WHY I LOST MY JOB

Reasons Why Thousands Like Me Cannot Satisfy Their Employers.

"I believe my fate is not unlike that of thousands of other workers who daily lose their places for reasons they do not know, and probably would not believe. When their last pay envelope comes along it is usually 'Your services no longer required.' If the truth were known the reason for their unceremonious removal would probably be that their usefulness was destroyed because of some mental worry, bodily ailment or general indisposition. These things as we all know, are the most fruitful causes of failure in all walks of life. The battle of Waterloo was lost because of a headache. In this quick age our minds must be clear, rapid, active and free from outside influence or worry or else go down to failure with the throng of 'floaters' who go from one place of employment to another giving no satisfaction to others or to themselves, constantly growing older and less useful, with no ambition nor will power and no hope. Every man requires from every other man the best that is in him. But no man can use or get the best that is in himself until he is first free from all fretful indispositions and worries.

That was my trouble. I was full of troubles. That's why I lost my job. My stomach in the first place was always out of order and I was worrying about it and my mind grew cloudy, and slow. I made mistakes and grew grouchy. That was the end. There are thousands like me, going about with 'quick lunch' faces, dyspeptic manners and repulsive atmospheres. No employer wants such men's services.

Take my advice. A healthy stomach is half the battle, for it keeps your mind clear, and your face rosy. I have a healthy stomach now and hold a good position and my employer is satisfied and so am I.

I started to take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets which I was told were good for the worst cases of indigestion and dyspepsia. The first two tablets made a wonderful difference in my condition.

One ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digests 3,000 grains of food. The stomach doesn't have to work at all. The Tablets do all the work no matter how heavy your meal.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure breath, eructations, burning sensations, bloating, irritations, loss of appetite, nausea, heartburn, lack of energy, loss of memory and dyspepsia and indigestion in their very worst forms.

No other little tablets in the world can do so much. You should carry them around with you wherever you go and take them regularly after meals. Then you will realize what it is to be freed from stomach torment and have a clear mind, a quick memory, a happy disposition, comfort and rest. Get Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store for 50c a package.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

WAYSIDE ODD FELLOWS

Arrange to Attend County Meeting at Agosta.

Modern Woodman Meet and Arrange for Social—Install Newly Elected Officers.

Clay Council, National Union met last night and installed officers for the year. The officers Orrin Minor, president; Webster Gompf, vice president; Clyde Gibson, speaker; Clyde Gibson, ex-president; M. A. Bever, chaplain; D. L. Stouffer, treasurer; O. A. Busard, corresponding secretary; W. A. Chapman, financial secretary; P. R. Stouffer, sergeant-at-arms and I. D. Lewis, doorkeeper.

After the meeting the lodgemen enjoyed a supper in the G. A. R. hall.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Modern Woodmen last evening. Aside from transacting the regular business and arranging for a social to be held at the next meeting night, the lodge conducted its annual installation services. B. B. Carter acted as installing officer and the following corps of officers were given the oath of administration:—

A. F. Kull, venerable council; J. Staloney, worthy advisor; Louis Scherff, clerk; George Neely, banker; S. P. Shupp, escort; L. Wood, inside sentinel; C. McNeal, outside sentinel; C. Cowgill, manager.

Wayside Lodge I. O. O. F. met in its halls last night with a large attendance. Arrangements were made for attending in a body, the county Odd Fellows' convention to be held at Agosta, next Wednesday evening. The lodge will give the third degree to a large class of candidates upon the occasion.

At the conclusion of the business, refreshments were served and a social session was much enjoyed.

Marion Lodge No. 32, B. P. O. Elks met last night with a large attendance. Aside from considering regular routine business, arrangements were completed for a banquet and social convalescence to be held next Thursday night.

Canby Lodge No. 51 Knights of Pythias enjoyed a dance with the Pythian rank of the lodge Thursday evening in the Canby hall. Over fifty couples were present.

On January 21, the lodge expects to have a masquerade dance as the second of a series given during the winter months.

The women of the American Insurance Union held a meeting in the lodge hall Thursday evening and transacted the regular business coming before that department of the lodge.

NEW EXAMINATION QUESTIONS

REAL TESTS

WHICH, PASSED, WILL QUALIFY YOU NOT MERELY FOR TEACHING, BUT FOR SOCIAL INFLUENCE AND POWER

Ask Superintendent Frank Their Value

Under what circumstances were twenty-two thousand tables spread for a single banquet?

