

FOR A FASHIONABLE SUIT

The Highland News. THE O'TOOLE STABBING CASE.

HILLSBORO, OHIO.

Wednesday, Jan. 7, '85.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

GEO. W. BARRETT, City Editor.

The Hillsboro Drum Corps have secured the services of Hon. Will Cumbach, who will lecture here Thursday night, January 16th.

Mr. Eddie Batts, of Cincinnati, is in the city.

James Brown, of Middletown, is visiting relatives in this place.

Do not fail to hear the Jubilee Singers at Music Hall Thursday night.

Miss Cora Hess, of Cincinnati, is visiting friends at Bainsboro.

Dr. Randall made a professional (?) visit to Lynchburg one day last week.

Judge Higgins has appointed Miss Amelia Clay as official Court Stenographer.

We learn that regular trains on the narrow gauge will be resumed by next Saturday.

Thirty-six applicants were examined by the Board of School Examiners last Saturday.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Brown is slowly recovering from her recent severe illness.

Quite a number of seats have been sold already for Hon. Will Cumbach's lecture the 16th.

The Original Tennessee Jubilee Singers and Billy Kerands at Music Hall Thursday night.

Messrs. George and Harvey Garrett, of near Bainsboro, spent the holiday at Morrow, Ohio.

Messrs. Sell Springer and Eli Bartley spent New Year's Day among lady friends at Loveland.

Mr. Jas. B. Ervin, of East Walnut street, who has been quite ill for some time past, is convalescing.

Mr. Ed Doyle, of the Winchester (O.) Sentinel, made the News office a pleasant call last Saturday.

The venerable Christopher Arthur, of Clear Creek, has been quite unwell, but is slowly recovering.

Mr. J. F. Bowles, of Martinsburg, Meigs county, spent several days last week with relatives in this city.

Mr. Edward F. Garrett, of Louisville, Ky., spent several days last week at his parents, near Bainsboro.

Mr. Ess has sold the Bainsbridge Courier to Messrs. Rumble and Buehler, who took charge of the paper last week.

A large number of people in Hillsboro have heard Hon. Will Cumbach lecture at other places. They are all loud in praise.

Owing to the great length of the examination in the Slusser case, much of our correspondence and other local matter is crowded out.

Only three notices of Mrs. Rebecca Conard and Miss Lida J. Paris are unavoidably crowded out this week, but will appear in our next.

Our carrier boy, Master Dickey Ames, requests us to return his thanks to his patrons for their liberal patronage on New Year's Day.

Mr. Stanley J. Bri ton, who is attending College at Delaware, spent the holidays at his home near Willetsville, returning to school last Monday.

Miss Belle Hanley, of East South street, left on New Year's day for Dayton, O., where she will remain for several months, the guest of her sister.

We are indebted to B. F. Head, Esq., of Chicago, for a late copy of the Chicago Times, containing an annual review of the business of the great city of the lakes.

Miss Cynthia Doughty, one of the teachers in the Public Schools at Mt. Washington, who has been spending her vacation with her sister, Mrs. S. Shaekleton, at Shekleton's Station, returned home last Friday.

Dr. H. M. Brown is visiting his parents at Buford, and intends taking a trip South before his return, for the benefit of his health, which has been considerably impaired by overwork in attending to his large practice.

Do you know that the great colored comedian, Billy Kerands, will be here Thursday night at the Music Hall? You had better secure your seat to avoid the rush. Geo. Powers' has them on sale, without extra charge.

The law firm of Hirt & Brock dissolved partnership Jan. 1st, 1885. Mr. Brock intends to start an office of his own and will occupy the room formerly occupied by J. B. Worley, in the Smith building. Mr. Worley intends moving his office to the Court House to rooms furnished him by the County Commissioners as prosector. Mr. Brock has bought himself an elegant library and will be glad to see any of his old clients and friends whose business if entrusted to him will receive prompt consideration.

One of the most enjoyable occasions on New Year's day was the presentation of an elegant pair of gold eye-glasses to Prof. E. G. Smith. The affair was a perfect surprise to Mr. Smith which added to the enjoyment of the occasion. The present was presented by eighteen of his pupils whose names are as follows: Joseph Hadd, Hugh Neilson, Frank Parks, Harry LaVeve, Oliver Duggan, Robert Stroup, Gato Brown, William Litter, W. A. Wilkin, Richard Brown, Charles Smith, Selman Mackay, Frank Emery, Hershel Bitt, Charley McCannery, Aylett Fullerton, George McCannery, Frank Smith.

