a resolution, which was adopted, calling for information as to whether any money has been paid from the U. S. Treasury, to the year ending June last, for the Legislature, or pretended Legislature, of Kansas, and if so, under what act and from what fund.

Mr. Florence presented a memorial from the marine underwriters of Philadelphia against the alteration of a law establishing the light-house system.—Referred.

A discussion took place on the bill for reorganizing the clerks and other employes of the House, pending which the House adjourned.

FRAUD.—We would call attention to the public against a fraud daily practiced upon the unsuspecting, in the article of Dr. J. HOSTETTER'S celebrated Stomach Bitters. Since these celebrated Bitters have become so popular, others have been making preparations to imitate it, and in some cases have purchased old bottles and refilled them. We would advise all persons to buy of none but respectable dealers; the genuine are all covered with a metalic cap, and the name on it. For sale by druggists and dealers generally.

Dr. Morse's INDIAN ROOT PILLS.

DR. MORSE, the inventor of MORRSE'S INDIAN ROOT PILLS, has spent the greater part of his life in traveling, having visited Europe, Asia, and Africa as well as North America—has spent three years among the Indians of our Western country—it was in this way that the Indian Root Pills were first discovered. Dr. Morse was the first man to establish the fact that all diseases arise from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD—that our strength, health and life depended upon this vital fluid.

When the various passages become clogged, and do not act in harmony with the different functions of the body, the blood loses its action, becomes thick, corrupted and diseased; thus causing all pains, sickness and distress of every name; our strength is exhausted, our health we are deprived of, and if nature is not assisted in throwing off the stagnant humors, the blood will become choked and cease to act, and thus our light of life will be forever blown out. How important then that we should keep the various passages of the body free and open. And how pleasant to us that we have it in our power to put a medicine in your reach, namely, Morse's Indian Root Pills, manufactured from plants and roots which grow around the mountainous cliffs in Nature's garden, for the health and recovery of diseased man. One of the roots from which these Pills are made is a Sudorific, which opens the pores of the skin, and assists Nature in throwing out the finer parts of the corruption within. The second is a plant which is an Expectorant, that opens and unclogs the passage to the lungs, and thus, in a soothing manner, performs its duty by throwing off phlegm, and other humors from the lungs by copious spitting. The third is a Diuretic, which gives ease and double strength to the kidneys; thus encouraged, they draw large amounts of impurity from the blood, which is then thrown out bountifully by the urinary or water passage, and which could not have been discharged in any other way. The fourth is a Cathartic, and accompanies the other properties of the Pills while engaged in purifying the blood; the coarser particles of impurity which cannot pass by the other outlets, are thus taken up and conveyed off in great quantities by the bowels.

From the above, it is shown that Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills not only enter the stomach, but become united with the blood, for they find way to every part, and completely rout out and cleanse the system from all impurity, and the life of the body, which is the blood, becomes perfectly healthy; consequently all sickness and pain is driven from the system, for they cannot remain when the body becomes so pure and clear.

The reason why people are so distressed when sick, and why so many die, is because they do not get a medicine which will pass to the afflicted parts, and which will open the natural passage for the disease to be cast out; hence, a large quantity of food and other matter is lodged, and the stomach and intestines are literally overflowing with the corrupted mass; thus undergoing disagreeable fermentation, e nstantly mixing with the blood, which throws the corrupted matter through every vein and artery, until life is taken from the body by disease. Dr. Morse's PILLS have added to themselves victory, by restoring millions of the sick to blooming health and happiness. Yes, thousands who have been racked or tormented with sickness, pain and anguish, and whose feeble frames have been scorched by the burning elements of raging fever, and who have brought, as it were, within a step of the silent grave, now stand ready to testify that they would have been numbered with the dead, had it not been for this great and wonderful medicine, Morse's Indian Root Pills. After one or two doses had been taken, they were astonished, and absolutely surprised, in witnessing their charming effects. Not only do they give immediate ease and strength, and take away all sickness, pain and anguish, but they at once go to work at the foundation of the disease, which is the blood. Therefore, it will be shown, especially by those who use these Pills, that they will so cleanse and purify, that disease—that deadly enemy—will take its flight, and the flush of youth and beauty will again return, and the prospect of a long and happy life will cherish and brighten your days.

Testimony of the Professor of Obstetrics in Penn. It affords me pleasure to recommend him to the unfortunate, or the victim of mal-practice, as a successful and experienced practitioner, in whose honor and integrity they may place the greatest confidence.

JOSEPH LONGSHORE, M. D.

From A. Woodward, M. D. of Pa. University

It gives me pleasure to add my testimony to the professional ability of the Author of the "Medical Manual,"—Numerous cases of Diseases of the Genital Organs, some of them of long standing, have come under my notice, in which his skill has been manifest in restoring to perfect health, in some instances where the patient has been considered beyond medical aid. In the treatment of seminal weakness, or disarrangement of the functions produced by self-abuse, or excess of venery, I do not know his superior in the profession. I have been acquainted with the Author some thirty years, and deem it no more than justice to him as well as a kindness to the unfortunate victim of early indiscretion, to recommend him as one, in whose professional skill and integrity they may safely confide themselves

WHY WILL YOU DELAY!

Why will you neglect that disease which is taking such deep root, and which gives you warning by that hacking cough, that you are fast ripening for eternity? Why encourage that pain in the side, the raising of blood, those night sweats, or that difficult breathing, which silently whisper in your ear that something must be done to save you from the grave of consumptive? Why act so carelessly by permitting that disease to destroy your health, and hasten you to the tomb from whence no traveler ever yet returned?

SILENCE THAT COUGH!

Our death must carry you to your silent grave. Why delay while there is yet hope? Consumption is caused by impure humors of the blood being deposited in the cells of the lungs. Hence, the lungs are like a spring of water, when rolled up by the dirt or mud it clear water constantly flows through the springs, impurities or mud will be coarsed a ray by the pure water. Just so with the blood when kept in a clean or pure state; as it constantly flows through the lungs, it carries away all corrupt matter, and perfect health will be regular, will in a reasonable time cure consumption. The reason these pills are used more than all others, is because they are made of purifying vegetables, and cleans the body from all corrupt matter, and drive out disease of every description, quicker and in a milder way than any other Pills.

DR. WALTON'S AMERICAN PILLS.

JOY TO THE AFFLICTED.
YOUNG AMERICAN VICTORIOUS!

One small box of Pills cures ninety-nine cases out of a hundred. No Balsam, no Mercury, no odor on the breath, no fear of detection. Two small pills a dose; tasteless and harmless as water. Full directions are given so that the patient can cure himself as certain, as with the advice of the most experienced surgeon, and much better than with the advice of one of little experience in this class of disease.

SENT BY MAIL TO ANY PART OF THE COUNTRY by enclosing one dollar to Dr D. G. Walton, No. 154 North Sixth St. below Race, Philadelphia. A liberal discount to the trade. None genuine without the written signature of D. G. Walton, Proprietor.

Dr. W.'s treatment for Self-abuse, Weakness, &c., is entirely different from the usual course Dr. W. has cured hundreds who have tried others without benefit. The treatment is as certain to cure as the sun is to rise Enclose a stamp, and address Dr. W. as above, giving a full history of your case, and you will bless the day you made the effort to secure what is certain—RADICAL CURE.
