For the Preble County Democrat.

To the Officers, Brothers and Sisters of Eaton Social Temple, No. 13.

COLUMBIA HALL, Oct. 30, 1858.

The committee to whom was referred the duty of submitting a suitable tribute of respect to the memory of our beloved sister, A. CATHARINE CHAMBERS, would respectively submit the following:

WHEREAS, It has pleased an ALL WISE Creator, in his wisdom, to remove from her benevolent labors on earth our beloved sister, A. CATHARINE CHAMBERS. May we be admonished by this mysterious dispensation of God's Providence that we too are passing away; may we emulate her many virtues, be ever as was she, active, generous, kind hearted, ever ready to sympathize with suffering humanity. Therefore,

Resolved, That we bow in submission to the decrees of an all wise God.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with her bereaved family, and commend them to a throne of Grace.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be sent to the family of the deceased and one to each of the Eaton papers for publication.

SALLIE VAN DOREN.
SYNTHIA A. DAVIS.

The undersigned having been appointed a committee to adopt resolutions expressive of the sense of this Social Temple at the loss by death of our beloved sister CATHARINE M. SCIBIRD, respectfully submit the following:

WHEREAS, It has pleased an all wise and benevolent Father to call from our midst our beloved sister, CATHARINE M. SEIBIRD, and while we bow in submission to his will as beneath his dependent creatures, yet may we deplore our sad bereavement in unfeigned sorrow. Therefore,

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with her family in their sad bereavement and commend them to an all wise God who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be sent to the family of the deceased and one to each of the Eaton papers for publication.

Horrible Murder in New York—A whole Family Attacked by one of its Members.

NEW YORK, Wednesday Oct. 27.

A horrible massacre took place last night in West Thirtieth street in this city. Two persons were murdered and five wounded, it is supposed mortally. The victims are the family of Francis Goulding, lumber merchant, consisting of himself, his wife, two sons, two daughters and a servant girl. The sons, aged respectively nine and twelve years, are already dead, and the wife is dying. The others can not live.

The murderer who is the eldest son of Mr. Goulding, has committed suicide. The motive of the murderer is supposed to be revenge, he having been detected some weeks ago in the act of robbing his father to a large amount.

LATER.—The following is an account of the horrible massacre: Last night young Goulding returned home about 11 o'clock, laboring under delirium tremens. Proceeding to the celler he procured an axe, and went to his father's chamber and attacked him, beating in his skull by several blows with the axe. The father can not live. Mrs. Goulding, hearing the cries of her husband, rushed from another room to his assistance, and was in return attacked by the infuriated son, and very badly wounded.

His two brothers—one three years old and the other fourteen—were next attacked, receiving several blows from the axe. The eldest will not live. His married sister, with a child in her arms, was the next victim, but she managed to escape without being seriously injured.

Two servant girls, who had rushed into the hall, were next attacked, and so horribly butchered that it is feared neither will live. Both have been sent to the hospital.

The assassin finally went to his own chamber, where, after locking himself in, he blew out his own brains with a pistol.

The Goulding family have held a highly respectable position in the community. Mr. Goulding is an officer of the Thirtieth Street Methodist Church, and is well known in New York.

Another account states that all the family had retired when young Goulding returned home, except his father, who let him in. The father retired, when the son crept down from his own chamber with a hatchet or axe, and commenced the attack upon his father, and next upon his mother, who lay asleep. Both of his brothers were also asleep when attacked. They are terribly mangled, and neither are expected to survive. The servants are said to have been attacked in their own chamber. The murderer then rushed to the room occupied by his sisters, one aged fifteen and the other less than two, but the door was fortunately locked, and they escaped injury.

The father is reported to be dead and the eldest son dying. The mother's recovery is also doubtful. The condition of the youngest son, is also critical.—Te servant girls, it is supposed, are not fatally injured.

Mr. Goulding is a man of wealth, being a retired hardware merchant.