Of whom was it said, 'Many know better how to live; but few know better how to die'?

What city has the most musical people in the world?

In what lake can you catch trout and, without moving, boil them in naturally hot water?

Where in the United States has majority rule without fear or favor been the custom for centuries?

In what part of the world is the devil said to be white?

What five distinct races of men would you meet on almost any railroad platform in Southern California?

What famous building, planned by an unknown architect, was begun two hundred and fifty years before Columbus discovered America and only completed in 1880?

In what portion of America can a wife evict her husband for all-time and send him home?

Where is there a mountain of solid jet-black glass?

Where is there a pyramid built of millions of bricks, covering forty-five acres of ground and reaching a height of two hundred feet, with a Christian church on top?

What great structure contains more material than all the buildings in Scotland and England put together, or enough to build a wall six feet high and two feet thick around the earth at the equator?

In what three respects does China defy the world to equal her?

Why have English railway locomotives no cow catchers?

Where in America is the wife recognized as sole owner of the home and its contents; the husband considered sole owner of all property outside the home, and descent of the children traced through the mother and her name given them instead of the father's?

In what place on our continent can you pick roses and forty minutes later throw snowballs?

If the Oxar of Ruasta wished to talk to all his subjects, how many languages would he have to use?

What famous author wrote just previous to his sudden death, 'Changes of glorious light from moving trees, the songs of birds, the scents from gardens, woods, and fields penetrate the cathedral, subside its earthy odor and preach the Resurrection and the Life'?

What people worship their ancestors, settle all financial disputes by arbitration, grow a moustache only when the wearer is a grandfather, revere the hog as sacred, refer only to their sons as children, consider it a high compliment to ask a person's age, have old women act as bridesmaids, and have a written language that is never spoken and a spoken language that is never written?

What nation has the proverb, 'The word that escapes you is your master'; and which the saying, 'Flirtation is love in water colors'?

These and their answers, found in John L. Stoddard's Travel Lectures now on sale here, indicate the quality of velvety travel-knowledge that to these wondrous books impart.

Mr. Duncan, the manager of this present sale here is at 317 E. Church always ready to show you these beautiful volumes; and, remember, he is glad to engage capable cultivated ladies over 21, and gentlemen over 23 for this work. He offers steady employment and the record is that excellent money is made.

Railroad Notes

On account of the present lack of business on the Hocking Valley road, the officials have decided to cut down the present working force until the traffic on the road assumes its former proportions. Operators W. C. Ladow, Rider and Clark at Columbus were dismissed this morning. Their positions will not be filled until their services are needed on the road. Operator Ladow was formerly of this city and it is expected that he will be given the work at the office in this city, when the new eight hour law goes into effect.

Master Mechanic M. A. Kenney and Trainmaster R. M. Connel were in this city today looking after business.

H. O. Dunkle, general superintendent of the Erie, was a visitor at the local station today.

No. 3 on the Erie being late this morning a separate section was made up at Youngstown for the accommodation of local passengers.

Are You a Trust Buster?

Hey—You! Yes, YOU'RE the man we mean.

You're always talking about the harm the trusts are doing. The country's going to the demnation bowwows, you say, because of the uncurbed trusts. Rich growing richer, poor getting poorer. Used to be that a poor man could go into business for himself in a modest way and make a good living. Now he must become a clerk or a roustabout or a hodcarrier for some corporation—some combination that has grown to be a Goliath of bigness, that has devoured the fat of the land and is still gourmandizing upon it, till there's not a scrap of bone left for the under dog.

That's your line of talk. You're still handing it out, and you're proud of it.

Well, now, let's see: Are YOU a trust buster YOURSELF?

Didn't we see you stalk up to the postoffice just now and mail a letter with the address of a city Mail Order Store on the envelope? Hey? Didn't we?

Don't you know that the Mail Order Store is a trust—one of the most dangerous in the crowd? Don't you know that it is secretly and slyly closing the doors of opportunity to the young men in country towns and small cities like ours? Don't you know that the Mail Order Trust is collecting the patronage of town and country people by the mail route, thereby cutting down the patronage of the smaller merchant, the local man who is trying to build up a modest, independent, antitrust business?

Hey?

Didn't that ever occur to you?

N. B. (which means note well): Why don't you trade at home instead of helping to build up a trust that hurts your home place?