THE O'TOOLE STABBING CASE.

EXAMINATION OF SLUSSER BEFORE MAYOR HARMAN.

He is Committed to Jail on the Charge of Murder in the First Degree.

(Reported for the News by Mr. Charles Bowles.)

Preliminary trial of Joe Slusser for the killing of Frank O'Toole on the evening of December 25th, 1884. Before Mayor Harman.

FINDING.—The first witness called was Frank Clark, who testified as follows:—I live in Hillsboro, work at the foundry, board at the Jefferson House. Was there on the night of the 25th of December. Was in the house when O'Toole was killed. I saw O'Toole and Slusser together in the room back of the bar. I did not see the difficulty and know nothing about it. I saw O'Toole strike Slusser in the afternoon before supper. We had supper about 5 o'clock. After he slapped Slusser Koch sent for the marshal, who came and took O'Toole away. That was the last I saw of him before the fight. Benny Sanford was there and a mechanic who used to work at the foundry. I saw Slusser that evening about five or ten minutes after the fight. Did not hear him say anything. He was talking to the engineer and foreman of the narrow gauge and Benny Sanford. I saw nothing in his hand that looked like a knife, but did not hear him say anything about it. I found out that there had been a fight and I wanted to get out. I went to the front door and tried to get out but could not. Afterwards I went out to Main street and the officers carrying Slusser to the station-house. They carried him all the way to the station-house. I went around there and learned who it was. I did not know before.

Cross-examination.—The first I heard of the difficulty was after it had occurred. I did not see O'Toole until after the murder at the Jefferson House. O'Toole and Slusser were with them. O'Toole picked up a plate and threw it over towards Slusser and knocked down two or three glasses. Slusser then got up and walked out into the street. I saw before the fact that O'Toole struck Slusser. He hit him in the face. I saw him strike other persons also. He struck me on the bar-room that evening. He was drunk and wanted to fight and tried to provoke a quarrel with Slusser and Benny Sanford. I saw him on the street after supper near the corner of the nine-pin alley talking with Anna Ward. It was the hall door I tried to get out but could not. I was standing there and would not let me go. I did not hear O'Toole say anything about it but it was locked. Then I went back into the sitting room. Joe came in while I was there. Did not hear what he said but saw something in his hand that I took to be a knife. I did not hear him say anything about it before the fight. After I came back from the station house I examined the ground to see if there was blood, but could not see any that night. I saw blood on the pavement next morning. It was all bright red.

The venerable Christopher Arthur, of Clear Creek, has been quite unwell, but is slowly recovering.

Mr. J. F. Bowles, of Martinsburg, Meigs county, spent several days last week with relatives in this city.

Mr. Edward F. Garrett, of Louisville, Ky., spent several days last week at his parents, near Bainsboro.

Mr. Ess has sold the Bainsbridge Courier to Messrs. Rumble and Buehler, who took charge of the paper last week.

A large number of people in Hillsboro have heard Hon. Will Cumbach lecture at other places. They are all loud in praise.

Owing to the great length of the examination in the Slusser case, much of our correspondence and other local matter is crowded out.

Only three notices of Mrs. Rebecca Conard and Miss Lida J. Paris are unavoidably crowded out this week, but will appear in our next.

Our carrier boy, Master Dickey Ames, requests us to return his thanks to his patrons for their liberal patronage on New Year's Day.

Mr. Stanley J. Bri ton, who is attending College at Delaware, spent the holidays at his home near Willetsville, returning to school last Monday.

Miss Belle Hanley, of East South street, left on New Year's day for Dayton, O., where she will remain for several months, the guest of her sister.

THE O'TOOLE STABBING CASE.

EXAMINATION OF SLUSSER BEFORE MAYOR HARMAN.

He is Committed to Jail on the Charge of Murder in the First Degree.

(Reported for the News by Mr. Charles Bowles.)

Preliminary trial of Joe Slusser for the killing of Frank O'Toole on the evening of December 25th, 1884. Before Mayor Harman.

