

TERRECULTURAL.

AGRICULTURE AND ITS ADVANTAGES.

Of the various occupations and professions which have engaged the attention of mankind there is none that seems to be so pre-eminently useful, so honorable, in short so compatible with all our interests, as the cultivation of the earth.

And in view of these facts, for facts they are, are we not led to wonder that so many of our young men are placed behind the counter, to learn the arts and mysteries of the scales and yard-stick, to deprive themselves of the bloom and freshness of youth, and bring early and deep furrows of care and anxiety on their brows, by the difficulties and perplexities attending the prosecution of mercantile pursuits, when so many, and so strong inducements are held out for them to engage in that profession which was the earliest employment of man, and which as the light of science is spread abroad, and improvements are made in the art, is becoming more interesting, more profitable, and at the same time less laborious.

With what different feelings does the farmer and the merchant leave their pillows in the morning! The one buoyant with health and spirits, goes forth with the first dawn of day to his cheerful labors in the field, while the other, after a restless and perhaps sleepless night, walks in a sober mood to his counting room, anticipating with fearful forebodings the insolvency of his customers, or the ill success of a voyage.

With what honest pride and heartfelt satisfaction does the farmer look at his luxuriant fields, his richly laden orchards, and his growing flocks, with the happy assurance that with every returning season his substance is increasing, that he is above want, and far from feeling the fluctuation of merchandise, or the embarrasments of trade. Who, that has seen the hale and vigorous ploughman, whistling along as he turns up the furrow, and has not sighed for the joys of pastoral life? Or, who has enjoyed the privilege of witnessing the internal arrangements of a thrifty farmer's establishment, and observed the care and attention evinced in all her domestic economy by his industrious and frugal wife, and has not coveted the happiness and independence of the farmer? Much as the wealth and prosperity of a nation may be advanced and promoted by its commerce and manufactures, still we are constrained to look upon agriculture as its source and foundation. It is absolutely necessary to our existence. For let men pursue what other business they may, they are still dependent on the farmer for what they eat, drink and wear.

And, suppose the farmer, by way of relaxation, occasionally deviates from his regular routine of duties, and engages a little in horticulture, or the cultivation of the choicer kinds of fruit, will he not be repaid a thousand times for the time and labor bestowed on a few trees, vines or shrubs? And further, will not the appearance of his house and "front door yard" be immensely improved; himself and family enjoy a large amount of pleasure, and gratification, not to speak of the frequent lessons of neatness and order which his children would learn by the cultivation of a few varieties of flowers. And will not these silent monitors, who so beautifully remind us that "The hand that made them is divine," also have a moral tendency, and teach us to look "Through nature up to nature's God."

GENERAL AXIOMS. The maxim of Bacon, "Knowledge is power," is never more true than in regard to agriculture.

Hence no farmer who does not avail himself of the fruits of others' experience, and who does not improve his knowledge by perusing the ablest works on agricultural subjects, can expect to be successful. The prejudice of many farmers against agricultural knowledge in a printed form is absurd.

Endeavor to raise good grain, which will sell in years of great plenty—whereas, inferior grain can seldom be sold, except in times of scarcity. Let your cattle, horses, &c., be of the best sorts, and more remarkable for real utility than for beauty or fashion.

Do not above your profession, but rather consider it above all others.

Admit no guests into your house who cannot live upon the productions of his own country.

No farmer ought to undertake to cultivate more land than he can stock and manage to advantage. It is better to till twenty acres well, than 100 in a slovenly manner. Owning a large farm is no excuse for imperfect tillage. What you cannot improve, do not attempt to cultivate, but allow it to grow up to firewood and timber.

Large pastures may be profitable with no other expense but to keep them clear of bushes. But to run over twenty acres of tillage or mowing land, for what, with good cultivation may be obtained from five, is the extreme of bad husbandry.

A large farm, without skill, capital, and industry, is a plague to its owner—like self-righteousness, the more you have of it, the worse off you are.

HOW TO KEEP BUTTER FRESH AND SWEET FOR YEARS.

Among the mass of information furnished by the report of the commission of patents, which is highly interesting to farmers, is an account of a process, hitherto a secret, by which butter may be kept for years, fresh and sweet in any climate. Most kinds of wood contain considerable quantities of pyrogenous acid, which decomposes salt in butter kept in such tubs. The linden or bass wood, is the only one which, it appears by careful experiment, is free from it, others, it is stated, may be freed from it, and thus rendered suitable, by boiling three or four hours, to well pressed under water. Good butter is to be well churned, and worked and packed hard and tight in kegs of seasoned white oak; the head is then put in, leaving a small hole into which brine is poured to fill the vacant space, and of so much importance is it deemed, to prevent any bad taste, that the plugs for the hole must not be made of cedar or pine, but ofypress or basswood, as otherwise it would be injured. After which, these kegs are placed in a hoghead, well filled with brine of full solution, that will bear an egg, which is then headed up tight and close. This is the mode pursued in Orange County, N. Y., and the butter will keep at sea and in warm climates, and commands a very high price. The appendix to the report contains a letter addressed to Mr. Ellsworth, by G. Fox, Esq., a merchant of Hartford Conn., corroborating the above. Cin. Enquirer.

JEW DAVID'S OR HEBREW PLASTER. THIS is becoming one of the most popular medicines now before the public. For removing all sore throats, such as Rheumatism, pain in the back, side or breast, it has no equal in the world. It is also efficacious in removing warts, tumors, &c. We do not design to puff this medicine, with old fictitious certificates, but will simply mention a few recent cases, where it has effected cures. Mr. Sloan of Zanesville, after having suffered with Rheumatism for nine years was cured by using the HEBREW PLASTER. Mr. Anderson of Putnam, was troubled for a long time with a large back, occasioned by overexertion, cured by using this plaster. A man, (name not recollect), in Gettysburg, Licking Co., entirely cured of Rheumatism. The following certificate from Mr. Weston, editor of the Massillon Gazette, and George Miller Esq., of the firm of Keith & Miller, att'ys, was furnished me a few days since: Miamion, Oct. 28th, 1843.

Having received much benefit from using the JEW DAVID'S PLASTER, we cheerfully recommend it to the afflicted, believing it to be a good medicine for the purposes for which it is recommended. J. P. WORTELL. GEO. MILLER. Many other respectable persons have offered to give their certificates, but we deem it unnecessary, to add any more at this time. Those who use it will find it a good medicine. Each box contains sufficient to spread 6 or 8 large plasters. Price 50 cents per box. For sale in Cadiz by JOHN BEALL, and McBEAN & WOOD. Also for sale by agents in most of the country towns. JOHN HOGG, Agent for Mt. Pleasant. Nov. 16th, 1843.

DR. EASTMAN'S CONCENTRATED BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. For the cure of Consumption, Colds, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain in the Breast, Side, and Chest, Bronchitis, Weakness and that delicate and declining state of health so common before Consumption sets in. It has long been known that the bark of wild cherry possesses great remedial powers in Pulmonary and Bronchial affections. The difficulty hitherto has been to sufficiently concentrate its properties so as to give a quantity that will affect the system, and at the same time combine with it such other remedial agents as are necessary to make it such a remedy as has long been sought for, and which the proprietor now feels assured has been accomplished in his Concentrated Balsam of Wild Cherry. Many certificates of cures performed by the use of this Balsam are in possession of the proprietor, and might be had before the public, but we think it entirely unnecessary, as we feel confident that a trial of the medicine will be sufficient to remove all doubts from the minds of the most credulous.

Price $1 per bottle with full directions for use. For sale at the Drug Store of JOHN BEALL. Cadiz, Dec. 21st, 1843.

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA. THIS unrivaled preparation has performed some of the most astonishing cures of diseases that are recorded in the annals of history, thus proving conclusively that it is capable of filling the high and noble purpose for which it is designed. Patients suffering for years from various chronic constitutional disorders, after trying different remedies, spending thousands of dollars in travelling and doctoring, and suffering all that human nature is capable of enduring, having by the use of a few bottles entirely recovered their health. Chronic Rheumatism, Scrophulous King's Evil, Salt Rheum and Ringworm, Ulcers and painful affections of the bones, Everted Testicles, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Chronic Sore Eyes, Blisters and various cutaneous eruptions, are effectually cured by its use. Diseases having their origin in an impure blood and fluids generally will be speedily and effectually removed by this invaluable medicine, as its operation is peculiar, and consists in removing the cause of disease, restoring the circulation and passing through the general system.—Where obstructions to its favorable operation exist, they are removed as it passes along the alimentary canal; hence the patient will know and feel the sensible operation of the Sarsaparilla from its curative powers. The proprietor is a licensed physician, and a regular medical profession, the clergy, officers of justice, and numerous private citizens, ample and willing testimony, both written and verbal, to the superior value and efficacy of this preparation. To the poor it is furnished gratuitously, on sufficient proof being furnished of their worthiness.

The following certificates from individuals who have suffered with Scrophula in its severest form, are presented for the careful perusal of the afflicted. Essex, Conn., July 25, 1843. Messrs. Sands—Gent. About eight years since, by being overexerted and directly after exposed, I was seized with a severe cold, which deranged the whole system. Purule or local spots appeared on the skin, attended with violent pain in the head; the symptoms being alarming, a physician was called who prescribed blistering and leeching, which produced partial relief. Hard body lumps formed under the skin on various parts of the body, and the Doctor pronounced my condition hopeless. Scrophula now for the first time developed. The following winter my sight failed in both eyes, medical aid was again resorted to, which relieved my sight during the summer, my nose began to increase in size and the whole body rapidly enlarged with a tropical swelling. The nose grew very red and discharged most profusely the most loathsome substance. My whole system was involved in disease, the lumps softened and discharged freely, producing great debility; ulcers now broke out on the legs, and to complete my misery, the muscles and sinews contracted so that I was rendered helpless. I remained with little chance in this condition until October, when I was suddenly seized with an indescribable sensation which rendered me nearly unconscious, and my friends supposed it was the will of kind Providence to rid me of my sufferings, but from this I recovered only to suffer on the ulcers had become one continuous sore entirely raw. In this condition I commenced the use of your invaluable Sarsaparilla, which I was induced to use from the many remarkable cures I saw published.—It came to me as no guardian angel and I can scarcely tell you, yet from the moment I heard it mentioned I was impressed fully with the belief that this was to be the Good Samaritan for me—and truly it has wrought wonders in my case. After using it a few days my pains grew easier, the swelling of the body and the limbs went down, the ulcers commenced healing, and I nestled well. After suffering every thing but the pain of death, how happy am I and how grateful do I feel to be able to add another testimonial to the efficacy of your priceless Sarsaparilla! My health is restored, and I have walked four miles without inconvenience. I participated my family affairs, and in fact feel almost like being in a new world. I am induced to make this public acknowledgment from a deep sense of duty to you as a means in the hands of God of restoring a fellow mortal from a premature grave. Language is inadequate to express my feelings. May the Lord be with you, and make his face to shine upon you, is the sincere desire of your much obliged and deeply indebted friend. To the afflicted I would say, Do not despair, for however desperate your case may be, you surely have an outside at hand—viz: SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA. Trust to no other, however great their pretensions. MONSIEUR SIMMONS. Middlesex Co., Essex, Conn. July 25, 1843. Personally appeared the above named Monsieur Simmons, and made oath to the facts contained in the foregoing statement before me. GORDON SMITH, Justice of the Peace.

We the subscribers, being personally acquainted with Mrs. Monimia Simmons do not hesitate to say that we consider the above statement of her case substantially true and entitled to confidence. REXEY VORT, Deacon Baptist C. L. H. HATHES, Merchant. C. GREENLEAF, Sec. Deist. A. F. WITTMORE, P. M. JOHN BEALL, Agent, by special appointment of the proprietors, for Cadiz and vicinity.

COLD SETTLED ON THE LUNGS.—It is a very common complaint, and can be immediately removed by Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY. This is shown from long suffering and distant medicine, and becomes alarming on account of its threatening effects. Physicians are sent for, and medicine prescribed, but to no effect; when they at once pronounce the lungs to be entirely gone, and the case hopeless; that the patient must die of consumption. In this lingering situation hundreds are left under the mistaken idea of their disease ("Is he Consumption?") when it is nothing more than "COLD SETTLED ON THE LUNGS," when the patient is thus neglected until the lungs do actually become diseased. Why is it that so many (pronounced) hopeless cases have been restored to perfect health? The reason is very plain and obvious.—They commenced using Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY, and when the lungs were not entirely gone, they finally recovered. A fair trial of this medicine will convince all of this fact. Price, $1 per bottle.

IMPORTANT WARNING TO THOSE WHO NEGLECT A COLD.—It is evident, and decided by the most experienced physicians, that CONSUMPTION is mostly encouraged by a neglect of cold at the first attack. How many persons are there that put off from time to time procuring a suitable medicine, until the disease begins to assume a serious character, when in all probability they are past the power of medical aid.—May these lines prove a warning to those afflicted with the first symptoms of CONSUMPTION, that they may immediately use DR. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY, which is expressly for diseases of the Respiratory System. It is certain to remove a cough in a few days, at the same time relieving the pain in the side and breast, and arresting the progress of that fatal disease.—Consumption! The Expectant Remedy has a decided advantage over all other preparations. It is entirely free from Opium, and all other violent Narcotics. It regulates the system, and gives strength to the weak and nervous. For sale at the store of W. B. BEEBE. Cadiz, Nov. 16th, 1843.

DR. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY, FOR COLD, COUGHS, SPITTING OF BLOOD, BRONCHITIS, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, ASTHMA, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BREAST AND CHEST, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, AND ALL DISEASES OF THE LIVER AND LUNGS. BEWARE of Consumption!—We behold many who unfortunately are the object of disease; borne down by its pain and distress without a medicine to strengthen and soothe the enfeebled frame, or relieve the pained mind. Kind Providence has caused Nature to produce a Healing Balm for all living Creatures, particularly the afflicted. He that whose labors are rendered beyond the control of medicine, but immediately procure Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY, a medicine that is certain to remove all the first evil seeds of Consumption, when used in due season. A fresh supply just received at the store of W. B. BEEBE. Cadiz, Nov. 16th, 1843.

DR. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY, FOR COLD, COUGHS, SPITTING OF BLOOD, BRONCHITIS, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, ASTHMA, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BREAST AND CHEST, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, AND ALL DISEASES OF THE LIVER AND LUNGS.

$5000 REWARD.—This reward has been offered and is now renewed to an indefinite length of time, to any one, professional or private, who will show to the satisfaction of twelve respectable citizens, that Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY has ever failed to do what the proprietor claimed it would do. The above medicine is recommended for Consumption, Colds, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain in the Side, Breast and Chest, Whooping Cough, and all diseases of the Liver and Lungs as being the best remedy extant, entirely free from opium or its spiritual preparations, which is the main ingredients in the numerous quack nostrums, palmed upon the community by unprincipled persons, regardless of the great injury they should know such mixtures always produce. Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY is entirely free of opium, and all other violent narcotics, and may be used with perfect safety by all, under any circumstances. For sale at the store of W. B. BEEBE. Cadiz, Nov. 16th, 1843.

DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS.—Among the many medicines set forth to cure Consumption or Diseases of the Lungs, DR. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY stands foremost. Public confidence has given it a preference above all others for the wonderful cures it daily performs. In all diseases of the Lungs, Chest, and Liver, there is no medicine among the hundreds before the public, that will remove mucous from the air cells, and conglutinated masses of matter which line the trachea and impedes the perspiration but Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY. This medicine strengthens and imparts vigor to all the organs throughout the Lungs, and enables them to throw out all the obstructions which had impeded their free operations and subjected them to disease. Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Spitting of Blood, Hectic Fever, Night sweats, and all other approaching symptoms of Consumption, use Dr. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY in time, and you will be certain to have all those evil seeds driven from your system, and your life saved. Principal office No. 13 North Eight street, Philadelphia. For sale at the Store of W. B. BEEBE. Cadiz, Nov. 16th, 1843.
