SERAGE'S.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS

Monday was voting day.

This is amusement week.

It is now landlord Wilcox.

Time for promenading.

The fish peddler is on hand.

The almanac says it is spring.

Our school folks are rusticating.

The Park house supports a new sign.

Pack up the sap pails and sugar fixtures.

The farmers have sown their early spring crops.

The forest will soon put on its summer dress.

It is now councilmen-elect F. W. Bennett.

South Main street is to be improved the present season.

Some very fine bred horses have appeared on our streets,

A heavy fall of rain visited us Saturday night and Sunday.

We now have three councilmen who reside on the same street.

The fur animals can now have a little peace until next November.

Read the pointers given by the business men in the advertising columns.

Esq. W. E. Peirce will preside at the helm of justice for the coming three years.

Our correspondents have given the names of the officials selected in their vicinities for the coming year.

There will be a walking match in the town hall Saturday evening for one hundred dollars a side. Admittance 25c.

The assessor will be on hand next week to look after the surplus wealth. Don't forget the story of George and the hatchet.

Bulletin boards are distributed over the school grounds inscribed "Keep off the Grass." The park should be served likewise.

The automatic switch at the crossings gets out of order now semi-occasionally. The fast trains are now compelled to come to a full stop.

The painter and paper hanger are the busy tradesmen just at present. A number of rooms will shine with spring goods within the next fortnight.

The regular monthly convening of the council will not be held until Monday evening, April 15, when the new members elect will present their certificates and be sworn in.

Our people who have just returned from Salt Lake and points in California report a beautiful country and fine opportunities to make investments which will surely pay in a very few years.

The fire department was called out Monday afternoon to answer an alarm given from Mill street, but the fire was extinguished before it arrived, consequently their services were not needed.

Station Agent Fisher thinks the prospects good for a new passenger station house to be erected here this season. The company are overhauling the one at New London where they transact about one-eleventh part as much business as here.

Stanley Wilcox took charge of the American house Monday morning at 8 o'clock. Mr. Perry Wright, of Greenwich, was on hand to look after the duties pertaining to clerkship. Mrs. Dickerman left for Medina on the morning train, she having served the public for the past two years. Here is our ☞ to the new management for success.

Mr. M. L. Wadsworth died at his residence on Tuesday evening about 10:30 His death was very sudden, he being sick only a few hours. He was one of the oldest inhabitants of this village, being 81 years and 6 months of age. The time of funeral had not been announced at time of our going to press.

The town clock has not been of any benefit to the public for many months. Mr Wight, the jeweler, informs us that the clock is good for forty years of actual service if kept running and properly cared for. The council have declined to appropriate any funds for the care of it, claiming they had no authority. We hope that the incoming council will take the matter in hand and appropriate money and set the clock to going, and if any tax-payer complains, his portion shall be remitted to him. An intelligent public are not likely to enter a protest against any appropriation of money for a public benefit and of so small amount as it would require to keep a public timepiece moving and in repair.

Attend the concert at the Cong'l church Monday evening.

The usual amount of gas has been found in the east side gas well.

The milk routers started on their eight months voyage Monday.

The roof on the town hall needs repairing a little to save leaks.

A. D. Garrett has returned to reside on his farm in Spencer township.

Quite a projection is observed in the spring styles of hats for the ladies.

The new hack line is carrying the mail to and from the W. & L. E. depot.

We regret to announce to our readers the death of Dr. James Rust, which occurred this morning at 5 o'clock. He was taken sick last Thursday morning with a chill which developed a pneumonia of such extent and severity as promised to be fatal from the first. The Doctor has been a resident of Wellington from the beginning of his active life, and has been engaged in the practice of medicine for about forty-five years, and in that relation had formed an extensive acquaintance and endeared himself to a large circle of friends who with us will regret his sudden and untimely death. His family and friends will have the sincerest sympathy of this entire community. Funeral services will be held at his late residence, Friday at 3 p. m.

Friday we paid our annual visit to Spencer, but on account of the severe storm we were able to call upon but very few. Since our last visit marked improvements have been made. The Union School building with three apartments and under the immediate supervision of Mr J. M. Seaton as superintendent, is a nice commodious building with all of the modern improvements and is indeed an ornament to the town. Mr. Fred Grissinger has erected a fine business room in the south west corner of the square, and with this building the corners of the square are all built up. Mr. C. W. Aldrich has completed a fine residence near the depot, aside from numerous other improvements which we are unable to mention. The principal manufacturing interests are C. W. Hemenway & Son, hardwood dealers, and Miller & Auble, flour and feed. The former firm established their plant seven years ago and by careful and judicious management have gradually increased their business each year until they now reach all of the important cities in the country with their goods. On account of the timber being so accessible they were not compelled to shut down one day on account of logs during the recent rainy season. Chief Justice Daugherty's court was in session at the town hall The case was neighbor versus neighbor about a house. We did not wait to learn the decision of his honor but presume to say it was according to the old time precedents, in favor of the plaintiff and the defendant to pay half the costs. Notwithstanding the law suit the horse was able to take its rations on Saturday. The post-office pot has began to boil as there are three candidates in the field and from reports the prospects for each is constantly growing brighter. The town is now large enough to be incorporated in order that new side walks could be ordered constructed and other needed improvements. The Union hotel under the management of Mr. I. L. Ream appears to be will patronized. Our visit was a very pleasant one and we hope to be able to return in the near future, when the weather is more favorable for we have a fine list of subscribers there now and we expect to be able to increase the number. Our next visit will be to Brighton on Friday of this week.

