

JULIUS O. CONVERSE, Editor. CHARDON, OHIO, FRIDAY, DEC. 22, 1865.

Summary of News.

The question of the admission of the Southern claimants to seats in the House of Representatives, it is now considered, has been fully determined. The vote in the House adopting the Stevens resolution by two-thirds, is regarded as conclusive evidence that they will not be admitted this winter.

In Kentucky, the State Senate has passed a bill removing any disability in regard to persons who had engaged in the Rebellion. The House has also pardoned all who committed treason in the commonwealth. The Legislature also decreed to veto an act which gave loyal citizens a remedy against the injuries done by guerrillas and Rebels. The State of Kentucky is rapidly "reconstructing" itself.

The King of Belgium is dead. The first bill passed by Congress this session is that prohibiting the importation of foreign cattle to prevent the spread of disease. It now awaits the President's signature.

Gov. Johnson of Georgia has received a dispatch from the President directing the inauguration of the Governor elect, and suggesting the election of a United States Senator. He advises that the commissions of Members of Congress be issued by the incoming Governor.

The Ohio Wool Growers' Convention will be held at Columbus, Jan. 3, 1866.

Gov. Worth took the oath of office at Raleigh, N. C. on Friday of last week, before the members of the two houses of the Legislature, and a number of citizens. The Governor elect delivered a short address on the occasion, claiming that the people of North Carolina desired the restoration of the Union.

Maximilian and Austria are negotiating for the further enlistment of 10,000 Austrian troops for service in Mexico, to be furnished during five years.

The cattle plague has been increasing in England during the past month to an alarming extent. During that period the attacks have risen, from a previous monthly average, from 14,000 to upward of 27,000, and the deaths, destruction included, to upward of 21,000. Between the 4th and 11th of November the number of cases increased by fifty per cent. In the ensuing week things were not quite so bad, but there was a further increase still. The London Times assumes that the deaths, instead of 700 a week, are at least four times that number, and if winter does not bring a change for the better, the losses may be 5,000 or 6,000 a week before Christmas.

Southern news is meager. Governor Jenkins, of Georgia, has been inaugurated. In his address, he acknowledges the supremacy of the laws and Constitution of the United States. He compliments the negroes on their good conduct, and recommends that their testimony be received in courts. In regard to taxation, the Governor says the lightest tax for sometime to come will be considered heavy. The South Carolina Legislature is trying to induce European emigration to that State to take the place of negro labor. The Virginia Legislature has resolved to take measures to re-unite Western and Eastern Virginia.

Chicago is having a baptism of fire. Within the past fortnight there have been large conflagrations almost every day. Early Saturday morning three business blocks lying on Lake, Franklin and South Water streets, were entirely destroyed, the loss being estimated at half a million of dollars.

A Fortress Monroe correspondent says Jeff. Davis is turning his attention more than ever to the concern of his soul. He has recently been visited by his old spiritual advisor, the pastor of St. Paul's church, Richmond, who passed the entire day at his prison in religious reading and conversation, and administered to him the sacrament.

The Madeira wine crop, which for several years was destroyed by a disease of the vines, is this year a success. About 4,000 pipes of wine will be made, and the prospects of the next crop are even more favorable.

The Akron Beacon announces the death of the celebrated Jim Brown, the reputed leader of the counterfeiting fraternity of Summit county and vicinity. His skull was fractured by a fall. He was sixty-seven years of age, and had long been one of the most shrewd of the utterers of spurious currency. He had been many times arrested, but was convicted only twice, having served one term in the Ohio, and one in the Michigan Penitentiary. At the time of his death he was under bonds for counterfeiting. The Cleveland Herald says he was a man of great influence, even when known as a dealer in counterfeit money, being elected as justice of the peace in Boston township. He drew flocks of young men into his net. When in strength of his intellect he never retailed his spurious coin, but sold it, usually, to petty dealers.

The French Legation is getting alarmed over the recent strong resolutions on Mexican matters introduced in the Senate by Mr. Wade, and in the House by Mr. Schenck. The First Secretary of the Legation has stepped off to France, to tell the Imperial Government that the American people and Congress are alike bitterly opposed to the French-Austrian usurpation, and to get further instructions.

The Columbus Journal, of Saturday, stated the trial of Dr. Dorney, late State Treasurer, would probably commence on that day. Hon. E. B. Warden is retained to assist in the prosecution. The offices of all the District Provoost Marshals in the State have been closed, except that of the Seventh Consolidated District, which will close on the 10th inst. The records have been filled with Colonel J. A. Wilcox, Provoost Marshal General of Ohio, at Columbus.

Navigation is closed by a gorge in the Mississippi twenty miles below St. Louis, and the river is about closing opposite the city. The Fenian agents sent from this country to Ireland have returned saddened by the dull prospects of their cause.

Oregon has adopted the Constitutional Amendment, being the twenty-eighth State to do so. If we include Colorado, which has adopted a State Constitution, but has not yet been admitted, there are thirty-seven States in the Union, and the requisite number has now been secured. If we exclude from the number of States which have ratified the measure, Louisiana, Arkansas and Virginia; Colorado, California and Iowa will make up the deficiency.

Congress adjourned on Wednesday last, till Monday, after which time they were to adjourn again on Wednesday, till the 9th of January. So we shall have but little to report from that quarter till after the 9th proximo, by which time the business of the session will be pretty well shaped, and a definite course developed.

