Democratic County Convention.

The Democrats of Montgomery county are hereby notified to meet in Mass Convention, at Beckel Hall, in Dayton, on Saturday May 21st, at 2 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of appointing nine delegates and alternates to the Democratic State Convention, to be held at Columbus on Thursday, May 26th. A full attendance is requested from every Ward and Township. By order of the Democratic Central Committee. B. M. AYRES, Ch'n.

THOS. F. TERHUNE, Sec.

The County Convention.

We publish to day the call for a Mass Meeting of the Democracy of this county, to be holden in this City on Saturday the 21st of May. The State Convention will be holden in Columbus on Thursday of the following week, 26th inst. As the approaching State Convention will have to pass upon matters vitally important to the party and its interests for time to come, we hope that in the selection of delegates care will be taken to choose sound men for the post. Let none but prudent men, who will secure harmony in our ranks, be appointed. We hope to see the Democracy of the County fully represented here on the 21st prox.

Our Daily and Weekly Circulation—Business Prospects.

It is with grateful feelings that we inform our friends in the city and country that the circulation of our Daily and Weekly papers is increasing at a ratio never before known since the establishment of the Empire; and we are now approaching a point in business which will, we hope, enable us to print a paper worthy the patronage of the people, and obtain a livlihood from our outlay and labor. We mention the rapid increase of our subscription list mainly for the reason that those who feel a lively interest in our prosperity may know that our paper is being appreciated, and that they may be encouraged to still further aid us in putting our enterprise on a firm, paying basis. This can be effected by each friend of the Empire asking his neighbor to subscribe for a copy; at any rate, request them to give it a fair trial. Few will refuse to examine the paper; fewer still will decline subscribing for it, after they have examined it.

We need only refer to the advertising columns of our Daily to show that we have no cause for complaint against the business men of Dayton; we trust that — are the means of securing them at least two hundred per cent. upon their investments in our Columns. Our paper is daily becoming more valuable as an advertising medium; and it will not be our fault if it be not the best in the Miami Valley.

We have before referred to our Weekly pa[illegible] Weekly circulation, the paper is valuable as an advertising medium; and finding it impossible to accommodate all who desire to reach the people through its columns, we have found it necessary to issue a SUPPLEMENT to the Weekly Empire, which is filled with reading matter and advertisements; thus affording, at considerable expense a large amount of reading to our subscribers, and at the same time accommodating our advertising patrons. It may not be asking too much to request our Weekly subscribers to assist us in increasing our Weekly List, in order to compensate us for the extra expense we incur every week.

We repeat our assurances of devoting our time and energies to the task of publishing a first class Daily and Weekly Newspaper; and we ask the people of the Miami Valley to give us the support which, upon examination and trial, they may deem we deserve.

☞A law was passed at the recent session of the Maine Legislature, which provides that any attorney at law who neglects or refuses to pay over moneys belonging to his client for ten days after demanded, shall be deemed guilty of a breach of duty as an attorney—that such attorney shall be held to answer before the Supreme Court, on a rule allowing five days' previous notice, and if adjudged delinquent, and the attorney neglects or refuses to perform the decree of the court in the premises, he shall be committed for contempt of court till he shall perform such decree, or be otherwise discharged according to law, and the Court shall order his name to be stricken from the roll of attorneys and counselors at law in said Court.

ARIZONA.—The Overland Mail has arrived at St. Louis. A dispatch from St Louis to the Cin., Commercial, dated 24th says: The Sonora exploring and mining company have opened and are working a new vein, about one mile west of the Heintzelman vein. It is not as rich as the one they have been working, but we are informed that it yields several hundred dollars to the ton. This company has about one quarter of their machinery in operation, and are reducing some twelve hundred ounces of silver a week. They are working one hundred and fifty men, and lately commenced at the mines at Arivoca, which will be worked for lead, which is used as a flox in the reduction of the richest ores by smelting. This ore contains one hundred ounces of silver to the ton. The tunnel at their mines is over one hundred feet long.

☞A correspondent writing from Paris, says that at a review there, Prince Jerome, Ex-King of Wartemburg, whose white charger was much admired, rode upon the identical saddle, with holsters and bridle, the worse for wear, which did service on the 18th of June, 1815, at the battle of Waterloo, under the same rider. No paris paper would be suffered to mention it.

☞Fletcher Woodward, known as having been the romantic and most unfortunate husband of Susan Denin, the actress, is in the Fraser River region digging gold. He doubtless finds it much pleasanter than running about with Susan's apron strings about his neck.

☞The Boston papers make sundry irreverent comments upon the appearance of Sister Antoinette Brown Blackwell in Theodore Parker's pulpit last Sunday. She preached from the text "Bear ye one another's burdens." In reading the Scriptures, the Post says, people smiled when she came to the passage in the thirteenth chapter of first Corinthians, "When I was a child I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man I put away childish things." The Bee observes:

She made an excellent impression, and as a novelty would run a few Sundays. We do not believe, however, that ton Bosbelieves in woman preaching, except domestically.

Military News.

The Commercial has dispatches from St. Louis dated the 24th, from which we learn that Capt. Van Bockholer is not expected to return to Fort Buchanan. Lieut. Cook, of the Eighth Infantry, will discharge the duties of Quartermaster. Col. Bonneville, commander of the department of New Mexico, is doubtless by this time on his way to Fort Buchanan. He will visit various localities in this portion of the Territory, with a view to select a site for another military post.

A general court martial, for the trial of military offenders, is now in session at Fort Fillmore. Capt. Ewell being detailed to attend left Fort Buchanan on the 6th inst., to be absent fifteen or twenty days. It is rumored that instead of Col. Fountleroy, Col. Loomis, of the Fifth Infantry, will be placed in command of this department, as his regiment is now on the way to Arizonia.

Lieut. Col. Reeves anticipated making many improvements at Fort Buchanan, and has already made a very fair beginning.

☞The deserted wife of the notorious Ned Buntline, (E. Z. C. Judson,) who writes flash novels and stories occasionally, but who mostly spends his time in raking about the country, has resided in Buffalo the past two or three years, most of which time she has been confined to her bed by severe nervous and mental affliction. The Republican says she is not only gifted, but young and very beautiful; and that with all these accomplishments she has braved a world of trouble, persecution and affliction, and sacrificed everything but her virtue. She has lived in seclusion, braved battling wrong and misfortune, supporting her family by her writings for the press, yet modestly concealing her name. Such a woman in these degenerate times the Republican thinks, deserves the admiration and sympathy of the righteous public; and predicts that should her health be restored, she will leave her mark upon the age.

Prince Napoleon

The New York Times says, the writer of the following is "an American gentleman of liesure, long resident in Paris, who enjoys the best opportunity of seeing whatever is going on in those circles of Parisian thought and refinement in which the Court of the Tuileries is regarded with least favor."

Prince Napoleon is a combination of the Regent Phillip of Orleans, with the Romans Otho and Vitellius. Light, frivolous, very sensual, very witty, incapable of long or continuous study, without coherence in his ideas or his measures, a great disorganizer—as his late ministerial conduct showed—he is good for nothing because he believes in nothing. His religious and political notions are equally baseless. Though ostensibly a Republican, and choosing his associates in that party, he accepts and spends two million francs a year from the Imperial Government.
