REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Big Attractions Billed for Wellington Next Wednesday Night.

The most important Republican rally of this fall's campaign in southern Lorain county will be held at Wellington, Wednesday evening, Nov. 1, when Hon. Harry M. Daugherty and Judge John M. Sheets will address the people of this city and vicinity. The meeting will be held in the Opera house, and, weather permitting, it promises to be the largest political gathering since the memorable campaign of 1896. Indeed, the rally next Wednesday night will not be unlike the campaign meetings of '96. The speeches will be preceded by a torch-light procession, bands and marching delegations from neighboring towns will be here, and it is expected that the evening will be further enlivened by a liberal display of fireworks. It is said that Penfield, Huntingtown, Brighton, Pittsfield, and possibly La Grange, Oberlin, Rochester and other near-by towns will send delegations. Among the bands expected, besides the Wellington band, are the Brighton Marshall band, the Huntingtown Cornet band, one of the Oberlin bands and possibly the La Grange Cornet band. But the important part of the rally will be the speeches, however interesting the preliminary demonstration may be. The principal speaker, Hon. H. M. Daugherty, is known as one of the best campaign orators of the state. The other speaker, Judge Sheets, is candidate for attorney-general on the Republican ticket, and he is said to be very fluent and eloquent.

ITS GEN. METCALF NOW.

An Associated Press dispatch from Washington last night gave the following bit of interesting news: "Brigadier General Fred. Funston is to be breveted major general and Col. Wilder S. Metcalf of the Twentieth Kansas is to be breveted brigadier general by the president shortly, on account of gallant and meritorious services of the two Kansas soldiers in the Philippines."

Good Photographs of Friends.

Are always greatly appreciated, and in order to get the best you should patronize those whose reputation for good workmanship is beyond question. We are prepared to fill all orders for large or small portraits to your complete satisfaction, and as we are always rushed at holiday time, we suggest that you have those negatives made now while the weather is good, and let us show you what good pictures we can make for you.

Chrysanthemums.

On Tuesday evening November 7th, there will be held in the Sunday-school room of the M. E. Church a combined flower and music social. An entertaining program of music has been arranged. The ladies will have on sale chrysanthemums and cut flowers, and all are urged to buy their flowers. Refreshments will be served. Those who remember last year's social will be glad to avail themselves of this opportunity. Admission 10 cents.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the trying ordeal of fire. Mr. and Mrs. U. F. Miller.

Miss Belle Adams, who has been visiting in Wellington for a short time, returned to her home in Cleveland Monday.

Miss Sadie Gates, who has been visiting Mrs. M. M. Joyce, was called to Cleveland Monday by the death of her brother's child.

Clarence Sage, who has been with Willis Semple for some time, went to Cleveland Monday to accept a position in a Payne ave. barber shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Metzger of Lorain were guests of Mr. Metzger's Wellington relatives Sunday.

Wm. Cushman, Jr., of Columbus was in town Monday.

Ralph Linder of Cleveland spent Sunday in Wellington.

Ralph Ledyard, who has Chas. Elliott's old place at the target, has moved his household goods here from Lindale.

Mrs. C. E. Jamieson and daughter have returned from Urbana. Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson are partially settled in the East Main street residence recently vacated by Dr. C. H. Rust.

Mr. and Mrs. Mallory of Wellington, O., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Austin of Arlington street. They have been present to attend the Manchester-Petrequin wedding.—Sunday Plain Dealer.

Mrs. F. B. Gregg spent the latter part of last week with her sister, Miss Effie Danforth of the High school staff at Wellsville, O.

R. C. Bennett was in Cleveland last week.

Col. Wilder S. Metcalf of the Twentieth Kansas, regiment is expected to arrive in Wellington about the twentieth of November.

Arthur E. French was the guest of Miss Katherine Blume at Wapakoneta, O., Sunday.

W. F. Near was in Norwalk, O. over Sunday.

N. Huckins of Oberlin called on Wellington friends the first of the week.

That picturesque tatterdemalion known at this end of his route as the Oberlin mail carrier surprised himself last week, and a good many other peopless well, by "totin' Uncle Sam's mail pouch back to his home town in a semi-presentable buggy. Now, if some one would give him a "new" horse; but that's another story.

A week ago last Thursday Ashland celebrated the completion of the Wooster-Ashland electric line. Its a little too early for fireworks just yet, but if anyone is looking ahead for an opportunity to let off pent up enthusiasm, the suggestion may not be out of place that the completion of the Wellington Oberlin electric line, providing such a happy consummation is ever brought about, will furnish the occasion and ample justification for all the oratory and fireworks that this town is able to get together.

