SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE

A FINAL CLEAN UP

UNPARALLELED BARGAINS FOR SPOT CASH

After years of repetition our SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE should require no introductory comment. We are not sacrificing values in view of market considerations by any means, but because dimes and dollars are easier to count than merchandise. SO BE HERE EARLY,---we intend to have an extraordinary dismissal. The goods involved, meet the demands of the hour,---clean, fresh wanted merchandise of every description ruthlessly sacrificed; but we pocket the loss without a murmur. DOUBLE THE VALUE OF YOUR SAVINGS BY BEING ON THE SPOT AND SHARE IN THE BARGAINS.

Sale Starts Monday, January 3rd-----See Bills for Prices

WELLMAN & YONTZ

Bliss

BUSINESS COLLEGE is the most thoroughly equipped school of business in the State of Ohio. All of its graduates without an exception are employed. To the first representative of a town we offer a discount of 5 per cent., secure positions for students to work for their board while attending school. Open all year. New classes formed every Monday. Write for catalogue. Address.

BLISS BUSINESS COLLEGE, Columbus, Ohio.

Mulberry Avenue

S. Arter, wife and children spent Saturday with P. J. Kraft and family.

John Elick was seen along our roads, Saturday.

Blanche Kraft called on Carrie Morris, Sunday evening.

Hazel Kraft and brother Chas. spent Xmas with their aunt, Mrs. Cora Camps, of Lancaster.

John Young, of Lancaster, and friend called on P. J. Kraft, Wednesday.

Quite a number attended church at Holy Bethel, Sunday evening.

Choe Cavinee spent Sunday evening with Hazel Kraft.

Mrs. Sarah Finefrock intends to move back on her farm in the near future.

Lizzie Carpenter is spending a few days with her cousin in Lancaster.

Blanch Kraft was seen passing along our roads, enroute to Sugar Grove, Saturday evening.

P. J. Kraft was seen passing along our roads with a load of ties, Thursday.

David Bowers called on P. J. Kraft, Saturday.

Those who spent Sunday evening with Carrie Morris were: Ed Carpenter, Hazel, Blanche and Chas. Kraft and Herbert Caves.

Hello, Old Crupper, what! did Santa forget you?

Wm. Carpenter was seen passing along our roads, Saturday.

John Elick attended church at Centenary, Sunday morning.

Peanut Ridge

Mrs. C. V. Rulon called on her mother, last week.

A. F. Carpenter, of Rockbridge, was a Logan shopper, one day last week.

Edward Engle and wife were Logan shoppers, one day last week.

Mrs. Fred Duff called on her mother-in-law, last week

Shedrick Conklin and Virgil Walker were in Lancaster, Friday.

A. M. Ellinger made a flying trip to Abraham Blume's, Friday evening.

Blanch Carpenter spent Xmas with her parents, John Carpenter and wife.

Myrtle Brooks and Ida Goss were in Rockbridge. Tuesday, they report a fine time.

Charley Carpenter was in Logan, one day last week.

Hello, Mulberry Avenue, you had better watch out or the gas will freeze up some night unexpectedly.

George Walker and family called on Daniel Engle and wife, Xmas.

S. A. Voris, of Rockbridge, called on his father, A. W. Voris, of Enterprise, one day last week.

Wm. Goss, of Carrolton, spent Xmas with his mother, Mrs. Lucy Goss, of near Enterprise.

Jessie Disbennett called on her sister, Mrs. Charley Carpenter, Wednesday evening.

Virgil Walker and Joe Peterson attended church at Centenary, Monday evening.

Fred Ellinger was on our pikes, one day last week.

Claudie Carpenter and sister Cora attended the Xmas entertainment at Sugar Grove, Friday evening.

John Elick, of Mulberry Avenue, attended church at Centenary Sunday.

Hello, Old Crupper, where have you been we have not heard from you for a long time.

