

THE SWEET LITTLE MAN.

Now, while our soldiers are fighting our battles...

All the brave boys under canvas are sleeping...

You with the terrible warlike mustaches...

Bring him the buttoned garments of women!

Give him for escort a file of young misses!

Each of them armed with a dainty rattle!

They shall defend him from laughter and hisses...

All the fair maids about him shall cheer...

Make him a plume like a turkey wing whister...

O, but the Apron-string Guards are the fellows!

That is the style for the sweet little man.

Have we a nation to save? In the first place...

Where in the world is the sweet little man?

Such was the stuff of the Malakoff towers.

Such were the soldiers that sealed the Roman!
