Win a Big Bunch of Bonus Votes at Start

Two Days Left to Work on the Biggest Offer of Extras.

DON'T STOP WITH WINNING A SINGLE 15,000-- YOU GET THAT MUCH FOR EVERY $10 YOU TURN IN

NEW CANDIDATES STILL ENTERING THE CONTEST

How many people realize what there is to salesmanship? How many times have you heard some one say "I can't sell anything?" If you are one of the doubters, if you have felt that you could never sell anything, and so have never tried, now is your golden opportunity to find that it really is not so hard after all. That all it takes is persistently keeping at it. Start out today among your friends and tell them that you have entered the DEMOCRAT SENTINEL'S CONTEST, and see how really easy it is to get them interested, and how they will not only give you a new subscription, or renew if they are already taking the paper, but will also turn in and help you to interest their friends as well.

Successful salesmanship is not only selling goods, but making friends—friends who are willing to lend their assistance also. If you will start out today you will really be surprised with the result, and you will not only be nearer that automobile the DEMOCRAT SENTINEL is offering, but you will also find yourself out of the "can't sell" class.

NEW ENTRIES.

Some of the contestants were not quite so early as some of the others in getting a start in the campaign for the extra vote offer this week, but the friends of these contestants have decided that the right time has come for the commencement of their campaign in the interest of their favorites.

Subscriptions are now being secured in greater numbers than ever before, and it is apparent that the volume of business reported during the time of the special offer will reach a splendid total.

New contestants, to win, should become active immediately. A victory is never lost until it is won, and as the special vote offer remains open until Saturday evening, new contestants may yet surpass their opponents. Get busy.

THIS IS OPPORTUNITY WEEK. It's the week we give votes away with every bunch of cash. Ten dollars gets 15,000 extra votes, over and above the regular scale.

Don't wait for another offer. This is positively the greatest offer of bonus votes that will be made during the contest. Now is the time.

How many fifteen thousand Bonus votes are you going to add to your reserve?

ABOUT VOTING.

Until July 29th, no candidate will be permitted to cast more than 30,000 votes.

This applies to the number that may be placed to your credit in the voting list and not to the number you may cash in and add to your reserve. In one or two weeks the limit will either be raised or lifted altogether.

ANOTHER BONUS VOTE. The Bonus vote offer has been reduced, but it will count you more than any to follow.

10,000 Bonus votes for every Ten dollars you turn in, beginning July 26th, and closes July 31st. Effort will pay.

Plenty of Water Assured for Logan.

It is with much pleasure that we announce that the water supply for Logan is now an ample certainty. Contractor Kinney has put down a very successful well and is starting another. An air lift has been ordered, and the trustees are satisfied with the quality of water. It seems that the water in the new well is inexhaustible, and reinforcing it with another will make our water supply adequate in the hottest and driest season of the year.

Tax Collecting Time.

Time for paying taxes for June closed on the 19th of this month and there had been paid into the treasury of Hocking county $82,919.86, the amount paid in at the same time last year was $82,761.63, a difference of only $158.23 more paid in this year than last. There still remains $17,493.42 charged up that has not been paid in. The tax levy for the coming year is 4.1 as against 3.8 for the past year. This increase of 3 mills was added by the school tax. The Village of Logan added 1 mill to the levy and the county is 1 mill less, so that the two are a stand off, and the school increased levy makes the amount of the total increase. The taxes were paid in fairly well for this time as there is usually more than $10,000.00 that goes over.

Death of Daniel Brown.

The many friends of Daniel Brown will learn with surprise and regret that on Sunday night, he passed to the Great Beyond, in the 77th year of his age. He survived his good old wife but a short time. He was very sick at the time of her death and his life was despaired of for days, but survived the shock of the death of his dear old companion, and was able to be out on the street again, but has been feeble. A week ago he took down in the short sickness that resulted Sunday night in his death.

Daniel Brown was born in Germany 77 years ago, and came to this country in young manhood, and has lived in Logan and vicinity for 50 years. He was the father of Rudolph and Frank Brown, of the Brown Bros. firm of Clothiers in this city, and has been associated with them in the business. He was an excellent, honest and upright man, loved and respected by his neighbors and all who knew him. Since the death of his wife he has made his home with his eldest son Rudolph, where his death occurred.

The funeral took place this morning from the St. John's Catholic Church and interment was had in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Not Exactly a Whirlwind.

F. Blasius & Sons big sale started off quietly about 10 days ago, but has been strong and steady, typical of the merchandise offered and the general policy of this progressive and reliable house.

Pay attention to what all others say,—then make your own deduction. The real meaning of all the price quotations in the bulletin on another page are just beginning to be felt and the result in view is in sight, as it always is when one of these Blasius' clearance sales are in progress.

