

Well-Dressed Men Wear The D. H. & Co. Clothing.

PROPER FASHIONS FALL & WINTER 1899-1900 MICHAEL S. STERN & CO.

The public have been in the habit of looking to us for the proper styles in men's wearing apparel. Each season we have shown that which is newest and best.

Our exhibit for the coming season is really the most interesting which we have ever made.

If you buy a suit or overcoat bearing the D. H. & Co. label, you are safe, because fabric, triniting, sewing and tailoring are all perfect.

We recommend honest, well-made garments, for we know they are the only kind with which to build a permanent business.

We can assure you there is no better ready-to-wear clothing, and as to prices, we promise that no one shall leave this store saying our prices are high, when quality is considered.

ENEMY CLEANED OUT.

General Lawton's Boys In a Severe Engagement.

IMUS THE SCENE OF THE BRUSHES.

Insurgents Make an Attack Upon the American Forces There, but Are Forced to the Woods After Hours of Fighting—Attempt to Cut Off Communication Foiled.

Manilla, Oct. 4.—The insurgents were dispersed and driven westward by General Lawton's force at Imus.

The purpose of the enemy was to cut the communication maintained between Bacoor and Imus by means of the road between these places at a point between Imus and the east bank of the river. The insurgents had trenches along the west bank, commanding the open spaces. A force of 1,500 Filipinos attacked Imus and 800 proceeded against Bacoor with detachments along the river.

Colonel Daggett's force spread along the road from Bacoor toward Imus and three companies of the Fourth regiment, under Captain Hollis, were thrown out from Imus, the two commands forming a junction. The entire line crossed the river and drove the Filipinos from their trenches, to the westward through ricefields and thickets. The marines, whose services were tendered by Admiral Watson, crossed the river near the bay, forming a part of the line of advance.

Before the forward movement was begun the American artillery shelled the enemy's position. The only American casualty was the wounding of a lieutenant of artillery. Several wounded Filipinos were attended by Surgeon Major Penrose and members of the ambulance corps. A number of prisoners were taken.

General Lawton, while riding up the road to Imus, was the target for many shots.

The telegraph line was cut at a bend in the road commanded by the enemy's trenches, 100 yards distant, and when Lieutenant Cunningham, with a repair party, appeared to restore the wires, two men and Lieutenant Cunningham's horse was shot. Lieutenant McCloskey then brought a gun of Riley's battery into the open, and training it on the trench, dispersed the Filipinos with two well aimed shots.

Captain Poore and the Sixth infantry attacked the insurgents Sunday in a trench which they had constructed near Tabuan, Island of Negros, and scattered them. The Americans took one prisoner and captured 13 rifles, 6,000 cartridges and a quantity of rice and hospital supplies.

Another illustration of the insurgent policy of evading the Americans in force was furnished by the fact that when our lines swept across several miles of country, firing by volley and cheering, the Filipinos melted before them, and it was only occasionally that glimpses of the enemy could be obtained as they ran from their trenches and dodged through the bushes like rabbits.

Arbitrators Duly Pass Upon the Venezuela Dispute.

Paris, Oct. 4.—Some of the claims of Great Britain as to the interior and on the coast are disallowed by decision of the Anglo-Venezuelan boundary arbitration commission. Her frontier will start at the Waini river. The award was unanimous. It is considered in the nature of a compromise rather than as favoring Venezuela.

The award gives Point Barrea with a strip of land 50 miles long to Venezuela, which thereby obtains entire control of the river Orinoco. Three thousand square miles in the interior are also awarded to Venezuela. This in nowise expresses the full extent of Venezuela's award. Great Britain had claimed 30,000 square miles of territory west of the Schomburgk line, and this she was disposed to arbitrate in 1890. Every foot of that section is now awarded to Venezuela.

Great Britain has substantiated almost all her extreme claims. All the valuable plantations and goldfields are now indisputably settled in Great Britain territory.

DEFINED HIS POLICY.

President McKinley on the Philippine Problem.

TO BE PASSED UP TO CONGRESS.

Will Endeavor to Establish Peace in the Philippines by Vigorously Pushing the Campaign—Admiral Dewey the Guest of Honor at a Brilliant White House Function.

Washington, Oct. 4.—The largest dinner in the history of White House functions was given by President McKinley in honor of the gallant admiral, Geoge Dewey.

Covers were laid for over 80 persons. The guests included the cabinet, the governors of nine states, justices of the supreme court, some of the members of both houses of congress, army and navy officials and others. It was a brilliant affair.

An hour before the hour announced a large crowd of spectators had gathered in front of the White House and watched the arrivals. Admiral Dewey came at 8 o'clock, and he passed inside with Flag Lieutenant Brumby and Flag Secretary Caldwell, the admiral was enthusiastically cheered. Rear Admiral Schley was given a similar ovation. The guests passed into the east room, whence they proceeded to the White House corridor, which served as the state dining room. The corridor was decorated.

In the center of the table was a large cutglass vase filled with dark red meteor roses, set in a mound of Farleyense fern. At intervals on either side were six large mounds of pine apple plants in fruit, set in begonias in flower, interspersed with the broad green-leaved bilbergia splendens, a native plant of the Sandwich Islands. Between these were vases filled with meteor roses standing in bed of orchards, making in all 13 pieces, one for each of the original 13 states of the Union.

After the dinner Secretary Root, Secretary Hitchcock, Attorney General Griggs, Senator Hanna, Chairman Boutelle of the house committee on naval affairs, Secretary Bliss and Myron Herrick of Cleveland joined the president upstairs, and there was an informal talk on the Philippine situation, during which the president, in a few words, stated his position. Mr. Boutelle, on leaving the White House, stated that from what the president said, the keynote of the administration's policy is to establish peace in the Philippines, then a proper government and leave the whole matter entirely in the hands of congress.

Admiral Dewey had an important conference with President McKinley at 1 o'clock today. The meeting was by appointment, and was for the purpose of a full consultation over the situation in the Philippines. It was the first formal conference between the president and the returning admiral.
