THREE DEAD IN STORM STRIKING BUCKEYE LAKE

Search Is Going On Today For Bodies Believed To Have Been Buried

Three Columbus People Are Dead; Newark Girl Is Missing; Damage $100,000

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)
NEWARK, June 12—Search of the storm-swept portion of Buckeye Lake park, near here, for bodies believed to have been buried in the tornado which struck the park late yesterday afternoon, resulting in the death of three Columbus people, was resumed this morning.

Search also extended to the waters of the lake, in view of possible drownings. Seven small boats are reported missing. The lake was dotted with fishermen and pleasure seekers when the storm broke.

The dead are: Myron E. Hill, Columbus. Mrs. William H. Wohrle, Columbus. M. Seigler, Columbus. Olive Dean, Newark, is reported missing.

With scarcely any warning the tornado struck after cutting a half-moon shaped path half a mile in length and from three to four feet in width.

The bathhouse was blown over onto the beach and a number of cottages were demolished or damaged.

Hill was crushed to death. Mrs. Wohrle and Seigler, who died in a local hospital today, were in cottages which were demolished.

Rescue work last night was hampered owing to the fact that there were no lights and lack of equipment to clear the wreckage.

The damage will reach $100,000, it was reported today. A few weeks ago a portion of the park was swept by fire, doing damage to the extent of $75,000.

At noon today, the death list in the storm at Buckeye Lake remained at three, the search failing to reveal any more fatalities. Efforts of the searchers were confined to the bathhouse, which was wrecked by a falling tree.

Divers have been employed all morning searching the waters for victims.

Early estimates of property loss at $100,000 were said to be too low, as the complete list of cottages damaged is more than $125,000.

Arle Dean of Newark, reported missing, returned home this morning unhurt.

NEW CONSTITUTION HAS BEEN REVISED

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)
LONDON, June 12—The articles of the new Irish constitution have been revised so satisfactorily, the Evening Star asserts today, that Arthur Griffith will return to Dublin with them tonight. The newspaper further adds that Colonial Secretary Churchill may postpone his statement in the house of commons until Tuesday or Thursday, so that announcement of the agreement may be made simultaneously in London and Dublin.

Smith Brookhart Is Senate Nominee

The nomination of Smith Brookhart as Senator for Iowa is a severe blow to the stand-pat element of the Republican party. Mr. Brookhart is reported to be of the La Follette type of progressive. He is said to have been Judge William S. Kenyon's choice in the race for the Judge's Senatorial toga.

SEARCH IS MADE FOR MORE BODIES

Thirty Persons Dead As Result Of Storm Which Hits Long Island Sound

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)
NEW YORK, June 12—Police boats spent the night in searching the waters of Long Island sound and it was reported at 5 o'clock this morning that no more victims of yesterday's storm were found. Thirty bathers were drowned. Rescuers said today that the tide is very strong at this point and it probably carried away the bodies of many persons. Damage to the extent of $1,000,000 was done, and more than 100 persons were injured.

WYTHE ASSISTS IN RESCUE WORK AT BUCKEYE LAKE

Mt. Vernon Man Helps When Storm Strikes At Ohio Summer Resort

Reports Of Storm Exaggerated, According to Story Told By Mr. Wythe

Mr. George Wythe, well known groceryman of Mt. Vernon, a visitor at Buckeye Lake Sunday, assisted in the rescue work after the violent tornado struck the popular Ohio summer resort.

Thousands of persons were at the resort spending the day and to escape the intense heat. Among those going from Buckeye Lake to Mt. Vernon was Mr. George Wythe. He was at the traction waiting room when the storm broke.

Many trees in the grove about the lake were uprooted by the violent windstorm. A bath house, in which some 15 persons had taken refuge, was blown into the lake by the force of the wind.

As quickly as possible efforts were made to rescue those who were thrown into the lake and were struggling to save themselves from death in the waters. Mr. Wythe took part in this work of rescue but he modestly deprecates any suggestion there was anything notable in what he did.

After the storm two row boats were found empty out in the lake. It was conjectured by some that the occupants of the boats had been drowned. Others advanced the opinion that in the storm the boats had broken their shore fastenings and had been carried into the lake by the wind. This, it was the opinion of Mr. Wythe, was the more probable inasmuch as neither boat was overturned and was riding upright in the water.