Quite a number from this place attended the Xmas entertainment at Fairview, Friday evening.

COUNTRY KIDS

SPECIAL

AT THE

OPERA HOUSE PICTURE SHOW

Thursday, December 30; Friday, December 31; Saturday, January 1.

The most thrilling act ever presented! The acme of sensationalism! Is the battle fought between

Thelma Azora and Cleo

A real live monster forest bred African lion
This battle will be fought in a large strong steel arena

High class moving pictures and illustrated songs will be given in connection with each performance. The only animal act of its kind in America, also the only woman that has the nerve to accomplish this act.

A Fight for Life in the Den of Death

This may be the Last Opportunity you may ever have to witness such a daring act. Strictly moral. All invited.

It's a real live lion, not a picture

Something New Every Evening.

Doors Open at..... 6:00
Orchestra..... 6:15
Show Starts Promptly at..... 6:30
Adults.....10c Admission Children.....5c

Bring your coupons to Friday evening show, December 31. Drawing to take place immediately after first show.

Blue Creek

Well, we want to inform the many readers of the Sentinel that we have been having some zero weather here; anybody doubting this, we will ask you to council Israel Swackhammer.

Samuel Mercer's house burnt down last Tuesday, and all the contents with the exception of a few things.

Wm. Parks and wife, of this creek, are spending the holidays with their sons and families in Chillicothe.

A Mr. Poling, of Chillicothe, accompanied by three other men were business callers in this section, one day last week.

Otis Mercer, wife and daughter are at this writing, visiting relatives in Springfield, Ohio.

Israel Swackhammer was a Haynes shopper, last Thursday.

Alma Schooley, of Tarlton, is spending the holidays with her parents on this creek.

Mrs. Rosa Devault, of Lancaster, is at this writing the guest of Marion and Sylvester Devault, on Pole Ridge.

J. R. Kennedy, wife and children, of the North Side, were Nancy shoppers, one day this week.

L. C. Swackhammer, wife and two sons called on Jacob Lindsey and family, Thursday evening of this week.

The protracted meeting is still going on at Bryant Graham's residence on west Pole Ridge.

Charles Taylor, of Salt Creek, was a business caller on our creek, last Thursday.

Mark Lindsey is engaged in training a colt.

YOU KNOW.

West Hocking

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Julien, Mr. and Mrs. Creighton Winlana and little son, Charlie and Misses Maysie and Edna White were entertained Christmas to an excellent dinner, which among all of the good things of the season, a twenty-three pound roasted turkey graced the table.

Mrs. Guy Mowery and sister Miss Mae McClelland spent from Wednesday until Friday in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Karshner and family were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Mowery of Pumpkin Ridge.

Pearl Armstrong spent Christmas in Columbus.

Mrs. Clark Bailor spent from Christmas until Tuesday visiting relatives in Lancaster.

A POST CARD SHOWER

The venerable Mr. R L Sullivan, one of Hocking county's highly respected but retired school teachers, was tendered a post card shower on his eighty-first birthday and was the recipient of one hundred eighty-one post cards, of which almost half were from his pupils of many years ago. Mr. Sullivan was greatly pleased and delighted to know that he still held a place in the hearts of his scholars of the past years. Let any who were formerly his pupils continue the post card shower, and thereby show the old teacher and friend that he is still held in loving remembrance.

TEACHER ENTERTAINS

Miss Maysie White, teacher of the Union school, entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Julien, the patrons and pupils of the district on Christmas eve. The room was very prettily decorated in many colors which consisted of bells, stars and chains with a beautiful Christmas tree standing in one corner containing the usual treat for the pupils. The evening was spent in playing games music and in social conversation. Dainty refreshments which were composed of bananas, pop corn and candy were served. Just before the guests dispersed for their respective homes, a signal was given when all present showered the teacher with post cards containing love and Christmas greetings, giving her a very pleasant surprise.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Tignor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Stump and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bailor, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Fox, Mrs. B F. Julian, Miss Edna White, Mr. and Mrs. Creighton Winland, Misses Ora Julien, Leafie and Margaret Winland, Master Amos and George Winland, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Weaver and family, Master Everett Sherwood, Mr. Ray Waits, Mr. and Mrs G. W. Julien and Mr. Boyd Julien