In consequence of the Legislature of Tennessee having refused to admit negro testimony in the civil courts, Gen. Fiske, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau for that State, has issued an order which provides for special courts, under his superintendence, to hear cases in which negroes are interested.

The California legislature on the 18th ratified the Constitutional Amendment. In South Carolina 6,000 children of freedmen are attending school. It is said Secretary Stanton has tendered his resignation to the President, and insists upon its acceptance.

A dispatch from Montgomery, Ala., announces the arrest, on the 18th, of Semmes, the commander of the pirate Alabama. He is on his way to Washington, under guard. Provisional Gov. Johnson, of Ga., has been relieved from duty by orders from Washington.

The Senate has adopted a resolution to adjourn from Thursday until the 3d of January for the holidays, thus materially shortening the time proposed by the House.

Propositions have been submitted to the Senate to amend the Constitution by declaring the indissolubility of the Union, and providing that no debt contracted by towns, counties or States, in aid of rebellion, shall be assumed either by any State or the United States.

Captain Corbett, who commanded the private Shenandoah when she left England has been tried and acquitted on the charge of violating the foreign enlistment act by selling the steamboat to the rebels and outfitting men for her.

The whole number of sheep in the State is 6,227,253, valued at $21,730,788; of hogs 1,455,692, valued at $6,961,196. Licking county has the largest number of sheep—236,393, and Pickaway county the largest number of hogs—47,081.

The Committee appointed to select a site for a State Agricultural College have recommended the Miami University, at Oxford, be taken for the purpose.

A bill was passed Congress appropriating to Mrs. Lincoln $25,000, the same being a salary of the President.

It is announced that W. T. Coggeshall, late editor of the Ohio State Journal, is to be the Private Secretary of General Cox. The appointment is an admirable one.

Latest advices from Jamaica say the number of executions is estimated at from 2,000 to 4,000, and "the laud is offensive with corpses." This is the result of the "prompt and efficient measures for putting down the insurrection," which are commended by London papers.

Death of Hon. Thomas Corwin.

Hon. Thomas Corwin, while at a social meeting of Ohioans at Mr. Wetmore's, the State Military Agent, in Washington, on Thursday of last week, was stricken with palsy, and remained unconscious until 2 o'clock, P. M., on Monday, when he breathed his last. A special dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette says:

A brilliant assemblage of Ohioans were entertained this evening at the State Military Agency. In the supper room where he had been keeping the company in a roar with his lively sallies of wit, Hon. Thomas Corwin, ex-Senator, and late Minister to Mexico, while in the midst of a humorous anecdote, was struck with paralysis of the right side. Senator Wade and Gen. Garfield, who were beside him, caught him as he was falling, and carried him to a bed. He is now lying unable to speak and apparently in a critical condition, but still entirely conscious. The Chief Justice, Gen. Sherman, Senator Sherman and other prominent Ohioans are watching at his bedside.

Cheese.

The Second Annual Meeting of the Ohio State Cheese Manufacturers' Association will be held in Cleveland, on Wednesday and Thursday, January 24th and 25th. The Annual Address will be delivered on Wednesday evening, January 24th, by X. A. Willard, A. M., of the Utica Morning Herald and Country Gentleman, the ablest writer on Dairy Farming & Cheese Manufacture in the Union.

The Meeting will be one of great public interest, and a large attendance is expected of Dairyemen from all parts of the State, as well as delegates from New England, New York and the Canadas. Officers are to be elected for the ensuing year, and reports are to be made from 30 Cheese Factories, giving the result of the past year's operations, and also from a large number of private dairies.—Toledo Commercial.

The Lady's Friend.

The publishers of this beautiful magazine have issued a magnificent number for January. The leading steel engraving, "The Forest Gleaner," is a perfect gem of beauty. We do not know where the publishers of the Lady's Friend get such beautiful designs for their engravings. Then we have a gorgeous colored plate, "The Hand Banner Screen in Chenille on Velvet," which the ladies say is magnificent. The large double colored Steel Fashion Plate is as usual superb—we had almost said unequalled. Another engraving, called "Stephen Wharton's Will," which illustrates a fine story, is very suggestive. Then we have a beautiful plate of Children skating, intended to illustrate the winter styles of children's clothing; with numerous other plates illustrating Hair Nets, Winter Dresses, Borders for Jackets various new styles of Bonnets, Winter Cases, Paletots, Jackets, Embroidery, Chemises, Night Dress, Ancient Head-Dresses, Patchwork, &c., &c.

The literary matter is excellent. Among the articles, we note "Stephen Wharton's Will," "Mrs. Trunk," by Frances Lee; "Paul's Story, or French Lessons;" "Clarice," by August Bell; "The Two Nightingales;" "Stories of our Village," by Beatrice Colonn; "In Illness," by Florence Percy; "Rachel Dana's Legacy," by H. A. Heydon; "Arthur's Wife," "Loving Mary," Editor's Department, The Fashions, Household Receipts, &c., &c.

Wheeler & Wilson's celebrated Sewing Machines are furnished as Premiums in certain cases. The Prospectus of this magazine for next year embodies a splendid list of contributors. Address Danacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

News from Mexico states that the Liberals captured and held for a little while Monterey, but were forced to retreat before two columns of the French, one of which they repulsed with heavy loss.—Juarez has published a decree announcing his intention to continue the exercise of the functions of the Executive of the Republic of Mexico, on account of the inability of the people to hold an election and name a successor during the presence of the French invaders.
