THOMAS

Talked of an Arrest.

Result of the Sensational Charges Made

Against Him by Mr. W. Clarence Findley.

He Called up Chief of Police Harrison.

The Affidavit Has Not Been Filed—Another Meeting.

The heated controversy of Prof. R. S. Thomas and W. Clarence Findley at the High school Monday night has created no end of excitement. An exclusive account of this side session of the investigating committee was printed in Tuesday's DEMOCRAT. Mr. Findley's ire was aroused because of certain statements which he alleged the superintendent had made. The last named denied the charges. Mr. Findley thereupon told him point blank that he was a "liar." After the meeting of the investigating committee Prof. Thomas called Chief of Police Harrison by telephone. He asked what steps he could take to have a warrant issued for the arrest of Mr. Findley. He intimated that he intended to take action in the matter. Mr. Findley was informed by friends of the proposed move of the Superintendent. He immediately called up the city authorities and gave his side of the story. He told Chief Harrison that it would not be necessary to serve the warrant if it was issued. He asked that he be notified if Prof. Thomas filed an affidavit, giving the official assurance that he would immediately report. At the time of going to press the affidavit had not been filed.

Another session of the investigating committee will be held tonight at the High school. The action taken by the Board Tuesday night in restoring Prof. Glover's salary and re-instating Mrs. Sproul is looked upon as a decided victory for the anti-Thomas members. Those who are carrying on the prosecution of the charges say that the report of the committee will be a unanimous one.

REFUSED

To Grant the Local Lodge of Elks

Permission to Use the Perkins School Grounds—A Protest.

The Board of Education last night refused to grant the Elks the use of the Perkins school yard for its street fair.

About 20 Elks were present. Mayor Young stated their mission. He said Hon. Geo. W. Crouse was to make the address. Mr. Crouse in his opening remarks said he was deeply interested in the business of the Board. Mr. Crouse asked for permission for the Elks to use the Perkins school yard for a street fair was followed by Mayor W. E. Young, Auditor L. E. Sisler and Will T. Tobin. Mr. Emil Gammeter, in behalf of the property owners near Perkins park, protested against granting the request as did also Alvin Hawn of West Buchtel av.

President Inman stated that the attorney general might come onto the board, if the request was granted. The report of the grounds committee, not to grant the Elks permission to use the school yard, carried. Earlier in the evening a communication was read, which was sent in by Mrs. W. C. Findley, chairman of the Woman's Circle committee, chairman of the school room decoration committee, and vice president of the Woman's Council. She protested vigorously against granting the Elks permission to use the school yard, saying that the Elks were doing more to demoralize the young people than any other organization in the city. Also that the midway would start the children on the downward path and that many children received their first lessons in gambling last year at the street fair.

BULL PUP

Cuts a Big Figure In This Law Suit.

Brothers-in-law Have a Complicated Difference to Settle.

When a few months ago Wm. Galvin loaned to his brother-in-law, Patrick Scully, a gasoline stove, and the latter loaned to the former a bull pup, there were no better friends in Akron than these two men. Since, however, things have gone different.

On Saturday, June 10, a replevin suit will be heard in Justice Thomas' court. The plaintiff will be Galvin; the defendant, Scully. Galvin wants the stove; Scully wants the bull pup, and besides that there's threats of hanging hand-painted pictures under the eyes of two men. These two men are Galvin and Scully. Each will clean out the other.

The case, too, is complicated. Scully claims the stove was given him by Galvin. He also wants the pup, which he claims Galvin gave to his father. Now the pup is extensively absent, hence Scully's countercharge.

Good legal talent will handle the case, and an interesting suit is promised.
