A Sister Murdered by Brothers.

Two brothers, named Dyon, Frenchmen, living in Macomb County Michigan, brutally murdered their sister on Tuesday, of last week, under most peculiar circumstances, as detailed to the Detroit Free Press.

Our Informant in this case states that the affair occurred in Erin township, and that the two brothers appeared at the house of a neighbor living some three or four miles distant, at about twelve o'clock night before last, and awakened him. Upon arising, he found the two men in a strange condition.—They were both stark naked, and had bands made of straw tied around their waists. With this exception, there was nothing upon their bodies. They said they wanted shelter and assistance, as people were after them, and were about to take them. Being asked why, they said that they had killed their sister—The story was not credited, and they were taken in and placed in an upper room, which was well guarded; as their actions excited suspicions of insanity.

Yesterday morning the farmers in the neighborhood gathered together and went to the house of the brothers, and there met a horrible sight. They found the mangled body of the girl, stripped stark naked and lying in a wagon which stood in the yard near the house. In the house was found a man who had nearly lost his life in defense of the girl. His name is Defair, which is all we have respecting his case. How serious his injuries are, or how he received them, we are unable to learn. The house presented all the traces of a desperate struggle, in which the young girl had been murdered and then dragged out of doors. Her hair was then cut off, close to her head by these mad fiends, and she was thrown into a wagon in the barnyard, which was then drawn around to where it was found. Her breast was full of gun-shot wounds, and her face was cut up in an undistinguishable mass of gashes. The only satisfaction that could be got from the brothers was that they were commanded by God to kill her. The supposion in the vicinity is that they were afflicted with religious mania.

The President's Message Announcing Peace with Utah.

[From the Washington Union, of the 11th.]

To the Senate and House of Representatives.

I transmit the copy of a dispatch from Governor Cumming to the Secretary of State, dated at Great Salt Lake City, on the second of May, and received at the Department of State on yesterday. From this there is reason to believe that our difficulties with the Territory of Utah have terminated, and the reign of the constitution and the laws has been restored. I congratulate you on this auspicious event.

I lose no time in communicating this information, and in expressing the opinion that there will be no occasion to make any appropriations for the purpose of calling into service the regiments of two volunteers authorized by the act of Congress approved on the 7th of April last for the purpose of quelling disturbances in the Territory of Utah, for the protection and supply of emigrant trains, and the suppression of Indian hostilities on the frontier."

I am the more gratified at this satisfactory intelligence from Utah because it will afford some relief to the treasury at a time demanding from us the strictest economy, and when the question which now arises upon every appropriation is, whether it be of a character so important and urgent as to brook no delay, and to justify and require a loan, and most probably a tax upon the people to raise the money necessary for its payment.

In regard to the regiment of volunteers authorized by the same act of Congress to be called into service for the defense of the frontier of Texas against Indian hostilities, I desire to leave this question to Congress, observing at the same time that, in my opinion, this State can be defended for the present by the regular troops, which have not yet been withdrawn from its limits.

JAMES BUCHANAN.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 10, 1858.

The Tornado at Ellison, Ill.

The Tornado which swept in a moment a village from existence was most remarkable. A letter to the Monmouth Atlas gives a minute and graphic account of its ravages. The cloud at first was apparently about the size of a man and funnel shaped. Nine miles from Ellison it first struck the ground, demolishing the house of Mr. Franklin Foot and killing Mrs. Foot instantly. The cloud then rose, moving east, and struck the house of David Thompson, blowing a Miss Ramsey a mile into a slough and breaking her limbs. Mr. Thompson and wife were dangerously injured; two others were fatally injurred. Near here a traveler was found in the road insensible, with his head so badly injured that recovery is hopeless. Two men out hunting saw the cloud strike a woman and take her up, since when nothing is known of her. Five miles west of Ellison the storm struck at William Thompson's instantly killing him and injuring his wife; the cloud then rose and struck two miles distant, demolishing the house of Mr. Johnson, killing him and his child, and throwing Mrs. Johnson a hundred yards into a creek. The house of Mr. Hurd was destroyed, and his wife and son killed; Mr. Hurd and another son dangerously injured.

The cloud then rose and next struck Ellison, which was a nice little place of thirty buildings, of which but two remain standing. No one that has not been there can imagine what that little cloud accomplished in one minute. Buildings, timber, fences, trees, furniture, provisions, beds, bedding, store goods, hogs, cattle, wagons—all lying in one broken mass. Locust trees, six inches in diameter, ars as completely stripped of their bark as if peeled with a knife—not a leaf nor a twig left on them. I saw a house on the north side of the street which was moved directly south from its foundation; and directly opposite was a large tavern which was thrown across and upon the north side of the street. I have no doubt that the reason there were no more killed outright was the fact that the buildings were taken up and carried off, leaving the floors near where they stood.