The murderer was only nineteen years of age; was a clerk in a hardware store and always bore the reputation of a 'fast young man.' He had lately become very dissipated.

☞ Ma, I am going to make some soft soap for the Fair this fall!" said a beautifull Miss of seventeen to her mother, the other day.

"What put that notion in your head, Sall?"

"Why, Ma, the premium is just what I have been wanting."

"Pray, what is it!"

"A 'Westchester Farmer,' I hope he will be a good looking one!"

☞ TAKE NOTICE.—We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement found in another column of to-day's paper, of the great and popular remedy, Dr. Mann's celebrated Ague Balsam, which seem to be working wonders in the cure of chills, fever and ague so prevalent in the western country.—It is not often we notice a patent medicine indeed we think we have never puffed one before; but Dr. Mann's Balsam is something so superior to any other found in our market, that we cannot forbear asking the attention of our readers to it. When we remember the vast amount of suffering caused by this scourge of the west, among all classes of citizens and many constitutions racked and destroyed by this malady, and the different cures offered and proved unavailable—it is truly grafifying to us, and will undoubtedly be to our patrons and friends, to learn that a remedy has at last been discovered and placed within the reach of all, and one that will do all that is claimed for it. Give it a trial. Sold by all good druggists.

SIXTEEN YEARS IN THE WILDS OF AFRICA.

☞ 1000 AGENTS WANTED TO SELL

Dr. Livingstone's Travels & Explorations During a residence of 16 Years in the Wilds of Africa,

This is a work of thrilling adventures and hair-breadth escapes among savage beasts and more savage men. Dr. Livingstone was alone and unaided by any white man, travelling with African attendants, among different tribes and nations, all strange to him, and many of them hostile, and altogether forming the most astonishing Book of Travels the world has ever seen. All our Agents acknowledge it as the most saleable book published. The most liberal commission made to Agents, in small or large quantities. For particulars, address

J. W. BRADLY, Publisher,
48 NORTH FOURTH STREET,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Copies sent by mail, free, on receipt of the price, $1.25.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

From among the hundreds of favorable notices, from the most respectable journals of the country, of our cheap edition of "Livingstone's Travels and Explorations in Africa," we take the following:

"It abounds in descriptions of strange and wonderful scenes among a people and in a country entirely new to the civilized world; and altogether we regard it as one of the most interesting books issued within the past year."—Daily Democrat Patterson, N. J.

"It is emphatically an edition for the people, and, judging from the rapid sale with which it is meeting, it is fully appreciated by them."—Christian Freeman, Boston.

"The book is having a great run, and will be read by every reading man, woman and child, in this as well as other lands."—Ashtabula (Ohio) Telegraph.

"The work is finely illustrated, well printed, and firmly bound, thus answering in every respect the demand for a popular and cheap edition of the journeys and Researches in South Africa.' Those of our readers who would have a delightful book for reading at any hour, will not be disappointed in this work."—U. S. Journal.

"With truth we can say, that seldom is presented to the reading public a work containing such a vast amount of solid instruction as the one in question. The volume is handsomely illustrated, and presents that unique appearance of exterior for which Mr. Bradley's publications are noted."—Family Magazine.

"This interesting work should be in the hand of every one. Its interesting pages of adventures are full of instruction and amusement.—Ten thousand copies, it is stated, have been sold in one month."—Auburn American.

"Dr. Livingstone's Travels and Researches in South Africa appear to great advantage in this edition, which is undoubtedly the edition most acceptable to the reader who reads for practical instruction and amusement."—Saturday Post.

"The edition of Dr. Livingstone's Travels, published by J. W. Bradley, is just what it purports to be. Like all Mr. Bradley's publications, it is excellently gotten up."—Tioga Agitator, Pa.

"We can recommend the edition of Dr. Livingstone's Travels, published by Bradley, of Philadelphia, as every way worthy of public patronage. Its excellence and its cheapness recommend it over all others."—Frank Leslie's Magazine.

