Chosen President of School Board.

HARD FIGHT SETTLED

After Twenty-five Ballots and a Star Session.

William Waddell is Chosen to Fill the Vacancy on the Board of School Examiners.

After casting twenty-five ballots at the meeting of the school board Friday evening the members went into a star chamber session, after which the retiring president George B. Christian Jr., made a motion that Fred E. Guthery be elected president and upon being seconded by Mr. Spaulding it was placed before the board resulting in a vote of 5 to 1 in favor of Mr. Guthery. The vote in the first session had turned from Members Spaulding and Christian and threatened to be a tie between the Democratic members of the board for the presidency. Messrs. Jacoby and Guthery were the favorites. Upon his election the new president immediately took the chair and the business coming before the board was taken up. A motion was made by Member Dickerson that H. E. Hill be re-elected clerk of the Board at a salary of $80 per year, payable monthly. Mr. Hill was re-elected ed unanimously, and his bond was fixed at $300.

Owing to the resignation of J. W. Jacoby as a member of the board of school examiners it was necessary to appoint a new member to fill the unexpired term, which ends August 31, 1908. Mr. William Waddell was chosen to fill the vacancy.

Superintendent Frank asked the opinion of the board in regard to engaging Professor W. M. B. Pathy to deliver a lecture upon "Radium, Liquid Air and Wireless Telegraphy" in the High School Auditorium. The agents of the lecturer have been arousing interest among the teachers and pupils in the schools on the educational value of such a lecture and it was thought that the address would be of great interest and benefit. Member Dickerson, however, still clung to the idea that no admission should be charged in the public schools, thus bringing before some pupils what others would be unable to secure. Mr. Dickerson thought that if it was necessary to the schools it should be paid for by the board. A vote on the measure was taken which resulted in a tie. If better advantages and lower prices are offered by the agents, action may be taken on the matter at the meeting next Monday night.

Upon motion of Member Christian it was decided that the board should meet the second and fourth Mondays of each month as formerly. Next Monday evening will be the next regular meeting night.

The matter of fixing a depository for the school funds was discussed and action will be taken on the matter next Monday night. The board now has $2984.41 in its funds and bills to the amount of $1000 are as yet unpaid being left over from the last meeting.

Clerk Hill was authorized to procure two hundred calendars with the list of the officials, school board members and the teachers properly placed thereon. In the future the entire board will constitute the committee on teachers and janitors.

Upon motion the board adjourned until Monday night.

Lectures to be Given Each Week.

REVEREND D. H. BAILEY

Speaks Friday at the School of Commerce.

Students are Urged by Pastor of Epworth Church to Specialize in Certain Branches.

The first of a series of Friday morning lectures to be given by the business and professional men of the city before the students of The School of Commerce was given Friday morning by Rev. D. H. Bailey, pastor of Epworth M. E. church. These lectures are free to all who may desire to attend. They begin at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Bailey spoke of the two factors—student and teacher—as constituting a college, but said that a real student may constitute a college by himself, in his room, with one stool and a few books to guide him, hence the student is the more important of the two. "We become students for the information that we may receive and equip ourselves for life," said Mr. Bailey. "The well-informed man, other things being equal, will be the successful man. It is important that we should specialize in certain branches. The man who has mastered certain branches is a strong man. No man will be a strong man until he has specialized. The men and women who are succeeding are the people who have mastered some things; they are in great demand. It is far better to have a mastery of one book, than to have a smattering of a dozen. It is of real vital concern to the student that he master one thing."

"The reason we become students is for the discipline—mental training, which enables us to say to our mental intellects, 'Here, you do this work.' Did you ever have a day to say that to your intellect? That is the value of an education; it gives us strength of will to say, 'You do that,' and then see that it is done, avoiding these distracting things."

Mr. Bailey closed his address with an urgent appeal to live a moral life. He said that he believed 98 to 99 per cent. of the failures, no matter in what particular vocation, are failures because of a break-down in moral character. "When we come to analyze these causes, we find them in the moral realm. There is not a young man in this room who will not succeed, if you live up to the laws of morality," said the speaker in conclusion.

Clubs and Societies.

One of the most delightful social functions of the week was given at the Huber hall yesterday evening when the Marion order of the United Commercial Travelers No. 129, entertained their lady and gentleman friends at a reception and ball. It was the annual conclave of the order and neither trouble nor expense was spared to make it the great success which it proved to be.

The front offices of the Prendergast company were thrown open for the accommodation of the guests. A gent's smoking room and card rooms were prepared for those not indulging in the dance.

The halls throughout were prettily decorated in ferns and potted plants. The orchestra was hidden behind a bank of palms and ferns.

The guests numbering about two-hundred assembled at 8 o'clock. Dancing began at 8:30 o'clock and continued until 12. Miss Felkner's five piece orchestra furnished the music for the occasion.

An elegant buffet luncheon was served during the intermissions in dancing. Orange punch was served during the evening, from a cozy corner located at the rear of the side-board. One of the courses of the luncheon was fruit sherbert furnished through the kindness of Mrs. Lippincott of the Pilgrim Inn.

The success of the affair was greatly due to the efforts put forth by the social committee which was composed of Messrs. Russel Harmon, R.
