FRANCES A. BENEDICT. CLARA B. ARNER.

Here is one of those who are either so prejudiced against all advertised remedies, or have become discouraged at the failure of other medicines to help them, and who will succumb to the grim destroyer without knowing of the wonderful value of Foley's Honey and Tar for all Throat and Lung troubles.

W. H. TISSOT & CO.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs G. H. Palmer next Tuesday, June 6th at 2:30 p. m.

The Wellington Poultry Club at its meeting last week at the voting room, took in five new members.

The character sketches of distinguished men personally known to Captain and Chaplain Pepper, in this country, England, and Europe, form one of the great attractions of his last book, "Under Three Flags." The illustrations and mechanical quality of the large volume are all that could be desired for this graphic outline of a life of great activity and usefulness. This volume should be in our Public Library.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. George S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by Near & Wells.

STRANGE, BUT TRUE.

It may seem strange, but it is a fact, that we can send you the Farm Journal for the balance of 1899 and all of 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903, nearly five years if you will pay for the Enterprise one year ahead - both papers for just the price of ours. Whether you can reap the advantages of this surprising offer depends on how soon you come forward with the cash.

PEPPER'S LECTURE.

The lecture of Chaplain Geo. W. Pepper at the Opera House on Monday evening on "Sherman's March to the Sea", was not attended by as large a crowd as could have been wished.

Those who did attend and were so situated as to hear what the speaker said were well repaid for their trouble.

The invalid condition of the speaker was an unfortunate circumstance, requiring him to be seated while talking, and this with some slight vocal impediment increased the effort required on the part of the hearer to catch the sentences as they fell. To the veterans present who could follow the speaker from point to point in the grand old march to the sea from its inception to its termination, it was a grand treat.

The incidents of that historic march were brought out with thrilling effect by the orator, and many of them were singularly touching and impressive. It is well enough to live those days over again, but only "in your mind".