FINDING.—The first witness called was Frank Clark, who testified as follows:—I live in Hillsboro, work at the foundry, board at the Jefferson House. Was there on the night of the 25th of December. Was in the house when O'Toole was killed. I saw O'Toole and Slusser together in the room back of the bar. I did not see the difficulty and know nothing about it. I saw O'Toole strike Slusser in the afternoon before supper. We had supper about 5 o'clock. After he slapped Slusser Koch sent for the marshal, who came and took O'Toole away. That was the last I saw of him before the fight. Benny Sanford was there and a mechanic who used to work at the foundry. I saw Slusser that evening about five or ten minutes after the fight. Did not hear him say anything. He was talking to the engineer and foreman of the narrow gauge and Benny Sanford. I saw nothing in his hand that looked like a knife, but did not hear him say anything about it. I found out that there had been a fight and I wanted to get out. I went to the front door and tried to get out but could not. Afterwards I went out to Main street and the officers carrying Slusser to the station-house. They carried him all the way to the station-house. I went around there and learned who it was. I did not know before.

Cross-examination.—The first I heard of the difficulty was after it had occurred. I did not see O'Toole until after the murder at the Jefferson House. O'Toole and Slusser were with them. O'Toole picked up a plate and threw it over towards Slusser and knocked down two or three glasses. Slusser then got up and walked out into the street. I saw before the fact that O'Toole struck Slusser. He hit him in the face. I saw him strike other persons also. He struck me on the bar-room that evening. He was drunk and wanted to fight and tried to provoke a quarrel with Slusser and Benny Sanford. I saw him on the street after supper near the corner of the nine-pin alley talking with Anna Ward. It was the hall door I tried to get out but could not. I was standing there and would not let me go. I did not hear O'Toole say anything about it but it was locked. Then I went back into the sitting room. Joe came in while I was there. Did not hear what he said but saw something in his hand that I took to be a knife. I did not hear him say anything about it before the fight. After I came back from the station house I examined the ground to see if there was blood, but could not see any that night. I saw blood on the pavement next morning. It was all bright red.

The venerable Christopher Arthur, of Clear Creek, has been quite unwell, but is slowly recovering.

Mr. J. F. Bowles, of Martinsburg, Meigs county, spent several days last week with relatives in this city.

Mr. Edward F. Garrett, of Louisville, Ky., spent several days last week at his parents, near Bainsboro.

Mr. Ess has sold the Bainsbridge Courier to Messrs. Rumble and Buehler, who took charge of the paper last week.

A large number of people in Hillsboro have heard Hon. Will Cumbach lecture at other places. They are all loud in praise.

Owing to the great length of the examination in the Slusser case, much of our correspondence and other local matter is crowded out.

Only three notices of Mrs. Rebecca Conard and Miss Lida J. Paris are unavoidably crowded out this week, but will appear in our next.

Our carrier boy, Master Dickey Ames, requests us to return his thanks to his patrons for their liberal patronage on New Year's Day.

Mr. Stanley J. Bri ton, who is attending College at Delaware, spent the holidays at his home near Willetsville, returning to school last Monday.

Miss Belle Hanley, of East South street, left on New Year's day for Dayton, O., where she will remain for several months, the guest of her sister.

THE O'TOOLE STABBING CASE.

EXAMINATION OF SLUSSER BEFORE MAYOR HARMAN.

He is Committed to Jail on the Charge of Murder in the First Degree.

(Reported for the News by Mr. Charles Bowles.)

Preliminary trial of Joe Slusser for the killing of Frank O'Toole on the evening of December 25th, 1884. Before Mayor Harman.

FINDING.—The first witness called was Frank Clark, who testified as follows:—I live in Hillsboro, work at the foundry, board at the Jefferson House. Was there on the night of the 25th of December. Was in the house when O'Toole was killed. I saw O'Toole and Slusser together in the room back of the bar. I did not see the difficulty and know nothing about it. I saw O'Toole strike Slusser in the afternoon before supper. We had supper about 5 o'clock. After he slapped Slusser Koch sent for the marshal, who came and took O'Toole away. That was the last I saw of him before the fight. Benny Sanford was there and a mechanic who used to work at the foundry. I saw Slusser that evening about five or ten minutes after the fight. Did not hear him say anything. He was talking to the engineer and foreman of the narrow gauge and Benny Sanford. I saw nothing in his hand that looked like a knife, but did not hear him say anything about it. I found out that there had been a fight and I wanted to get out. I went to the front door and tried to get out but could not. Afterwards I went out to Main street and the officers carrying Slusser to the station-house. They carried him all the way to the station-house. I went around there and learned who it was. I did not know before.