South Perry

John Notestone, ex-treasurer of Hocking county, and one of Perry township's most honored citizens, met with a serious accident Christmas morning. While out attending to the morning chores, he accidently slipped and fell, fracturing his arm at the elbow. He suffered considerable pain from the result. Dr. Hemmeger of Adelphi was called and reduced the fracture and at present the patient is getting along as well as could be anticipated.

The township trustees met here Monday and closed up the year's business. They experienced a busy day.

C. M Seesholtz of Lancaster spent Christmas with his parents here.

Our schools are taking a holiday vacation this week.

Protracted meeting closed at the M. E. church on Thursday night of last week after a continuation of nearly three weeks. Two conversions are among the good results.

Frank Weaver of Columbus is spending the holidays with relatives here.

Mrs. Mary Wagner has been sick for the past few days, threatened with pneumonia.

Quite a number of our people are on the sick list, suffering principally with croup and severe colds.

Carr and Notestone harvested a large crop of ice last week and a very fine quality.

Miss Edna White has resigned as teacher of the Mound Crossing school to assist in caring for her father, Benjamin White, who has been sick for the past few months.

Black Jack

Quite a number from this place attended the Xmas entertainment at St. John's, and all report a good time.

Orville Hartsough is spending the holidays with his parents at Delaware, Ohio.

Mary and Anna Stiveson, who have been employed at the Lancaster Glass Co., are home for a two weeks vacation.

Allen Reichley, Minnie and Mary Stiveson took dinner with Fred Harble and family, Friday.

Marion Morse made a flying trip to Logan, one day last week.

John Coakley is visiting Marion Morse and family.

Charles Heigle and family visited with Daniel Keck and family, one day last week.

Harley Simmons and wife, of New Pittsburg, are visiting friends in this vicinity.

Allen Reichley and Minnie Stiveson, of Logan, spent Xmas with the latter's mother.

Rosa Keck, of Logan, is spending the holidays with her parents, Daniel Keck and wife.

John Dillon, who has been seriously ill, is reported some better at this writing.

John Culbertson was a business caller in this valley, one day last week.

Pearl Rose passed through this valley, one day last week, enroute to Logan.

We will close by wishing everybody a Happy New Year.

Laurelville

The dedication was well attended at Haynes, Sunday.

Al Bainter and son Roy were Laurelville shoppers, Wednesday.

Samuel Febus and wife, of Ewing, visited the latters parents last week

Mayme Paxton was seen in our midst, Wednesday.

Lewis Keister and wife, and Chas Febus and family were the guests of Bert Febus and family Thursday.

Those who visited the school at this place, Friday afternoon were as follows: Samuel Febus and wife, of Ewing, Bert Febus and wife, Abraham Disbennet, Thomas and Myrtle Vancuren and Mayme Paxton.

Seth Ellis, wife and son Lawrence, of Ewing, spent Xmas with Bert Febus and family,

Those who attended preaching at Haynes, Sunday evening, from this place were as follows: Bert Febus and family, James Lindsey and family, Merle, Thomas and Myrtle Vancuren, Mayme and Harley Paxton, Emmet and Marion Fox and Elden and Desmer Lama.

Well, as news are scarce at this place, I will close wishing all the readers of THE DEMOCRAT-SENTINEL a Happy New Year.

CRICKET.

Meadow Brook.

Mr. John Smith and family, of Corn Cob, spent Sunday with Pearl Rolston and family.

