Important Resolutions by Mr. Vallandigham—The Abolitionists Ent on the Record.
The following important resolutions of Mr. Vallandigham, offered in the House of Representatives, were not telegraphed over the country.

Resolved, That the Union as it was must be restored, and maintained, one and indivisible forever, under the Constitution as it is, the fifth article, providing for amendments, included.

Resolved, That if any person in the civil or military service of the United States shall propose terms of peace, or accept or advise the acceptance of any such terms, on any other basis than the integrity of the Federal Union, and of the several States comprising the same, and the Territories of the Union, as at the beginning of the present civil war, he will be guilty of a high crime.

Resolved, That this Government can never permit the intervention of any foreign nation in regard to this present civil war.

HORRIBLE DISCLOSURES ABOUT CAMP-CHASE.
From what we learn of our own Ohio citizens who have been incarcerated in the prison at Camp Chase for what the Abolitionists call political offenses, we have become satisfied that it is due to the honor of our State to at once demand a reformation there.

The Bollmeyer Fund.
We beg to inform our readers that a fund is being raised by the Democrats and Conservatives of the North-west, for the purpose of erecting a monument to the lamented J. F. Bollmeyer, late Editor of the Dayton Empire, and for the support of his family.

The Military Lessons of the American War.
[From the London Times, Nov. 26.]
If the American war teaches us any lesson at all, it teaches that science and discipline are of more value than numbers in the field.

The last number of "Punch" has a cartoon embodying the feeling of England on the mediation question.

Lawless and Cruel Arrests.
A New Yorker, whose name we suppress for fear his publication may harm him, writes us from the Baltimore jail, where he says he has been imprisoned without cause, since August. He demands trial and legal process, but can not get them.

There is as much in knowing when as in knowing how to speak.
Probably Eve took up with Adam because she found herself no match for the devil.
Choleric men often take fire as quillists deliver fire—at the word.