Cross-examination.—The first I heard of the difficulty was after it had occurred. I did not see O'Toole until after the murder at the Jefferson House. O'Toole and Slusser were with them. O'Toole picked up a plate and threw it over towards Slusser and knocked down two or three glasses. Slusser then got up and walked out into the street. I saw before the fact that O'Toole struck Slusser. He hit him in the face. I saw him strike other persons also. He struck me on the bar-room that evening. He was drunk and wanted to fight and tried to provoke a quarrel with Slusser and Benny Sanford. I saw him on the street after supper near the corner of the nine-pin alley talking with Anna Ward. It was the hall door I tried to get out but could not. I was standing there and would not let me go. I did not hear O'Toole say anything about it but it was locked. Then I went back into the sitting room. Joe came in while I was there. Did not hear what he said but saw something in his hand that I took to be a knife. I did not hear him say anything about it before the fight. After I came back from the station house I examined the ground to see if there was blood, but could not see any that night. I saw blood on the pavement next morning. It was all bright red.

The venerable Christopher Arthur, of Clear Creek, has been quite unwell, but is slowly recovering.

Mr. J. F. Bowles, of Martinsburg, Meigs county, spent several days last week with relatives in this city.

Mr. Edward F. Garrett, of Louisville, Ky., spent several days last week at his parents, near Bainsboro.

Mr. Ess has sold the Bainsbridge Courier to Messrs. Rumble and Buehler, who took charge of the paper last week.

A large number of people in Hillsboro have heard Hon. Will Cumbach lecture at other places. They are all loud in praise.

Owing to the great length of the examination in the Slusser case, much of our correspondence and other local matter is crowded out.

Only three notices of Mrs. Rebecca Conard and Miss Lida J. Paris are unavoidably crowded out this week, but will appear in our next.

Our carrier boy, Master Dickey Ames, requests us to return his thanks to his patrons for their liberal patronage on New Year's Day.

Mr. Stanley J. Bri ton, who is attending College at Delaware, spent the holidays at his home near Willetsville, returning to school last Monday.

Miss Belle Hanley, of East South street, left on New Year's day for Dayton, O., where she will remain for several months, the guest of her sister.

THE O'TOOLE STABBING CASE.

EXAMINATION OF SLUSSER BEFORE MAYOR HARMAN.

He is Committed to Jail on the Charge of Murder in the First Degree.

(Reported for the News by Mr. Charles Bowles.)

Preliminary trial of Joe Slusser for the killing of Frank O'Toole on the evening of December 25th, 1884. Before Mayor Harman.

FINDING.—The first witness called was Frank Clark, who testified as follows:—I live in Hillsboro, work at the foundry, board at the Jefferson House. Was there on the night of the 25th of December. Was in the house when O'Toole was killed. I saw O'Toole and Slusser together in the room back of the bar. I did not see the difficulty and know nothing about it. I saw O'Toole strike Slusser in the afternoon before supper. We had supper about 5 o'clock. After he slapped Slusser Koch sent for the marshal, who came and took O'Toole away. That was the last I saw of him before the fight. Benny Sanford was there and a mechanic who used to work at the foundry. I saw Slusser that evening about five or ten minutes after the fight. Did not hear him say anything. He was talking to the engineer and foreman of the narrow gauge and Benny Sanford. I saw nothing in his hand that looked like a knife, but did not hear him say anything about it. I found out that there had been a fight and I wanted to get out. I went to the front door and tried to get out but could not. Afterwards I went out to Main street and the officers carrying Slusser to the station-house. They carried him all the way to the station-house. I went around there and learned who it was. I did not know before.

Cross-examination.—The first I heard of the difficulty was after it had occurred. I did not see O'Toole until after the murder at the Jefferson House. O'Toole and Slusser were with them. O'Toole picked up a plate and threw it over towards Slusser and knocked down two or three glasses. Slusser then got up and walked out into the street. I saw before the fact that O'Toole struck Slusser. He hit him in the face. I saw him strike other persons also. He struck me on the bar-room that evening. He was drunk and wanted to fight and tried to provoke a quarrel with Slusser and Benny Sanford. I saw him on the street after supper near the corner of the nine-pin alley talking with Anna Ward. It was the hall door I tried to get out but could not. I was standing there and would not let me go. I did not hear O'Toole say anything about it but it was locked. Then I went back into the sitting room. Joe came in while I was there. Did not hear what he said but saw something in his hand that I took to be a knife. I did not hear him say anything about it before the fight. After I came back from the station house I examined the ground to see if there was blood, but could not see any that night. I saw blood on the pavement next morning. It was all bright red.

