CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.

THE CHESTER COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Mr. Daniel Sully, known to ten "Dan" Sully will appear at the Grand thousand personal friends and ad-Monday evening in his latest and mirrors throughout the country—as most successful play, "The Golden Rule," a comedy-drama. In four acts by Jerrold Shepard; in this play, Mr. Sully again appears as a Priest, and those who have seen him in "The Parish Priest," will need no assurance that he does not justify the part. Sully's original production of "The Parish Priest" was a daring innovation, and for over a year the religiously inclined public, the very people on whom he relied most for support, refused to accept the play, fearing that the character of a Catholic Priest could not be presented on the stage in the proper manner. It was an expensive undertaking for Mr. Sully to convince clergy and laity that "The Parish Priest" was deserving of their support, but in the end he succeeded and it eventually proved the greatest success of his career.

In "The Golden Rule" he has another Parish Priest, but the play is much stronger dramatically, and as Father O'Neill, Mr. Sully has a role that fits him to perfection; he has plenty of comedy of the characteristic Sully type, while the dramatic situations gives him better opportunities than has been afforded him in any of his previous plays. He is delighted with the play and considers it one of the big winners of the season.

The bill for the coming week at the Family Theater will present for the first time to the Marion public Bryant & Saville, famous musical merry makers, in their extremely funny specialty.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hussey, ventriloquists and comedians, are very clever people, presenting old tricks in a very new light.

Bisonette & Newman, the athletic cadets, and John A. Hawkins, champion college jumper, complete this interesting list of attractions.

E. P. Rowe, well, as usual, sing some late compositions and the moving pictures will produce some new features.

Collecting in New Hampshire. A New Hampshire man tells of a tight fisted man of affairs in a town of that state who until recently had never been observed to take an interest in church matters. Suddenly, however, he became a regular attendant at divine service, greatly to the astonishment of his fellow townsmen.

"What do you think of the case of old Ketchum?" said one of the business men of the place to a friend. "Is it true that he has got religion?"

"Well, hardly," replied the other. "The fact is, it's entirely a matter of business with him. I am in a position to know that about a year ago he loaned the pastor $50, which the latter was unable to pay, so there remained nothing for Ketchum but to take it out in pew rent."—St. Louis Republic.

May Do It Now.

"In the olden times it is said that it was possible for a man to render himself invisible."

"Fshaw! That's not at all remarkable. Men in this country are doing it every day."

"You don't say so! How do they manage it?"

"By marrying famous women!"

How He Squared Himself.

"Rotten!" involuntarily exclaimed Higgins at the play. "I beg your pardon," he said to the startled man in the next seat, thinking possibly he was a friend of the actor. "I'm always saying something to hurt some one's feelings, but I assure you I was not referring to the star—merely his lines."

"Oh, don't worry about me," he replied. "I'm only the man who wrote the play."—Judge.

Patient and Hopeful.

"Is your husband of a patient, hopeful disposition?"

"Yes, indeed," answered young Mrs. Torkins. "You just ought to see how hard it is to discourage him when he decides to win money on the races."—Washington Star.

Call for the State Democratic Convention

Pursuant to the order of the Democratic State Central Committee, notice is hereby given that the convention of the Democrats of the State of Ohio to nominate candidates for state offices to be voted for at the November election, 1908, will be held at Columbus, Ohio, on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 5 and 6, 1908.

Each county will be entitled to one delegate and one alternate for each 500 votes cast for John M. Patton for Governor of Ohio, at the November election, 1908 and one additional delegate and alternate for the remainder of votes exceeding 250. The prescribed number of delegates to this convention shall be elected through primaries, or delegate conventions, the delegates to which shall have been elected at primaries, or mass conventions, held in the county for the holding of which at least ten days' notice shall have been previously given designating the time and place for the holding of such primaries and conventions, and called by the controlling committee of the party in such counties.

Provided: That in counties where a registration of electors is required a primary election may be held at the discretion of the county controlling committee under the statutes governing such primary elections held under the auspices and control of the county board of deputy state supervisors of elections and that in such counties complete lists of delegates to the state convention headed by the name of a candidate for President of the United States, may be placed on the ballot in such manner as may be determined, however, that the name of no candidate for President shall appear at the head of more than one list of delegates.

No county, central or executive committee shall have power to designate the delegates to the state convention committee shall have power to name the delegates to the state convention.

The delegates will meet by districts at two o'clock P. M., on Tuesday, May 5th, at such places as may be designated by the Committee on Arrangements, for the purpose of selecting one member of each of the following committees: State Central Committee, Resolutions, Credentials, Rules and Order of Business, Permanent Organization, Vice President and Secretary. All of such committees will meet at places to be designated by the Committee on Arrangements at four o'clock P. M., of the same day. The convention will be called to order in the Franklin County Memorial Hall on East Broad Street at seven-thirty o'clock P. M., on Tuesday, May 5th. The temporary officers will be: Chairman, Hon. Edward H. Moore, of Mahoning County; Secretary, Hon. Benjamin R. Gayman of Franklin County; Sergeant-at-Arms, Bert S. Bartlow of Butler County. At such convention candidates shall be named for the following offices: Two candidates for the office of Presidential Elector-at-Large; a Governor; a Lieutenant Governor; a Secretary of State; an Auditor of State; a Treasurer of State; an Attorney General; two Members of the Board of Public Works; a Dairy and Food Commissioner; a Commissioner of Common Schools; two Judges of the Supreme Court, and a Clerk of the Supreme Court.