When Col. Wilder S. Metcalf returns to Wellington, as he will about the middle of next month, he should receive a welcome that would be one of the pleasantest recollections of his life. The people of Kansas are proud of him, for next to General Fred Funston, he is the most distinguished citizen soldier that the grasshopper state has sent to the Philippines. Wellington should be prouder of him, for this was his home long before he went to Kansas. Here it was that he received his first commission and early training as a military man. As sergeant, and later as lieutenant, of the old Wellington militia (long since defunct) he began to develop those traits of discipline and leadership that have served him so well in his Philippine experiences. It was here, too, that he found his wife and spent the first years of married life. No town has stronger claim to him, unless it be the town of his birth, than Wellington. What could be more appropriate then, than that his home-coming should be made the occasion for a public reception and banquet, in his honor? His old comrades of Co. G, of whom fifteen or sixteen still remain in Wellington, doubtless would be only too glad to join in welcoming him, and the people of Wellington will be equally as pleased to confer an honor so well earned and richly deserved.

A Big Demand.

The Elyria Business College is receiving more calls than they can fill. During September they had twelve calls. Since Oct. 1, they have eight calls. This demand is the best evidence of the work they are doing. Nineteen new students entered this month. New Shorthand division Nov. 1st.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Among those from Wellington who attended were Rev. H. D. Sheldon, J. T. Haskell, W. H. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Benedict, Mrs. J. T. Gardner and Mrs. Marcy. The following pastors took part in the services: Rev. H. D. Sheldon, Wellington; Rev. H. W. Tenny, second church, Oberlin; Rev. A. W. Lash, Rochester; Rev. George Hill, Sullivan; Rev. P. E. Harding, Lodi; Rev. Jesse Hill, Medina; Rev. Charles Simpson, Chatham; Rev. Mr. Denslow, Penfield; Rev. L. W. Mahn, Mallet Creek; Rev. Roswell Chapin, Litchfield; Rev. W. A. Leary, Grafton; Rev. J. G. Fraser, D. D., secretary of Ohio Home Missionary Society, Cleveland; Rev. A. F. Skeele, member of the state executive committee, Painesville; Dr. George S. Moore, Oberlin.

PROFITABLE.

The cause of the Ohio Missionary Society was earnestly presented by Dr. H. M. Tenney, the chairman of its executive committee, Dr. J. G. Fraser secretary, and Rev. A. F. Skeele, a member of the executive committee and former pastor of the Wellington church.

A. I. Root, of Medina took a leading part in the Sunday-school hour and spoke interestingly on "How to make the Sunday School work."

A question box exercise conducted by Rev. W. A. Leary, in which questions relating to Sunday-school work were written by those present upon slips of paper and then distributed to individuals who were called upon for answers, proved interesting and profitable.

Rev. W. A. Leary, pastor of the church, was efficient and energetic in superintending the local arrangements. Resolutions urging the churches to greater activity in the state home missionary work, and thanking the Grafton friends for their hospitality, were adopted. The conference was divided into districts, and one of the pastors appointed to have charge of the interests in each district. It was voted to accept Rev. P. E. Harding, formerly a member of the Cleveland Conference, as a member of this conference.

HEADACHES AND GLASSES.

About nine-tenths of all headaches come from some defect of vision, and the only permanent cure is a pair of perfectly fitting glasses. C. S. Gould, the optician, has made a special study of this subject and says that at least nine out of ten persons suffering from frequent or constant headaches can be entirely cured by their use. He will be at the American house for one week, beginning Nov. 2. Eyes examined free of charge.

Democratic Rally.

The first democratic rally of the campaign in Wellington will occur this week Thursday night, when Gen. Sherwood of Toledo, and Hon. T. B. Keller of West Salem, O., will speak in the opera house. Both have a reputation of being interesting speakers. Music will be furnished by the Wellington band.

Business in other places having obliged us to close our gallery through the summer season, we have again arranged to spend a portion of our time in our Wellington gallery, and as all our friends know, our days here were Thursday, Friday and Saturday of each week. They have been changed to every Tuesday and Wednesday, when we would be glad to meet any of our old patrons.

MR. C. S. GOULD,

THE WELL-KNOWN OPTICIAN,

OF CLEVELAND,

WILL BE AT THE

Mr. Gould is an expert in the science of having made a special study of the eye in this country and in Europe, and has been in constant practice for 7 years.

For the last five years Mr. Gould has made periodical visits to Medina, during which time he has fitted over 2000 Medina county people, many of whom had been unable to get properly fitting glasses until they were fitted by him. There is a saying over there that "Gould's glasses came" high but we must have them." It seems high for some people to pay $2 or $2.50 for a pair of spectacles, but one pair of Gould's White Crystal Lenses properly fitted to the requirements of each eye are worth more than a bushel basket full of cheap