The dead and wounded at Ellson number about sixty. The condition of those living in the village before the tornado is beyond all description. The houses are leveled to the ground, their beds and bedding totally destroyed, and whole families are without clothing enough to change. I saw several young men lying bruised, with broken limbs and features so entirely disfigured that they could hardly be recognized, who told me they had nothing to wear, not even a shirt to put on. Women and children are in the same circumstances.

☞Cholera being the disease above all others most dreaded, it will be well for all to bear in mind that as a preventive, Dr. J. HOSTETTER'S celebrated Stomach Bitters stand at the head, and therefore all should keep a supply at hand during this warm weather. Its effect upon the Stomach when disorganized by diet, and its vivifying influence upon the system, is truly astonishing, and cannot be described, but felt when used as per direction on the Bottle. Further comment upon them would be superfluous, as they are known far and wide, and for sale by dealers generally all over the United States.

Morse's Indian Root pills,

CAUTION.

Merchats and Traders will be on their guard and not be imposed upon by a Counterfeit of Morse's Indian Root Pills, signed "A. B. Moore" All genuine Indian Root Pills have the name and signature of "A. J White & Co." on each box.

DR. MORSE, the inventor of MORSE'S INDIAN ROOT PILLS, has spent the greater part of his life in traveling, having visited Europe Asia and Africa as well as North America—has spent three years among the Indians of our Western country it was in this that the Indian Root Pills were first discovered. Dr. Morse was the first man to establish the fact that all diseases arise from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD!—that our strength, health and life depend upon this vital fluid.

A. J. WHITE & CO

50 Leonard Street, New York.

Dr. Morse's INDIAN ROOT PILLS.

DR MORSE, the inventor of MORSE'S INDIAN ROOT PILLS, has spent the greater part of his life in traveling, having visited Europe, Asia, and Africa as well as North America,—has spent three years among the Indians of our Western country—it was in this way that the Indian Root Pills were first discovered. Dr. Morse was the first man to establish the fact that all diseases arise from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD—that our strength, health and life depended upon this vital fluid.

When the various passages become clogged, and do not act in harmony with the different functions of the body, the blood loses its action, becomes thick, corrupted and diseased; thus causing all pains, sickness and distress of every name; our strength is exhausted, our health we are deprived of, and if nature is not assisted in throwing out the stagnant humors, the blood will become clotted and cease to act, and thus our right of life will be forever blown out. How important then that we should keep the various passages of the body free and open. And how pleasant to us that we have it in our power to put a medicine in your reach, namely, Morse's Indian Root Pills manufactured from plants and roots which grow around the mountainous cliffs in Nature's garden, for the health and recovery of diseased man. One of the roots from which these Pills are made is Sadoritle, which opens the pores of the skin, and thus assists Nature in throwing out the finer parts of the corruption within. The second is a plant which is an Expectorant, that opens and unclogs the passage to the lungs, and thus, in a soothing manner, performs its duty by throwing of phlegm, and other humors from the lungs by copious spitting. The third is a Diuretic, which gives ease and double strength to the kidneys; thus encouraged, they draw large amounts of impurity from the blood, which is then thrown out bountifully by the urinary or water passage, and which could not have been discharged in any other way. The fourth is a Cathartic, and accompanies the other properties of the Pills while engaged in purifying the blood; the coarser particles of impurity which cannot pass by the other outlets, are thus taken up and conveyed out in great quantities by the bowels.

From the above, it is shown that Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills not only enter the stomach, but become united with the blood, for they find way to every part, and completely rout out and cleanse the system from all impurity, and the life of the body, which is the blood, becomes perfectly healthy; consequently all sickness and pain is driven from the system, for they cannot remain when the body becomes so pure and clear.

The reason why people are so distressed when sick, and why so many die, is because they do not get a medicine which will pass to the afflicted parts, and which will open the natural passage for the disease to be cast out; hence, a large quantity of food and other matter is lodged, and the stomach and intestines are literally overflowing with the corrupted mass; thus undergoing disagreeable fermentation, e ntantly mixing with the blood, which throws the corrupted matter through every vein and artery, until life is taken from the body by disease. Dr. Morse's PILLS have added to themselves victory, by restoring millions of the sick to blooming health and happiness. Yes, thousands who have been racked or tormented with sickness, pain and anguish, and whose feeble frames have been scorched by the burning elements of raging fever, and who have brought, as it were, within a step of the silent grave, now stand ready to testify that they would have been numbered with the dead, had it not been for this great and wonderful medicine, Morse's Indian Root Pills. After one or two doses had been taken, they were astonished, and absolutely surprised, in witnessing their charming effects. Not only do they give immediate ease and strength, and take away all sickness, pain and anguish, but they at once go to work at the foundation of the disease, which is the blood. Therefore, it will be shown, especially by those who use these Pills, that they will so cleanse and purify that disease—that deadly enemy—will take its flight, and the flush of youth and beauty will again return, and the prospect of a long and happy life will cherish and brighten your days.