W. D. Murphy and family spent Xmas, with A. B. Murphy and family.

Mrs. Elizabeth Klinger had as her Sunday visitors Mr. G. Ringhiser, wife and daughter Frieda, Mrs. Etta Klinger, and children, Lucetta, Emma and Stella Ringhiser, W. D. Murphy and children Rose and Frank.

Allen Murphy of this place, spent X'mas with his sister, Mrs. George Rider and family, of Columbus.

The following spent one evening last week with W. D. Murphy and family: A. B. Murphy and family, and John, Geo. and Hath Klinger

Several from this place attended the funeral of Mr. Henry Miller at the L E Church.

CHARACTER

Character in financial institutions, as in men, means positive qualities — Reliability. The development takes time for experience and growth of a business policy and varied conditions for testing that experience and policy.

In twenty years we have passed through some of the most prosperous as well as the most depressing years in financial history, neither misled by prosperity nor disturbed by panic.

Write for the Columbian's Book.

5% paid on time deposits.

The Columbian Building & Loan Co.
Ruggery Bldg.
22 East Gay St. Columbus, O.

A Famous Health Builder.

A medicine that will cleanse the bowels and put them in condition to do their proper work unaided will do more than anything else to preserve health and strength. Such a medicine is the tonic laxative herb tea, Lane's Family Medicine. Get a 25c package today at any druggist's or dealer's. No matter what you have tried before, try this famous herb tea.

W. D. and Allen Murphy were engaged in unloading and hauling tile last week.

Mrs. Elizebeth Klinger spent Saturday with her nephew, Samuel Nihiser and family.

Several from this place attended the X'mas tree at Fairview Friday evening. All report a fine time. There were several who recieved same very fine presents, among which were some fine dolls which were recieved with much appreciation.

Allen and W. D. Murphy were Lancaster visitors one day last week.

Hello Blue Belle has it snowed you under, I never hear from you any more.

PANSY.

Mount Vernon

Ira Shisler of South Perry spent two days on this ridge last week.

Frank Lindsey's spent Christmas with Mrs. Mary Linn of this place.

Newton Primmer and brother spent Christmas with their sister, Mrs. Maude Rose of this place. Newton made some new acquaintances while on this ridge. He seemed to enjoy his visit very much.

The Christmas tree and entertainment at No. 10 school was well attended on last Thursday night. The house was filled to overflowing and all had a good time. Below is the program that was rendered:

PROGRAM

Looking for Santa	The School
Welcome	Ella Lindsey
Music
What I Want	Gayle Melcher
Ten Cent Christmas	Sherman Lindsey
Music
Recitation in unison	Four Characters
Ned's Dream	Rosedinsko Kitchen
Music
What Christmas Brings	Three Characters
Scaring Santa	Earl Woodard
Music
Waiting for Santa	Rosella Conrad
Jesus and the Wise Men	Alta Woodard
Music
A Plan That Failed	Two Characters
Music
A True Christmas	Four Characters
Music
Christmas Everywhere	Edna Woodard
A Ghost	Sylvia Kitchen
Music
The Children's Christmas Dream
	Alta Woodard
May's Opinion	Ella Lindsey
Music
Recitation	Pansy Donley
Music
Santa's Mistake	Kossie Kitchen
Song	Icel Davis
Music
What Baby Wanted	Carmen Burgoon
Recitation	Grace Denton
I Belong to Him	School
Music
My Christmas Tree	Fairy Burgoon
Guiding Star	Ten Characters
Music
Recitation	Icel Davis
Ready for Christmas	Edward Woolever
Music
A Merry Christmas	Nellie Vorhees
Hurrah	Clifford Woolever
Music
Recitation	Flora Conkle
Good Advice	Sylvia Kitchen
Grandma's Mistake	Rosella Conrad
Music
A Merry Christmas	Ura Woodard
What They Found	Gayle Melcher
Music
Recitation	Goldie Donley
After the Holidays	John Devore
Seeking the King	Eight Characters
Music
Our Christmas Play	School
Good Night Song	School

Stringtown

We are having fine winter weather, and the merry jingle of sleigh bells is heard throughout our land.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Cotterman of Pleasant Valley were seen passing through this place Monday.

