

Eruptions

Dry, moist, scaly, letter, all forms of eczema or salt rheum, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions proceed from humors, either inherited, or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation.

To treat these eruptions with drying medicines is dangerous. The thing to do is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Which thoroughly cleanse the blood, expelling all humors and building up the whole system. They cure Hood's Sarsaparilla permanently cured J. G. Hines, Frank H. of eczema, from which he had suffered for some time; and Miss Alvina Wolter, Box 212, Akron, Wis., of pimples on her face and back and chafed skin on her body, by which she had been greatly troubled. There are more testimonials in favor of Hood's than can be published.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

CAUGHT

The Man She Wanted.

Sat On Him and Yelled "Police."

Girl Captured a Robber After a Hot Chase.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Miss Mary Cull pursued a thief almost two blocks through crowded thoroughfares Friday, overtook the man, knocked him down, and sat on him till a policeman arrived.

Miss Cull, accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth Friedley, was waiting at Van Buren and State sts. for a car. Mrs. Friedley carried a purse containing $20 and the thief seized it and ran. Miss Cull dropped her packages and started in swift pursuit, the thief having taken the middle of the street between the car tracks as his course. Hundreds of persons who saw the chase stood in wonder at the speed exhibited by the young woman.

She gained on the robber at every jump, soon overtook him and at once began punning him. The robber was too weary to fight back and a blow from the girl's fist sent him to the ground. Miss Cull then stood over the fellow until a policeman came along.

HATCHET

Used by Mrs. Duker

Her Husband Declared In Police Court.

Not only has the married life of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duker, white and colored, respectively, been full of lumps and bad places, but the condition has often reached a stage where Mrs. Duker has been impelled to get the law after her husband. Things reached an especially stormy stage Friday night at the hotel on Canal st., where the two have been living. When the smoke had cleared away one side of Mrs. Duker's face was bleeding and badly swollen, and her leg's left ear was cut. Duker was arrested charged with assault and battery.

In Police court Mrs. Duker testified that they had had much trouble. Duker claimed that the woman had attacked him with a hatchet. The Mayor told Duker to "shut up," when he attempted to explain, and imposed a sentence of $25 and costs.

THE BALDWIN PIANO

THE STANDARD OF THE WORLD

THE Baldwin piano has recently been paid a compliment of the highest character, which is all the more valuable as no amount of money could have secured it.

In the supplementary edition of the "Encyclopaedia Britannica," which consists of some eleven volumes, and which, with the twenty-five already issued, form the tenth edition of this great and memorable work, under the article devoted to furniture, one of the artistic Baldwin pianos, exhibited by the Baldwin Co. at the Paris Exposition, is taken to illustrate the great advance in taste and culture. This selection of the Baldwin piano, as the representative, not alone of American art manufactures, but of the art manufactures of the world, is recognition of the artistic lines on which the Baldwin house is working. This is significant, especially, as no amount of influence or money could have secured such a recognition in the work of the character and standing of this encyclopaedia. Not alone does the Baldwin piano appear in the work itself, but it has been selected as one of the typical illustrations in the very extensive and highly artistic circular gotten out to advertise the encyclopaedia, which circular consists of several hundred pages, beautifully illustrated with colored and other plates.