CAUTION.—The attention of the Publisher has been called to spurious editions of this work, put forth as "Narratives of Dr Livingstone's Travels in Africa." Ours is the only cheap American edition of this great work published and contains all the important matter of the English edition, which is sold at six dollars.

THAT GREAT REMEDY! SO LONG SOUGHT, FOUND AT LAST.

This remedy, claimed by the medical profession and the multiplied thousands that have used it and tested its wonderful curative properties, to be the greatest discovery in medical science and natures own remedy, is the result of years of toil and study, by one of Ohio's favorite physicians, in order to produce something that would meet the wishes of suffering humanity, and thousands from the princely palace and humble cottage can testify to the immediate relief found by its use. For want of space we only offer a few of the many evidences in its favor.

To the sufferers of chills, fever and ague. I cheerfully submit the following: Having observed closely the effects of Dr. Mann's Ague Balsam in this vicinity for the past three years, I am well pleased with its remedial virtues as an antidote to malaria. I have frequently used it in my practice and with entire satisfaction. From my intimate knowledge of this compound, I recommend it as safe, prompt and efficient.

WHY IS THE DEMAND SO GREAT FOR

DR. MAN'S ACUEBALSAM.

Because it will, in all cases, safely and effectually cure that much dreaded scourge of the West—Chills, Fever and Ague—without fail, and in cases will counteract the poison of Malaria, of which fact thousands do testify, and, unlike all other nostrums, it is only recommended for one class of diseases, and as a tonic it is unsurpassed. We will offer a few evidences of its worth, by men of influence and high standing.

Princeton, Ill., Sept 20th, 1857.

R MANN—DEAR SIR: For several years past I have used your Ague Balsam in my daily practice, and have closely observed its effects in hundreds of cases, and in no case has it failed to produce the most happy effect. I can most cheerfully recommend it as a certain specific for chills, fever and ague, and malarious diseases. Truly Yours,

H. AUSTIN, M. D.

Marshall, Mich., Feb. 11th 1857.

R MANN & CO.:—I have sold a large amount of your Ague Balsam in this vicinity, and from my personal knowledge of it, I believe it the best remedy for chills, fever and ague that has ever been sold in our State.

Respectfully Yours, O. A. HYDE.

Ashtabula, Ohio, January 1st 1858.

MESSRS. S. K. MANN & CO—GENTS: In canvassing the States of Ohio and Michigan for the sale of the different remedies of which we have control, our attention has been called to observe the great name that your Ague Balsam has gained for itself in every place where sold. It really seems to be THE PEOPLE'S OWN REMEDY, and its sales more rapid than all others. It is destined to supercede all other ague remedies in the market. Very Truly Yours,

A. & S. HENDRY.

New York, Feb. 23, 1858.

MESSRS. S. K. MANN & CO.—GENTS: I have at our house in St. Louis sold your Ague Balsam some three years, and have carefully observed its effects in course, and must in all candor say, I do not believe its equal exists in all the world of medicines To my personal knowledge it has cured permanently everytime, and I have known it used, after all other remedies had been tried in vain with the most happy result. And what is more REMARKABLE I have never known a case but what remained cured, for at least that season. I have no hesitation in recommending it as a perfect triumph over chills and fever. Respectfully Yours,

PROF. O. J. WOOD.

DYSPEPSIA AND FITS.

DR O. PHELPS BROWN,

THE GREAT CURER OF CONSUMPTION, was for several years badly afflicted by Dyspepsia, that for a part of the time he was confined to his bed. He was eventually cured by a prescription furnished him by a young Lady in Trance, who had taken it, never having failed since. It is equally as sure in cases of FITS as of DYSPEPSIA. The ingredients may be found in any drug store. I will send this valuable prescription to any person on the receipt of one dollar, to pay postage Address
