THE CROPS OF THE GREAT WEST. Bound for the Golden State. APANOSSE, KAN., July 23rd, 1885. Having been intimately connected with the work of the editor, who recently retired from editorial work, we feel sorry to part with him in that way...

THE PENSION DEPARTMENT. The implied charges against General Wilcox, Pension Agent at Columbus, are without foundation. The charge made by the Register correspondent is a malicious one and is made against the official conduct of Gen. Wilcox.

VOX POPULI As Proclaimed by the Press. An Hour with Exchanges. Surprises All Around. Mr. Cleveland is said to be fond of surprising people by making unexpected appointments and then chucking over the appointments excited by the news.

Two Volcanoes of Tilden's Book. The speeches and writings of Samuel J. Tilden are to be collected and published. It is supposed that at least one volume will be required for his able and extensive declinations of the Presidency, and another for the famous cipher dispatches.

Explained for the Democrats. The Democrats can not see how a little matter of $20,000 due on the Dolphin should embarrass and ruin in a legal way, however, that is not the question.

Coal Oil and Reform. Jerry Malroy, one of the Biddle's Bone's managers, we suppose will pose as a martyr. When he was arrested for stealing a $1.50 dog, he should have been prosecuted instead of fined $25.

Running State Elections. It is to be true—and Democratic papers my it is—that Governor Hoadly has been induced to take the race again by promises of administration support, then the administration is doing that which the Democratic party has been denouncing for twenty-four years.

Beware of the Buzz Saw. It has recently been demonstrated that a bear, always a rough and tough customer, is no match for a buzz saw, when it is under full headway.

There is no Excuse. It is useless to attempt to apologize for Governor Hoadly's scandalous delay in making appropriate recognition of the death of General Grant.

Not So. The Volksblatt, the leading German paper of Ohio, recently publishes, through the editor, a notice of support for the Democratic party.

Democracy Mismangement. The mismanagement of the Penitentiary under its present Democratic control is costing the taxpayers of Ohio thousands of dollars every month.

A Party Opposed to Freedom. The Democratic party is in power to-day because colored citizens in the South are not permitted to vote, and a white man's vote there counts twice as much as one in the North.

Republicans Mean Business. The back-bone of the Republicans throughout the State is up. No one talking the rank and file mean business, and the political party can make up its mind that it has not been called by the people.

Probate Court. Will of John Rogers admitted to probate. Elizabeth Rogers accepts under the will of her husband John Rogers.

Real Estate Transfers. Nancy V. Ellis and others to E. A. Mosier, 1-10 of 206 9-1/2 acres $450.

How the Boojums went Down the Crater. By Ten of the Boojums, is the singular title of a story of adventure in the superb midsummer Wild Adventure.

Blissful News. The most deadly foe to all malarial diseases is Ayer's Cure, a combination of vegetable ingredients only, of which the most valuable is used in no other known preparation.
