

Cast a "Devil" out of church.

We are indebted to our friend, I. M. Ella of Marietta, Ohio, for the following graphic sketch.

A Methodist clergyman who has been laboring in this vicinity, was not long since preaching to his people people on the miraculous power of the Apostles over the demoniac spirits of their day.

The speaker paused for a moment, and fixed his penetrating eye full upon the face of the questioner.

Our reverend friend, (who by the way is a young man of great muscular power,) calmly left the desk, and walked deliberately to the pew where the interrogator sat.

"Do you love me, Simon?" "I do. I love you as much as I love myself."

The good pastor quietly returned to his desk, and completed his discourse.

Early marriages are apt to engender grey hairs, plenty of children, round shoulders, rheumatism and thin looking wives.

An auctioneer exclaimed—"Why really, ladies and gentlemen, I am giving things away!"

During the month of May, the Probate Judge of Hamilton county granted two hundred and twenty-eight marriage licenses.

The value of American cotton exported in 1854, amounted to $93,596,230; of this $67,738,391, worth was exported to Great Britain.

Self-conceit and ignorance are twin brothers; the empty head is usually the noisiest; for it depends on that for making known its existence.

At a recent meeting of the citizens of Oswego, it was resolved that the Fourth of July must go on.

When a man dies, people generally inquire, what property he has left behind him? The angels will ask what good deeds he has set before him.

A Paul Prier observed on the door of a house the name of two physicians, and remarked that it put him in mind of a double-barrelled gun; for if one missed, the other was sure to kill.

A person who undertakes to raise himself by scolding others, might as well sit down on a wheelbarrow, and try to wheel himself.

A debating society away down East is discussing the following question:—"If a man builds a corn crib, does that give him a right to crib corn?"

An old bachelor, who edits a paper somewhere in the western country, put "Melancholy Accidents" as a head for marriages in his paper.

A shop lately sailed from Liverpool to Australia with a cargo of two hundred and sixty-three unmarried females.

FRIDAY.

This a curious fact as ever was known, in the history of the world.

A bridge across a hundred years.

Of all the notable things on earth, the quester one is pride of birth.

Your family, though you can't see it, without good reason to approach.

That played some wondrous relation, Or, worse than that, your boasted line.

Because you flourish in worldly affairs, Do not be haughty and put on airs.

Do not be proud, and turn up your nose At poor people in plainer clothes.
