

The Highland News.

HILLSBORO, OHIO:

Wednesday, Jan. 26, '85.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Sec. W. BARRETT, City Editor.

Slightly disfigured but still in the ring. Third entertainment of the Drum Corps.

Meigs-Underhill Concert Company, Music Hall, Monday, Feb. 9.

The Meigs-Underhill Combination spent several days at Chautauque this season, to the delight of our great audiences.

Try Langdon's City Butter Crackers.

Remember Febel's great clearance sale.

Winter goods nearly given away at Febel's.

Two weeks from next Saturday is St. Valentine's Day.

Read what Febel offers in his advertisement in this paper.

Mr. N. Rookhold is lying very low with congestion of the lungs.

The News returns thanks to Mrs. W. V. White for New Orleans papers.

Miss Ella McFarley will leave next Friday for Oxford, Ohio, to attend school.

Mr. James Forker, of Cincinnati, spent several days of last week in this city.

Hon. H. L. Dickey and Mayor Irwin, of Greenfield, are in attendance at Court.

Febel means business. He is determined to close out his winter goods at any price.

Meetings will be held at the Presbyterian Church every morning and evening this week.

Rev. Dr. McSorely again talked to the gentlemen last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Hillsboro Female College has engaged the services of Mrs. Ulric Sloane as music teacher.

Superintendent Greene, of the Children's Home, Cincinnati, was in our city several days last week.

Quarterly Meeting services will be held at the Wesleyan Methodist Church next Saturday and Sunday.

Miss E. L. Grand-Girard returned last Thursday from Eckmanville, accompanied by her niece, Miss Emma.

Mrs. Jessie Trout, of Lafayette, Ohio, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Reese, on West Main street.

Judge Higgins, who has been looking after his agricultural interests in Indiana, returned home Saturday night.

The meetings at the M. E. Church will be continued through this week. Meetings are held both morning and evening.

Mr. John W. Quinn fell last Wednesday evening on the icy door step of the store, breaking his leg and spraining his ankle.

Corn, oats, shipstiff and mill feed for sale at depot, Walker & Elliott's warehouse, by C. B. MULLA.

Mr. Abraham Conard, of near New Lexington, and brother of Mr. Enos Conard, of this place, is lying very low, and is not expected to recover.

Capt. J. M. Hiestand is at the bedside of his father, Mr. Samuel Hiestand, of Sinking Springs, who is quite sick, and whose recovery is doubtful.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will meet next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Mademoiselle Rosier, of Worcester, Mass., has been engaged as teacher of French at the College, and no extra tuition is charged for that branch.

The Young Men's Republican Club will hold a meeting on Tuesday night of next week at their new rooms over Holmes & Bro.'s furniture store. Everybody invited.

Mr. O. H. Greene, of Richmond, Indiana, has secured the Musio Hall, and will start up a skating rink as soon as a new floor is laid, that being one of the conditions by which he secured the hall for that purpose.

Mrs. A. Gullon, of Loveland, was visiting friends here last week. Her husband, who is an engineer on the C. W. & B. railroad, has almost recovered from the injuries he received by a recent accident at Loveland.

Out of a population of something over 4,000 people at Hillsboro, but seventy-five persons were present to hear Will Cumbark lecture there the other night. Always been said that Hillsboro was the best show and lecture town in the State.—Greenfield Enterprise.

Among the aspirants for the Post Office in this city is Col. Cary T. Pope. Col. Pope is an accomplished gentleman, was a brave soldier, and should be given the appointment without a doubt. He is well known to the satisfaction of the public at large.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Hillsboro Telegraph Company, J. H. Richards, F. F. Kibler and C. M. Overman were elected directors for the ensuing year. The officers elected were: J. H. Richards, President; C. M. Overman, Treasurer and F. F. Kibler, Secretary.

The Young Men's Republican Club held a very interesting meeting at the Court House on Tuesday night of last week, at which remarks were made by Messrs. Parry, Bell, and Gardner. ... For the News. ... Valuable Farm for Sale. ... The health is generally good. ... STRAUSBERG. ... DANVILLE. ... BRILLIANTS. ... PRICETOWN. ... TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE.

MINNESOTA. Its Productions, Health, Wealth, Soil, Home, etc., etc. For the News. ... Court of Common Pleas. ... COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

country, are feeling the depression of the past season; but it is a question whether this is not just the time to profitably come West to invest in a home. ... Unclaimed Letters. ... CORRESPONDENCE.

LITTLETON. ... STRAUSBERG. ... DANVILLE. ... PRICETOWN. ... TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE.

Unclaimed Letters. ... CORRESPONDENCE. ... LITTLETON. ... STRAUSBERG. ... DANVILLE. ... PRICETOWN. ... TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE.

Unclaimed Letters. ... CORRESPONDENCE. ... LITTLETON. ... STRAUSBERG. ... DANVILLE. ... PRICETOWN. ... TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE.

LEESBURG

Saturday, January 24, 1885.

Mr. Riser's baby is quite sick with lung fever. ... Mrs. J. R. Riser's baby is quite sick with lung fever. ... Mr. J. R. Riser's baby is quite sick with lung fever.

GREENFIELD

Monday, January 26, 1885.

Mrs. Chas. E. Bell entertained a number of lady friends on Friday evening. ... Mr. J. M. Hiestand is at the bedside of his father, Mr. Samuel Hiestand, of Sinking Springs, who is quite sick, and whose recovery is doubtful.

BELFAST

January 24th, 1885.

There was a spelling and reading school at Pleasant school last night.

MARRIED

HAWK-McLAUGHLIN-On the 22d of January, 1885, at the residence of the officiating minister, J. W. Ricks, Mr. George W. Hawk and Miss Amanda J. McLaughlin, all of Hamer township, Highland county, Ohio.