H. A. Schein and family spent Christmas with Noah Beougher and family.

Several from this place attended the Christmas entertainment at Fairview Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Rodgers were callers at this place one day last week.

Mrs. James Woods and son were Logan shoppers, Friday.

H. C. Beery made a business trip to Logan Thursday.

Lewis Evans and sister, Myrtle spent Sunday with Will Evans and family.

A. F. Risch and family spent Tuesday with Alfred Brown and wife.

Miss Lena Weaver spent Thursday with John Beery's.

J. A. Harsh and wife were Logan shoppers Friday.

Protracted meeting which has been in progress at Zion the past two weeks, closed Friday night.

Jim Blosser of Enterprise was seen in our midst Sunday.

Hello, Mr. Mathias! We are still here. Your letters are most welcome and interesting to us. We are glad to hear from an old time friend and neighbor, and wish you and your family a happy New Year in your new southern home.

ROBIN.

Cedar Grove

Noah McCowen, wife and daughter Clara, of Pine Grove, spent Christmas day with H. A. Gordon and family.

L. W. Beery is a business visitor in Chillicothe, this week.

Pearl Rose and Mayme Vest were Logan visitors, last Tuesday.

Anna Stiveson came home, Tuesday from Lancaster, where she had been working.

Elmer Nihiser visited friends at Circleville, over Xmas.

Vernon Mauk and wife, of Logan, visited Mrs. Minnie Allen and family, over Xmas.

Wm. Barton and Carl Blacksten were business visitors in Logan, Thursday.

Estella Sater, of Ewing, visited Goldie Beery, over Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Irene Swepston, of Hue and Esther Melcher, of Bloomingville, were the welcome guests of Lige Woolever, wife and daughter, Friday, attending the entertainment at No. 1 school in the evening.

Cora and Nora Conkle, of Canal Winchester, are visiting relatives here for a few weeks.

Pearl Cook, wife and daughter Mabel visited Mr. Culp and wife, Xmas day.

Elva Allen was the guest of Roxie and Laura Nihiser, Friday night and Saturday.

The entertainments given at Nos. 1 and 10 schools on Thursday and Friday nights were both well attended, and a good time enjoyed by all.

Our country is now enjoying a fine deep snow, the largest snow we have had yet this season.

Fanny Burgoon, of Laurelville, is visiting friends here at present.

AN ORDINANCE

To license persons engaging in the business of plumbing and sewer-tapping in the Village of Logan, Ohio.

Be it ordained by the Council of the Village of Logan, State of Ohio:—

SEC. I. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons, firm or corporation to engage in the business of plumbing or sewer-tapping in the Village of Logan, State of Ohio, without having first obtained a yearly license so to do

SEC. II. Such license shall be issued and signed by the Mayor, and shall expire on the 31st day of December of the year in which it is issued.

SEC. III. The fee for such yearly license shall be the sum of $10.00, provided, that if any license is obtained after the 1st day of July in any year, the charge for the remainder of such year shall be one-half the above named amount. All such fees shall be collected by the Mayor and turned over to the Village Treasurer to be credited to the "General Fund."

SEC. IV. Whoever violates any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not less than $25.00 and not more than $100.

SEC. V. If any person, firm or corporation to whom such license shall be issued shall violate or permit any of his or their employees or agents to violate any ordinance of said Village or the laws of the State of Ohio relating to plumbing, sewer-tapping or house-draining, the Mayor may revoke the license of such person, firm or corporation.

SEC. VI. All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

SEC. VII. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law

D. V. THURNESS, Mayor.

Attest:—HENRY T LEACH, Clerk.
Passed December 28th, 1909.
Dec. 30, 2 wks.

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR