

Who Defeated Billy Lang. The Advertiser of last week has had the pleasure to certify that Judge Lang was defeated by the Republicans. By what rule of political ethics the editor can...

THE CAUSE IS ONWARD! A Series of Brilliant Republican Victories.

The late elections in the free states have resulted in a series of brilliant Republican victories and the complete annihilation of what little was left of sham Democracy.

In Ohio the Republicans have swept the State, electing their entire ticket by about 7000 majority and a large majority in both branches of the Legislature...

In Pennsylvania, the people have uttered another withering rebuke to their recreant son, who disgraces the Presidential chair. Buchanan finds himself repudiated at home, where he should most expect support.

In Indiana, there was no state election, but the results in the several Counties show large Republican gains. The "Hoosier State" is preparing to join the Republican column in 1860.

In Iowa, the result is a sure Republican victory. The Republicans have swept the State, electing their entire ticket from Governor down, by increased majorities.

Outbreak at Harper's Ferry. Tremendous excitement has been occasioned at Harper's Ferry, Va., by an outbreak, which occurred there on Monday morning last.

The Result in Ohio. The result of the late election in Ohio should inspire every Republican with enthusiasm. It is indeed gratifying beyond all expectation.

The Pennsylvania Election. The People's ticket in Pennsylvania has received a majority estimated at 24,000. The Legislature just chosen is strongly Republican in both branches.