The venerable Christopher Arthur, of Clear Creek, has been quite unwell, but is slowly recovering.

Mr. J. F. Bowles, of Martinsburg, Meigs county, spent several days last week with relatives in this city.

Mr. Edward F. Garrett, of Louisville, Ky., spent several days last week at his parents, near Bainsboro.

Mr. Ess has sold the Bainsbridge Courier to Messrs. Rumble and Buehler, who took charge of the paper last week.

A large number of people in Hillsboro have heard Hon. Will Cumbach lecture at other places. They are all loud in praise.

Owing to the great length of the examination in the Slusser case, much of our correspondence and other local matter is crowded out.

Only three notices of Mrs. Rebecca Conard and Miss Lida J. Paris are unavoidably crowded out this week, but will appear in our next.

Our carrier boy, Master Dickey Ames, requests us to return his thanks to his patrons for their liberal patronage on New Year's Day.

Mr. Stanley J. Bri ton, who is attending College at Delaware, spent the holidays at his home near Willetsville, returning to school last Monday.

Miss Belle Hanley, of East South street, left on New Year's day for Dayton, O., where she will remain for several months, the guest of her sister.

THE O'TOOLE STABBING CASE.

EXAMINATION OF SLUSSER BEFORE MAYOR HARMAN.

He is Committed to Jail on the Charge of Murder in the First Degree.

(Reported for the News by Mr. Charles Bowles.)

Preliminary trial of Joe Slusser for the killing of Frank O'Toole on the evening of December 25th, 1884. Before Mayor Harman.

FINDING.—The first witness called was Frank Clark, who testified as follows:—I live in Hillsboro, work at the foundry, board at the Jefferson House. Was there on the night of the 25th of December. Was in the house when O'Toole was killed. I saw O'Toole and Slusser together in the room back of the bar. I did not see the difficulty and know nothing about it. I saw O'Toole strike Slusser in the afternoon before supper. We had supper about 5 o'clock. After he slapped Slusser Koch sent for the marshal, who came and took O'Toole away. That was the last I saw of him before the fight. Benny Sanford was there and a mechanic who used to work at the foundry. I saw Slusser that evening about five or ten minutes after the fight. Did not hear him say anything. He was talking to the engineer and foreman of the narrow gauge and Benny Sanford. I saw nothing in his hand that looked like a knife, but did not hear him say anything about it. I found out that there had been a fight and I wanted to get out. I went to the front door and tried to get out but could not. Afterwards I went out to Main street and the officers carrying Slusser to the station-house. They carried him all the way to the station-house. I went around there and learned who it was. I did not know before.

Cross-examination.—The first I heard of the difficulty was after it had occurred. I did not see O'Toole until after the murder at the Jefferson House. O'Toole and Slusser were with them. O'Toole picked up a plate and threw it over towards Slusser and knocked down two or three glasses. Slusser then got up and walked out into the street. I saw before the fact that O'Toole struck Slusser. He hit him in the face. I saw him strike other persons also. He struck me on the bar-room that evening. He was drunk and wanted to fight and tried to provoke a quarrel with Slusser and Benny Sanford. I saw him on the street after supper near the corner of the nine-pin alley talking with Anna Ward. It was the hall door I tried to get out but could not. I was standing there and would not let me go. I did not hear O'Toole say anything about it but it was locked. Then I went back into the sitting room. Joe came in while I was there. Did not hear what he said but saw something in his hand that I took to be a knife. I did not hear him say anything about it before the fight. After I came back from the station house I examined the ground to see if there was blood, but could not see any that night. I saw blood on the pavement next morning. It was all bright red.

The venerable Christopher Arthur, of Clear Creek, has been quite unwell, but is slowly recovering.

Mr. J. F. Bowles, of Martinsburg, Meigs county, spent several days last week with relatives in this city.

Mr. Edward F. Garrett, of Louisville, Ky., spent several days last week at his parents, near Bainsboro.

Mr. Ess has sold the Bainsbridge Courier to Messrs. Rumble and Buehler, who took charge of the paper last week.

A large number of people in Hillsboro have heard Hon. Will Cumbach lecture at other places. They are all loud in praise.

