Perrysburg Journal.

A ROMAN CATHOLIC VIEW.

Bronson's Quarterly on Rebellion and Emancipation.

An Eloquent and Unanswerable Argument. We referred some days since to an article in the October number of Bronson's Quarterly Review.

S. W. H. BAY, T. W. HUTCHINSON, J. P. PILLARS, D. W. HITCHCOCK & PILLARS.

THE SLAVE POPULATION. This brings us to the question of the slave population in the rebellious States.

SLAVE LABOR AND FREE LABOR. The present rebellion provokes thought.

THE BROTHER STATES AND FREEDOM. But if it be required to treat them as free and loyal citizens by the military operations for the preservation of the Union.

THE WAR A SERIOUS MATTER. It is no time to mimic our words or to study out buried phrases; we must call things by their right names.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE, especially of the North, are a susceptible people, and can feel and respond to the force of genius as readily as to the force of arms.

EMANCIPATION. But we have referred only to the slaves in the rebellious States, and if it is or it becomes a military necessity to liberate all the slaves of the Union.

THE GAINS OF LIBERTY. If this prove a disadvantage to the Southern States, owing to the peculiar character of their laboring population.

THE K. K. C. in Ohio. The Ohio State Journal publishes the account of the breaking up a castle of the Knights of the Golden Circle.

and, wherever it remains it will be a inferior element, but far less so as free, than the whole.

Moreover, it would not only bring to the assistance of the Federal arms the co-operation of the whole colored race in the Union, but would assure us, that we now lack, the sympathy and the moral aid of the whole civilized world.

More than one hundred to two hundred thousand brave and stalwart volunteers from the free States—aye, and even many from the slave States themselves—who will not and cannot be induced to volunteer their service in a war which, even if successful, promise to leave the institution of slavery not only existing, but more firmly established.

It seems to us, then, highly important, in every possible view of the case, that the Federal Government should at once seize the opportunity given it by the Southern rebellion to perform this act of justice to the negro race.

How ever homogeneous in race or character, habits or manners, may be the people of a country in the outset, they separate and grow gradually into two distinct peoples.

But if it be required to treat them as free and loyal citizens by the military operations for the preservation of the Union, it will be necessary to liberate all the slaves of the Union.