Prices quoted in the bulletin are standard values. The reductions are from prices that cannot be raised, then cut. The people of Hocking county and vicinity are to familiar with these goods that find a home with F. Blasius & Sons to permit price justifying.

When it is said 38c for Porous knit underwear, it means the 50c kind advertised in all the magazines.

The world knows what these lines are worth—Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothing; Griffon brand clothes; extra good children's clothing; Sweet Orr & Co. pants and overalls; Bartel's 50c overalls; Case's work shirts, Famous, Cluett, Calumet and Monarch, dress shirts from 50c up; Hayes hats; Hopkins straw hats; K. & E. waist and wash suits; and all through the different lines the same.

All standard makes typical of the character, as we said before, and of the policy of this house, to build a reputation that will last with the people, makes the names of F. Blasius clothes mean good clothes and economy to the patrons of the old reliable, yet new store.

This sale will continue and grow stronger. There is no stock in this locality that comprises such a varied and extensive assortment and the prices will be marked so low on mens, boys and children's clothing that the temptation will be irresistible. Of course many things on the bulletin means a loss, but the ready cash can be made better use of than to carry over the merchandise.

Long pants suits, coats, pants and vests for boys, age 11 to 16 years for $1.00, that go in this sale, the cheapest of which was worth $4.00.

We suggest, also, that any of the cloth in these 45 suit patterns of beautiful spring colorings mentioned in the tailoring department can be had at cost for ladies, dress skirts and suits.

Investigate this sale at your earliest opportunity.

F. BLASIUS & SONS.

Oldfield-Cooper.

[So. Bloomingville, Cor.] On Sunday evening, July 11, 1909, occurred the marriage of two of our prominent young people, Chas. Oldfield and Miss Cleo Cooper. The wedding gave us a happy surprise, as we were all lamenting over Miss Cleo moving to Tenn. We thank Mr. Oldfield for keeping our little lady in our village. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Cooper, a charming little lady and who will make a good companion and noble help-mate. We congratulate Mr. Oldfield on his good judgement of choosing so fair a bride.

Miss Cleo was charmingly attired in embroidered linen.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Nan Oldfield and a promising young school teacher who has taught our village school for the past two years, and we would be pleased to have him back again. By the help of his good mother and his own good judgement he has contrived to get a good education. We prophesy a brilliant future for Mr. Oldfield. We extend our hearty congratulations and may God's blessings rest upon them.

The World Before Your Eyes.

I have seen Niagara thunder over her gorge in the noblest frenzy ever beheld by man—I have watched Queensland river under the white light of an Australian moon go whirling and through islands lurking with bandicoot and kangaroo—I have watched an English railroad train draw into a station, take on its passengers and then chug away with its stubby little engine through the Yorkshire dells, past old Norman abbeys, silhouetted against the skyline, while a cluster of century-aged cottages loomed up in the valley below, through which a yokel drove his flocks of Southdowns—I have been to the Orient and gazed at the water-sellers and beggars and dervishes—I have beheld fat old Rajahs with the price of a thousand lives bejeweled in their royal nightshirts as they indolently nayed in golden howdahs, borne upon the backs of grunting elephants—I saw a runaway horse play battledoor and shuttle-cock with the inhabitants of a little Italian village, whose streets had not known so much commotion since the sailing of Columbus—I know how the chinaman lives and I have been through the homes of the Japanese—I have marveled at the daring of Alpine tobogganists and admired the wonderful skill of Norwegian sky-jumpers—I have seen armies upon the battlefield and their return in triumph—I have looked upon weird dances and outlandish frolics in every quarter of the globe and I didn't have to leave Logan for a moment.

The World Before Your Eyes.

literature of the ages and construct tableaux in action which will render vividly the entire contents of famous works of the drama, of the novel, and of history. The moving picture is not a makeshift but the highest type of entertainment in the history of the world. It stands for a better Americanism because it is attracting millions of the masses to an uplifting, drawing them an inspiring as well as an amusing feature of city life. Its value cannot be measured now, but another generation will be benefited more largely through its influence than we of today can possibly realize. The months of June and July are seeing enacted before the motion picture cameras the finest productions ever photographed, and a number of these are being presented at the Opera House this week and next. Among them—"Hunting Big Game in Africa," "Fighting Bob," "The Moonstone," "A Country Girl's Peril," "Ben's Kid," "The Bad Lands," "La Tosca," "The Reckoning," "The Resurrection, etc.", are positively the finest pictures ever seen in Logan. All these will be shown before the end of this month. The picture show will then close for one week, reopening under change of policy the second week in August for the Fall and Winter season.