During and after the storm the excitement of the more than 2000 people was all but indescribable. To their number was added the number of those who come by automobile and traction from Newark to confirm the early reports of disaster.

Buckeye Lake park appears to have been the storm center, according to the accounts given. The wind swooped down over the Ohio Electric station from the west and cut a swath through frame buildings in which many persons had taken shelter. A roller coaster also was demolished after which the direction of the storm shifted to the south-east destroying several cottages on Fisher's point.

Harvey's Thin Legs Shun Knickers

KNIGHTS HOLD A MEMORIAL FOR BROTHERS GONE

Annual Service Is Held Sunday Afternoon And Evening By Timon Lodge

Address Is Given To Pythians By Rev. Hugh Wayt At Vine St. Church

Sunday afternoon and evening, memorial services were held by the members of Timon lodge, No. 45, Knights of Pythias. This is an annual custom of the members of this order, to visit the cemeteries and there place upon the graves of former members the flowers of remembrance.

Although the early afternoon was exceedingly hot and sultry, a large number of knights assembled at Timon castle hall to participate in the memorial service. At 1:45 the ritualistic service was held in the hall. At the conclusion of this service, the parade was formed, and the march made to Mount View cemetery. It moved in the following order:

U. R. K. of P.
K. of P. Band.
Knights of Pythias.

Auto with speaker and officers.

Upon arrival at the cemetery, the knights sought and placed upon each Pythian grave a cluster of flowers, signifying that friendship for which this order is an exemplar. This service done, the knights gathered about the grave of Logan A. Willis, latest dead of the membership of Timon lodge. There the remainder of the ritualistic service was brought to a close by the officers of the lodge.

The memorial address was to have been given by the Rev. Hugh Wayt at the cemetery. As the knights gathered about the mound, drops of the storm that had been threatening began to fall. This made it necessary to abandon the plans to hold the remaining part of the service at the cemetery, and announcement was made that the address would be given by Mr. Wayt at the Vine street Church of Christ in the evening.

None of those who had marched to the cemetery had gone far until the storm broke in its strength and fury. To save being being thoroughly wet and drenched, they were compelled to seek refuge and shelter in sheds and barns, upon porches and within the confines of friendly and welcoming houses.

The number of those attending the evening service unfortunately was not as large as had gathered at the cemetery in the afternoon. The memorial address was thoughtful and well prepared, and the hearing was a sufficient reward to those who attended the service.

In his address, the minister made mention with approval of the ideals and high standards of the order. He spoke of the service the lodge may give its members and to the community. This led to an interesting discussion in which the speaker presented his conception of the duties of a man who is a Knight of Pythias. It was made entirely clear that if the lodge as such is to function for good in this or any other community, the things for which the order stands must be exercised by each member in his everyday life.

A further exposition was given of charity and benevolence, which are included among the cornerstones of the order. A conception and an understanding somewhat out of the ordinary was given these by the minister.

During this service two song numbers were given by a quartet composed of Messrs. Babbs, Smith, Turner and Errett. Mr. Harry Smith also sang a solo.

MAY DIRECT RAIL STRIKE FROM CANADA

Such Action Legitimate As The Railroad Unions Are International

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)
CHICAGO, June 12—While additional railway employees were rumored to wage cuts affecting 350,000 today, any rail strike owing to pay decreases by decisions of the United States railroad labor board may be directed and financed from Canada, it was said, to evade the recent decision of the United States supreme court holding unions liable for damages caused by their members.

Leaders of the rail unions said to be contemplating the move viewed the establishment of the Canadian headquarters as legitimate because the unions are international organizations.

CAPITALIST'S NAME IS MADE PUBLIC

Sensation Created In Financial Circles In City Of Chicago

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)
CHICAGO, June 12—The Chicago capitalist who was said by James K. Mason, in testimony before the special senate committee investigating the United States Grain Growers Incorporation, to be willing to spend $1,000,000 in promoting a sales department for the grain growers is Barton F. Hales, a millionaire member of the Board of Trade.

Mr. Mason's testimony that a Board of Trade man was willing to help finance the co-operative organization which is looked upon by the big traders as a detriment to their interests, created a sensation in financial circles here, and the identification of Mr. Hales caused even greater surprise.