Owing to the great length of the examination in the Slusser case, much of our correspondence and other local matter is crowded out.

Only three notices of Mrs. Rebecca Conard and Miss Lida J. Paris are unavoidably crowded out this week, but will appear in our next.

Our carrier boy, Master Dickey Ames, requests us to return his thanks to his patrons for their liberal patronage on New Year's Day.

Mr. Stanley J. Bri ton, who is attending College at Delaware, spent the holidays at his home near Willetsville, returning to school last Monday.

Miss Belle Hanley, of East South street, left on New Year's day for Dayton, O., where she will remain for several months, the guest of her sister.

THE O'TOOLE STABBING CASE.

EXAMINATION OF SLUSSER BEFORE MAYOR HARMAN.

He is Committed to Jail on the Charge of Murder in the First Degree.

(Reported for the News by Mr. Charles Bowles.)

Preliminary trial of Joe Slusser for the killing of Frank O'Toole on the evening of December 25th, 1884. Before Mayor Harman.

FINDING.—The first witness called was Frank Clark, who testified as follows:—I live in Hillsboro, work at the foundry, board at the Jefferson House. Was there on the night of the 25th of December. Was in the house when O'Toole was killed. I saw O'Toole and Slusser together in the room back of the bar. I did not see the difficulty and know nothing about it. I saw O'Toole strike Slusser in the afternoon before supper. We had supper about 5 o'clock. After he slapped Slusser Koch sent for the marshal, who came and took O'Toole away. That was the last I saw of him before the fight. Benny Sanford was there and a mechanic who used to work at the foundry. I saw Slusser that evening about five or ten minutes after the fight. Did not hear him say anything. He was talking to the engineer and foreman of the narrow gauge and Benny Sanford. I saw nothing in his hand that looked like a knife, but did not hear him say anything about it. I found out that there had been a fight and I wanted to get out. I went to the front door and tried to get out but could not. Afterwards I went out to Main street and the officers carrying Slusser to the station-house. They carried him all the way to the station-house. I went around there and learned who it was. I did not know before.

Cross-examination.—The first I heard of the difficulty was after it had occurred. I did not see O'Toole until after the murder at the Jefferson House. O'Toole and Slusser were with them. O'Toole picked up a plate and threw it over towards Slusser and knocked down two or three glasses. Slusser then got up and walked out into the street. I saw before the fact that O'Toole struck Slusser. He hit him in the face. I saw him strike other persons also. He struck me on the bar-room that evening. He was drunk and wanted to fight and tried to provoke a quarrel with Slusser and Benny Sanford. I saw him on the street after supper near the corner of the nine-pin alley talking with Anna Ward. It was the hall door I tried to get out but could not. I was standing there and would not let me go. I did not hear O'Toole say anything about it but it was locked. Then I went back into the sitting room. Joe came in while I was there. Did not hear what he said but saw something in his hand that I took to be a knife. I did not hear him say anything about it before the fight. After I came back from the station house I examined the ground to see if there was blood, but could not see any that night. I saw blood on the pavement next morning. It was all bright red.

The venerable Christopher Arthur, of Clear Creek, has been quite unwell, but is slowly recovering.

Mr. J. F. Bowles, of Martinsburg, Meigs county, spent several days last week with relatives in this city.

Mr. Edward F. Garrett, of Louisville, Ky., spent several days last week at his parents, near Bainsboro.

Mr. Ess has sold the Bainsbridge Courier to Messrs. Rumble and Buehler, who took charge of the paper last week.

A large number of people in Hillsboro have heard Hon. Will Cumbach lecture at other places. They are all loud in praise.

Owing to the great length of the examination in the Slusser case, much of our correspondence and other local matter is crowded out.

Only three notices of Mrs. Rebecca Conard and Miss Lida J. Paris are unavoidably crowded out this week, but will appear in our next.

Our carrier boy, Master Dickey Ames, requests us to return his thanks to his patrons for their liberal patronage on New Year's Day.

Mr. Stanley J. Bri ton, who is attending College at Delaware, spent the holidays at his home near Willetsville, returning to school last Monday.

Miss Belle Hanley, of East South street, left on New Year's day for Dayton, O., where she will remain for several months, the guest of her sister.

FOR A FASHIONABLE SUIT SEE CLARK & CO. HES, CLARK & CO. J. G. COOK, THE FASHIONABLE TAILOR GREENFIELD.