Church Notes and Announcements

Our divines have been discussing the subject of a perfect man of late. There certainly could be no more proper subject to discuss. If we are perfect in the sight of our maker that is all that will be required of us

Brigadier Britton, of Cleveland, will visit the Salvation Army here Friday evening. A good attendance is desired.

Evening service in the churches will now commence at half past seven o'clock.

Business Notes and Changes.

A. M. Atkinson is assisting at R. S. Hollenbach's.

A. P. Dimock will occupy A. H. Palmer's old grocery stand with his cigar factory.

Burt Daugherty is with L. H. Davidson hardware dealer, Cleveland, for the present.

F. E. Wilder will open a new meat market in the room recently vacated by C. A. Faxon on North Main street.

A bran new hack line to convey passengers about town and to and from the depots was placed on the road Monday by Sutliff & Barrett.

We notice in Husted's window a crayon portrait of Amos Foote deceased, made by Chas. Pyke, successor to Sawtelle. It is all hand work and most life-like in expression and fine in finish.

Miss A. G. Swanger, of Bucyrus, Ohio, has opened a new millinery store in the room formerly occupied by the Citizens Mutual Relief Association. The room has been recently refitted in the very latest artistic style which makes a No. 1 location for a business room of the kind. Monday afternoon we called to witness the opening and found an elegant line of goods artistically displayed and the visitors present were improving their time viewing the very latest eastern spring styles. Miss Swaiger has come to be one of our number and the road to succes in business appears to be certain if properly looked after.

The 1st of April finds all of our manufacturing interests running in full blast and with bright prospects for a good trade for the season. The Wellington Bending Works has been operated with a full force during the winter and their trade for 1888 far exceeds that of '87. W.R. Santley & Co. were compelled to close up their works during the rainy season but they are now running with a full force with plenty of orders. Bennett Bros. & Co. are now busily engaged in the manufacture of brick machines to fill the orders for the present season aside from the local trade which consists of all kinds of castings for general use. The plaining mill of D. L. Wadsworth has an increased number of orders to fill over corresponding date of last year. The local lumber trade has just began to open. H. Wadsworth & Son, lumber dealers and planing mill also Phelps Bros., manufactures of riddle rims, are running on full time and the prospects are good for the season. C. V. Hemenway, manfacturer of brick and tile, has an increased force and increased facilities over previous seasons as he expects to manufacture half a million more brick than ever before in the same length of time.

School Report for March.

Below will be found our monthly report of the schools for March. It shows a marked improvement over last month in all respects.

By the report it will be seen that there were enrolled during the month 428 pupils, average per cent. of daily attendance, 9.75; one case of tardiness and 252 present every day in the month, as compared with 290 for last month.

The average of the term's work, including daily recitations, term examinations and deportment, gave first grade or red cards to 238 pupils, a larger proportion than usual. In proportion to enrollment, the C Grammar school has first place for perfect attendance and the A Grammar for red cards. Up to date this year, 482 pupils have been enrolled in all the schools, a few more than for the first two terms of last year.

R. H. KINNISON, Supt.

The Caucus and Election.

Saturday evening quite a large crowd convened at the mayor's court-room to place in nomination suitable persons to fill the various offices for the township, corporation and union school district. Mayor Husted was called to the chair and R. N. Goodwin was chosed secretary. The following named gentlemen were nominated without any opposition: The township, Trustee, H. Allyn; Assessor, R. N. Goodwin; Treasurer, Calvin Sage; Justice Peace, W. E. Peirce; Corporation, Councilmen, M. W Lang, F. W. Bennett, J. M. Otterbacher: Cemetery Trustee, Wm. Vischer; School Board, Wm Cushion, jr, S. Windecker. The result at the polls: Allyn 226, C. Sage 227, Goodwin 224, Peirce 226, for supervisors, Grove Hawk 21, M L Bush 15, Lucius Herrick 8, L F Clifford 11, H O Barber 1, R S Peck 4. School Board, Cushion 212, Windecker 213. Corporation, Lang 223. Bennett 145 Otterbacher 138, Vischer 226.

There being no choice for supervisor the trustees will probably appoint.

There were sixty seven votes cast for C. N. Christie and S. B. Emerson for members of the council in place of Otterbacher and Bennett but only fifteen of them were counted on account of the irregularity of the ticket. Very little enthusiasm was manifested during the day here. The spring election of 1889 was a very tame affair.

Amusements.

"The Legal Document" company appeared at the Opera House Friday and Saturday evenings with Edwin Barbour and Miss Alice Kemp in the leading roles, supported by a fine company. Mr Barbour is a first-class comedian and as the city lawyer kept his audience in a continuous roar of laughter.

Owing to a misunderstanding with the manager of one of the Cleveland theaters they canceled their engagement in that city and concluded to remain with us five nights this week before leaving for Minneapolis, where they open on the 8th. Accordingly on Monday evening they appeared before a fine audience in "Joshua Whitcomb," with Mr. Barbour as Josh, and presented it in an admirable manner and were well received. Tuesday evening they presented the Irish comedy, "Kathleen Mavourneen," with general satisfaction. To-night they give the new dramatization of Tennyson's beautiful poem Dora entitled "The Outcast," and little Florine will appear in "The Burglar's Child." Thursday evening they offer the ladies a rare opportunity. Each gentleman buying a reserved seat ticket will be given one free for his lady to witness the beautiful drama "East Lynne." Friday night "Uncle Tom's Cabin," in which the two finely trained Siberian bloodhounds take an active part. Don't fail to see this excellent company of ladies and gentlemen.
